THE ASSEMBLY'S MINUTES

The selling price of the Minutes to parties outside of our bounds, commercial houses, etc., is $1.00; to officers and others in our Church, 50 cents; to Presbyterian clubs buying a copy for each Church in the Presbytery, to clubs of the General Assembly, and also to members of Committees of Presbytery, Synod or Assembly, 25 cents. A copy free of charge is sent to each minister on the roll of the Church, as shown by the Presbyterian reports, but delivery is not guaranteed. So that if the copy mailed fails to reach the party, another free copy must not be claimed. A charge of 50 cents will be made for extra copies sent to replace copies lost in the mail or to correct wrong addresses given by Clerks of Presbyteries.

Orders should be sent to the Committee of Publication, Richmond, Va., and not to the Stated Clerk.

On motion, the Assembly by a unanimous vote expressed its sympathy for the family of Ex-Governor R. B. Glenn in their bereavement in his death.

Rev. W. L. Lingle, D. D., a commissioner from the Presbytery of Concord, was chosen Moderator. Rev. S. J. Cartledge, a commissioner from the Presbytery of Athens, was chosen Reading Clerk, and Rev. J. N. McFarlane, D. D., a commissioner from the Presbytery of Arkansas, was chosen Temporary Clerk.

Dr. W. J. Martin, President of Davidson College, by invitation, addressed the Assembly, inviting the members to make a visit to the college. The invitation was accepted and the Assembly decided to make the visit Saturday afternoon from 2 to 6 o'clock.

Rev. A. M. Fraser, D. D., reported on the appointment of certain Ad-Interim and other Committees. The report was received as information. The action of the Moderator in making these appointments was approved. The report is as follows:

To the Venerable, the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States:

FATHERS AND BRETHREN:—I hereby report the discharge of certain ad-interim duties that devolved upon me as Moderator of the last Assembly:

1. The Assembly directed me (see Minutes of Assembly, page 48, paragraph “Fourth”) to appoint an ad-interim Committee on Closer Relations with “one or more of our sister Churches of like faith and order,” this Committee to be composed of men chosen by the several Synods. Having been officially certified of the election of the following persons by their respective Synods, I appointed them as the Assembly’s Committee on Closer Relations, viz:

Synod	Principal	Alternate
Alabama.....	Thornton Whaling, D. D.....	R. H. McCaslin, D. D.
Appalachia.....	John A. Buchanan*.....	R. F. Campbell, D. D.
Arkansas.....	John Van Lear, D. D.....	C. H. H. Branch, D. D.
Florida.....	E. D. Brownlee.....
Georgia.....	Homer McMillan, D. D.....
Kentucky.....	Dunbar H. Ogden, D. D.....	A. J. A. Alexander*
Louisiana.....	George Summey, D. D.....	J. F. McKenzie
Mississippi.....	J. B. Hutton, D. D.....
Missouri.....	W. R. Dobyns, D. D.....	C. R. Nisbet, D. D.
North Carolina.....	J. M. Wells, D. D.....

*Ruling Elder.

Oklahoma.....	Erskine Brantly, D. D.....	W. A. Zeigler
Snedecor Memorial.....	I. C. H. Champney, D. D.....
South Carolina.....	H. Tucker Graham, D. D.....	W. F. Stevenson*
Tennessee.....	A. B. Curry, D. D.....
Texas.....	T. A. Wharton, D. D.....	Robert Hill, D. D.
Virginia.....	A. M. Fraser, D. D.....	Russell Cecil, D. D.
West Virginia.....	Ernest Thompson, D. D.....

In further obedience to the instructions of the Assembly, I appointed the Rev. J. M. Wells, D. D., as convener of the Committee, Memphis, Tennessee, as the place of the first meeting, and 11:30 a. m., January 21st, 1920, as the time.

2. The Assembly directed me (see Minutes of Assembly, paragraph 3, pages 54 and 55) to reappoint as representatives of our Church in the General Council of Reformed Churches Throughout the World Holding the Presbyterian System, the same persons who had been appointed by the Assembly of 1916 for a meeting of the Council which failed to convene because of the World War. I was also directed to fill any vacancies that may have occurred since 1916.

In my effort to discharge this duty, I met with two embarrassments. First, the number of representatives assigned to our Church has been reduced from thirty to twenty-one. This made it necessary to drop the names of nine of those appointed at first, together with their alternates. Second, some of the representatives, chosen because of their residence in particular Synods, have changed their residence to other Synods since their appointment. My construction of my duty was that I was limited to reappointment except in cases of actual vacancy. I have, therefore, followed the list exactly as it is contained in the Minutes of 1916 as far as possible. There was only one vacancy, that caused by the death of Ruling Elder J. C. Calhoun, the alternate from the Synod of Virginia. I appointed Ruling Elder R. E. Magill, of the Synod of Virginia, to fill that vacancy, Mr. Magill having been one of the original representatives at large, and his name occurring first on the list of those who had to be left off. With these explanations, I report the following as the list of representatives to the Council appointed by me, viz:

Synod	Principal	Alternate
Alabama.....	R. H. McCaslin, D. D.....	J. S. Foster, D. D.
Appalachia.....	C. C. Carson, D. D.....	J. N. Fisher*
Arkansas.....	T. L. Green.....	C. H. H. Branch, D. D.
Florida.....	L. B. Skinner*.....	Joseph Venable, D. D.
Georgia.....	E. L. Hill, D. D.....	S. L. McCarty
Kentucky.....	H. H. Sweets, D. D.....	E. C. Ward*
Louisiana.....	T. M. Hunter, D. D.....	G. H. Cornelson, D. D.
Missouri.....	W. W. Elwang, D. D.....	A. A. Wallace, D. D.
Mississippi.....	C. W. Grafton, D. D.....	W. C. Wells*
North Carolina.....	A. A. McGeachy, D. D.....	J. M. Wells, D. D.
Oklahoma.....	C. C. Weaver, D. D.....	A. H. Ferguson*
South Carolina.....	A. D. P. Gilmour, D. D....	Alexander Martin, D. D.
Tennessee.....	Wm. Crowe, D. D.....	C. S. Ivie*
Texas.....	R. M. Hall, D. D.....	Bradford Hardie*

Virginia.....W. J. McMillan, D. D.....R. E. Magill*
 West Virginia.....G. E. Price*.....D. P. McGeachy, D. D.

At Large—

Arthur G. Jones, D. D.....Henry Moore*
 R. B. Glenn*.....Byron Clark, D. D.
 E. Thompson, D. D.....E. C. Caldwell, D. D.
 R. P. Williams*.....E. E. Smith, D. D.
 D. H. Ogden, D. D.....E. T. Wellord, D. D.

3. At different times since the adjournment of the last Assembly, the Rev. C. S. Macfarland, D. D., Secretary of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, requested me to appoint persons to represent our Church on various committees of the Federal Council. I had not been authorized to make such appointments, nor had any one else such authority. But it seemed to me that as long as our Church is an organic part of the Federal Council it is entitled to representation on its committees. I therefore assumed the authority to make the appointments, subject to the approval of the Assembly. Accordingly, I appointed members of the said committees as follows:

Administrative Committee—The Rev. Albert Sidney Johnson, D. D.

Committee on an Ecumenical Council—The Rev. J. M. Wells, D. D.

Committee on Relations with National Churches in Europe—The Rev. I. S. McElroy, D. D., the Rev. William Crowe, D. D., the Rev. R. E. Douglas, D. D., the Rev. R. C. Reed, D. D., the Rev. William Cumming, D. D., the Rev. J. H. Taylor, D. D., and the Rev. A. R. Bird.

The Rev. A. S. Johnson, D. D., did not accept the appointment, and I hereby report to the Assembly that our Church has no representative on the Administrative Committee, that the vacancy may be filled at this meeting if the Assembly shall so decide.

Doctors R. C. Reed, William Cumming and J. H. Taylor also declined the places to which they were appointed. As no definite number was fixed for that group of committees, and as I had no request from Dr. Macfarland to fill these vacancies, I did not do so, and I make no recommendation now to the Assembly as to further appointments.

Respectfully submitted,

A. M. FRAZER,

Moderator of the Assembly of 1919.

The privileges of the floor were granted to Rev. A. S. Johnson, D. D., pastor of the church in which the Assembly is holding its sessions, to make announcements and in arranging for the devotional exercises, and for any other matter of importance to the Assembly.

The hours of the daily sessions were fixed as follows:

Morning session from 9 a. m. to 12:20. Devotional exercises from 12:20 to 1:00 p. m.

Afternoon session from 2:30 p. m. to 5:30 p. m.

Evening session from 8:00 p. m. to the pleasure of the court.

The time for hearing the address of Rev. John McNeill, D. D., was changed from 11:00 a. m. Monday to 12:00 m. Monday.

CHURCH OF THE PILGRIMS

The order of the day to hear Rev. Andrew R. Bird, of Washington, D. C., was taken up. Mr. Bird then addressed the Assembly on the religious conditions in Washington, D. C.

The Assembly then adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That we have heard with pleasure the stirring address of Rev. Andrew R. Bird, pastor of the Church of the Pilgrims, of Washington, D. C., and the address and matter be referred to the Standing Committee on Home Missions of the Assembly with hearty approval and willingness to cooperate in every way possible.

Overtures Numbers 19, 20, 21, relating to the work of the Church of the Pilgrims in Washington, D. C., were taken from the Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures and placed in the hands of the Standing Committee on Home Missions.

Overture Number 9, relating to the reorganization of Committees, was taken from the Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures and referred to the Standing Committee on Systematic Beneficence.

The order of the day, the hearing of the report of the Ad-Interim Committee on Closer Relations, was taken up. The chairman of the Committee, Rev. A. M. Fraser, D. D., read the report as amended by the Committee. Pending the consideration of the report, the hour for recess arrived.

An overture from Rev. E. W. McCorkle, D. D., concerning the advisability of having published in Chinese the International Bible Encyclopedia was referred to the Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Assembly then took recess until 8:00 p. m., closing with prayer by Rev. F. B. Webb, D. D.

EVENING SESSION

8:00 p. m.

The Assembly met, and after devotional exercises heard the report of the Standing Committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief. The report was read by the Chairman, Dr. J. D. Eggleston. Pending a motion to adopt the report, addresses were delivered by Rev. Henry H. Sweets, D. D., and Dr. J. D. Eggleston. Mr. John Stites, Treasurer of the Executive Committee of Christian Education and Ministerial Relief, also made a short address.

The report was adopted, and is as follows:

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION AND MINISTERIAL RELIEF

The efficient manner in which the Executive Committee of Christian Education and Ministerial Relief has accomplished its work in every department under its care is heartily commended.

The financial report of the Committee shows an increase in income, over the previous year, of $68,567.65, thereby making possible an enlargement of the work.

1. Education for the Ministry and Mission Service.—In calling attention to the great need for increase in the number of candidates for the ministry and mission service, the Committee of Christian Education and Ministerial Relief make the startling statement that there were last year nine Presbyteries, containing 218 churches, 136 ministers, and 708 elders, with a church membership of 18,826, in which there was no candidate whatever under their care. The Committee well says that "this situation should cause great anxiety and earnest prayer."

We recommend that the following resolution be adopted by the Assembly:

The extensive and aggressive method of the Executive Committee of helping the youth of the Church to discover the plan of God for their lives is approved by the General Assembly, and the Assembly urges that all the assistance possible in this vital matter be given by the pastors and church officers; and that earnest prayer be made to God by pastors and congregations in their respective churches, and by Christian people in their homes, that many of our Christian youth be led by the Holy Spirit seriously to consider, and to heed, the call of God to the high privilege of preaching the Gospel.

The Executive Committee now allows our candidates for the ministry, on their notes due the Committee, the difference between their salaries and the salary of $1,200 and a manse, or $1,400 without a manse. We recommend that the allowance be the difference between their salaries and $1,400 and a manse, or $1,600 without a manse; that is, $200 more per annum.

We recommend that in extraordinary cases, such as those intending to be medical missionaries, the Executive Committee be permitted to increase its loans to an amount deemed justifiable in each individual case.

2. The Endowment Fund.—Mr. C. E. Graham has offered the sum of $200,000 to the Endowment Fund for Ministerial Relief, provided the Church raises $400,000 additional. We recommend that the following resolution be adopted:

The General Assembly is deeply appreciative of the generous offer of Ruling Elder C. E. Graham to give to the Endowment Fund for Ministerial Relief the sum of $200,000 on condition that the Church raise $400,000 additional for this purpose.

The General Assembly deems it of the utmost importance that plans be perfected at once to raise this amount, and calls upon the elders, deacons, laymen and women of the Church to assume the responsibility of raising this $400,000 under the direction of the Executive Committee, with the help of the Laymen's Missionary Movement and the Woman's Auxiliary. The session of each church is requested to see that on some Sunday in June or September this opportunity and responsibility is put before all our people.

3. Schools and Colleges.—The splendid work done by the Executive Committee in arousing the Church to the necessity of conserving and enlarging the Church schools and colleges cannot be too highly commended. Its work has proven of inestimable value.

Our Church schools and colleges are the very seed-plots of the Church. Our people are awakening to this fact; yet it must be said that a great deal of education is still needed to bring home to the hearts and minds of our Church members the fact that "these institutions must be saved to the Church—to the cause of Christianity—and they must be better equipped, enlarged, and endowed."

4. The Student Loan Fund.—We recommend that the General Assembly re-endorse the Three-Year Program of the Committee of Christian Education and Ministerial Relief, and urge that it be fully carried out.

Owing to the increased cost of living, and therefore of obtaining an education, we recommend that if the funds in the hands of the Executive Committee are sufficient, the Committee be allowed to increase its annual loans from $100 a year to $150.

5. Salaries of Ministers.—The persistent efforts of the Executive Committee to keep before the Church the pressing matter of adequate support of our ministers have met with good results. And yet only a beginning has been made. We call attention to the following statement made by the Committee: "Our ministers and their families are being forced to unwise economy, and many have been forced to borrow on meagre life insurance policies to the limit, and when premium and loan came due, have been forced to surrender the policy."

The Executive Committee states as a fact that nearly 1,000 pastors in our Church are receiving salaries which, in terms of the purchasing power of eight years ago, do not exceed, and in some cases do not reach, $750 a year. This is a situation to which, to put it mildly, we cannot point with pride. Are we not justified in believing, and therefore in saying, that God is withholding a great blessing from our Church because we, on our part, are, in the matter of financial support, withholding from our faithful ministers, missionaries and teachers a support that should be not only adequate but generous? Will God answer our prayers that more of our young men and women be led to preach and teach the Gospel when such a condition of affairs is permitted by a Church amply able to give an adequate support to those who are serving the Church and the cause of Jesus Christ? When we hold back from these faithful servants a support we know we should give, do we not, as it were, compel our Heavenly Father to hold back a blessing He greatly desires to give?

6. The Treasurer.—Mr. John Stites has for more than fifteen years been the efficient treasurer of the Executive Committee of Christian Education and Ministerial Relief. During this period his experience and sound business judgment have been of great value to the Committee and to the Church. As Mr. Stites is now present as a Commissioner to this Assembly, your Committee believes that it is speaking for the Assembly when it expresses to him our very deep appreciation of the great service he has rendered, and is rendering, our whole Church.

7. Advisory Committee.—The following Advisory Committee is nominated for your appointment:

Principals	Synods	Alternates
Henry H. Sweets.....	Kentucky.....	R. T. Gillespie
David Park.....	Alabama.....	R. H. McCaslin
W. S. Lacy.....	Arkansas.....	John Van Lear
J. G. Venable.....	Florida.....	W. M. Kemper
Tilden Scherer.....	Appalachia.....	W. A. Scott
J. S. Lyons.....	Georgia.....	E. L. Hill
U. B. Currie.....	Louisiana.....	U. D. Mooney
T. W. Raymond.....	Mississippi.....	W. H. Frazer
D. S. Gage.....	Missouri.....	John James
W. J. Martin.....	North Carolina.....	C. G. Vardell
W. B. Morrison.....	Oklahoma.....	E. H. Lyle
D. M. Douglas.....	South Carolina.....	S. C. Byrd
C. E. Diehl.....	Tennessee.....	W. W. Akers
T. S. Clyce.....	Texas.....	Thos. W. Currie
W. W. Moore.....	Virginia.....	J. D. Eggleston
Jas. E. Allen.....	West Virginia.....	Col. H. B. Moore

Your Committee has examined the minutes of the Executive Committee and find them to be a model of neatness and accuracy; and recommend that they be approved.

We call to the attention of the General Assembly the following statement taken from the minutes of the Executive Committee: "The secretary stated that he did not feel that it was proper that the Secretaries, who were to execute the plans of the General Assembly, should be on the Systematic Beneficence and Stewardship Committee, which made the plans for the Church." The Executive Committee, therefore, nominated Rev. W. Y. Davis as principal, and Mr. W. J. Rubel as alternate, to represent the Executive Committee on the Systematic Beneficence and Stewardship Committee.

Your Standing Committee concurs in the opinion expressed in this minute.

J. D. EGGLESTON, Chairman.

The Assembly then adjourned until 9:00 a. m. Monday, closing with prayer by Ruling Elder W. H. Mann.

FOURTH DAY

MONDAY, May 24, 1920, 9:00 a. m.

The Assembly met and was led in prayer by the Rev. B. C. Bell.

The minutes of Saturday's sessions were read and approved.

Recess was taken until 2:30 p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

2:30 p. m.

The Assembly met.

A telegram was received from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A. It was read as information and ordered placed on record. It is as follows:

PHILADELPHIA, PA., May 24, 1920.

Rev. Thos. H. Law, D. D., Charlotte, N. C.

The General Assembly in session this morning approved the plan of union as presented by its Committee's report and which contemplates a United Assembly, and voted to transmit the plan to the approaching meeting of the Council of the Reformed Churches Holding the Presbyterian System for its consideration and appropriate action.

S. S. PALMER, Moderator,
WM. H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

GREETINGS

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence made the following partial report, which was adopted:

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., Philadelphia, Pa.:

The Presbyterian Assembly U. S., in session at Charlotte, N. C., extends cordial greetings to your venerable body, praying God to direct you in all your deliberations. See I Thessalonians 1:2 to 4.

To the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, Sterling, Kansas:

Accept fraternal greetings from the Presbyterian Assembly U. S., in session at Charlotte, N. C. God bless you in all your deliberations. See Colossians 1:3 to 4.

To the General Synod of the Reformed Church in the U. S., Reading, Pa.

The Presbyterian Church in the U. S., in session at Charlotte, N. C., extends warm fraternal greetings to you, and asks God to bless you in your deliberations. See I Corinthians 1:3.

To the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, McKenzie, Tenn.:

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. extends cordial greetings to your venerable body. God bless you.

Mr. Frank H. Mann, General Secretary of the American Bible Society, was introduced to the Assembly and spoke briefly.

REVISION OF SESSIONAL BLANKS

The unfinished business, the report of the Ad-Interim Committee on the Sessional Blanks, was taken up. The report (as appears in Appendix) was amended, adopted as a whole, and is as follows:

REPORT OF THE AD-INTERIM COMMITTEE ON REVISION OF THE SESSIONAL BLANKS

Your Committee appointed by the last Assembly to "revise and simplify the blanks for reports of sessions to Presbytery" submits the following report:

An extensive correspondence was carried on by the Chairman with the members of the Committee. Efforts were made to have a meeting of the Committee but failed.

We recommend the following:

1. That the column "Miscellaneous Benevolences" be taken out of the general heading "Benevolent Funds Collected" and placed as the last column in the blank and that the name be changed to "Miscellaneous Contributions."
2. That in accordance with the action of the last Assembly the name "Schools and Colleges" be changed to "Educational Institutions."
3. That the heading of the Statistical Blank be simplified by omitting the words "Systematic Beneficence."
4. That the questions of the Statistical, Sabbath School and Church Societies blanks be reduced and simplified as per attached blank.

5. That the Narrative Blank be changed to the form of a Questionnaire on Christian Life and Work, to consist of twenty questions, with subdivisions.

6. That the instructions to Clerks for filling out the Statistical Blank be changed to correspond to the changes recommended above. These changes are found in the attached blank.

7. That the form of all these blanks be so changed that they can be used on the typewriter. This recommendation is made in response to overtures to the Assembly in recent years.

Respectfully submitted,

J. D. LESLIE, Chairman,
R. E. MAGILL,
W. G. DUNGAN,
CHAS. H. NISBET,
J. B. HUTTON.

It was made the order of the day for 10:30 a. m. tomorrow to hear the report of the Ad-Interim Committee on Conference with the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Synod of the South.

It was made the first order of the day for Wednesday morning to hear the report of the Ad-Interim Committee on Consolidation of Agencies.

It was made the order of the day for 3:00 o'clock p. m. Wednesday to select the place of the next Assembly.

MINISTERIAL SUPPORT AND RELIEF

The Standing Committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief made a partial report. It was adopted, and is as follows:

1. In reply to Overture No. 28 from Greenbrier Presbytery, asking for the appointment of an Ad-Interim Committee to investigate and act upon the question of ministerial support, the support of home, foreign and Sunday School missionaries, the support of teachers in our Church schools, and adequate provision for aged ministers, their widows and dependent children,

Your Committee recommends that it be answered as follows:

That the Assembly, while in full sympathy with the purport of the overture, believes that the appointment of such Ad-Interim Committee unnecessary, as a vigorous campaign covering these vital matters is now being conducted by our Executive Committee.

2. In reply to Overture No. 27 from Montgomery Presbytery, recommending that its churches assume financial responsibility in whole or in part for the support of foreign and home missionaries, and requesting that the General Assembly take cognizance of this action, and in its turn recommend to the Committee on Ministerial Education and Relief pursue the same policy,

Your Committee recommends that the Assembly expresses its pleasure at the increased liberality of Montgomery Presbytery in the support of aged ministers, but must decline to recommend the general adoption of its plan of support, because it disturbs unnecessarily the existing method heretofore approved by the General Assembly, and now being vigorously pressed by the Committee on Ministerial Relief.

3. In reply to Overture No. 29, asking that the cause of Ministerial Relief be placed on a pension basis,

Your Committee learns that the Executive Committee of Christian Education and Ministerial Relief is now making an exhaustive study of this whole matter of the pension and insurance system, and in view of this fact deems action at this time unnecessary.

4. The report of the Mountain Retreat Association for the year 1919 and to the General Assembly has been received. No action upon this report is necessary.

J. D. EGGLESTON, Chairman.

Ruling Elder W. H. Mann offered a resolution, which was referred to the Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures.

A communication was received from the Presbyterian Hospital, of Charlotte, which was referred to the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions.

The report of the Ad-Interim Committee on the Work of the Deacons was taken up. The report was read, reporting progress. The Committee was continued, and enlarged by the addition of Rev. W. L. Lingle, D. D., and one other pastor and two ruling elders to be appointed. (For report, see Appendix, page 172.)

REFORMATION DAY

The Permanent Committee on Reformation Day made a report, which was adopted. The same Committee was reappointed. The report is as follows:

The Permanent Committee on Reformation Day respectfully recommends as the subject to be presented to our people on the last Sunday in October "Providential Events Contributing to the Success of the Protestant Reformation." The Committee has in mind such events as the fall of Constantinople and the resultant westward movement of Greek learning; the invention of the art of printing; and the discovery of America.

WALTER W. MOORE,
RUSSELL CECIL,
Committee.

NON-RESIDENT MEMBERS

The report of the Ad-Interim Committee on Non-Resident Members was taken up and read by the Chairman, Rev. W. L. Lingle, D. D. The report was approved, and appears in the Appendix, page 173.

It was made the order of the day for 9:30 a. m. tomorrow to hear the report of the Standing Committee on the Training School for Lay Workers.

The records of the Synod of North Carolina were approved.

The records of the Synod of Missouri were approved, with the exception that it is not stated that the initial meeting was opened or closed with prayer, in accordance with the Book of Church Order, paragraph 57.

Recess was then taken until 8:00 p. m.

BIBLE CAUSE

8:00 p. m.

The Assembly met, and after devotional exercises engaged in a popular meeting in the interest of the Bible Cause, Rev. Russell Cecil, D. D., presiding.

Addresses were delivered by Mr. Frank H. Mann, General Secretary of the American Bible Society, and Ruling Elder W. H. Mann. These addresses were referred to the Standing Committee on the Bible Cause.

Tuesday at 3:00 p. m. was fixed as the time to consider all questions concerning the Inter-Church World Movement.

The Assembly then adjourned until 9:00 a. m. tomorrow, closing with prayer by Rev. Russell Cecil, D. D.

FIFTH DAY

TUESDAY, May 25, 1920, 9:00 a. m.

The Assembly met and was led in prayer by Rev. B. L. Price, D. D. The minutes of yesterday's session were read and approved.

It was ordered that all papers relating to the Inter-Church World Movement be placed in the hands of the Committee on Bills and Over-tures.

It was made the order of the day for 11:00 o'clock today to hear the report on Foreign Missions.

The Standing Committee on the Narrative made a report, which was amended and adopted as a whole, and is as follows:

There have been placed in the hands of your Committee reports from 83 Presbyteries touching the state of religion within their bounds. These reports have been carefully read with a view to ascertaining the general state of affairs which they disclose. We desire to submit our conclusions.

In the main, these reports indicate a splendid and increasing interest in the public services of the sanctuary at the hour of morning worship. A sad story of apparently little interest in the evening service and prayer meeting runs through them all.

A distressing situation is revealed in the matter of Family Worship. The number of family altars is small. With wearying monotony Presbytery after Presbytery affirms "there is little interest in this matter," "the family altar is broken down," "family worship is sadly neglected," and your Committee is of the opinion that the statistics given show not over ten per cent. of families honoring this divinely imposed obligation. A similar strain characterizes the reports relating to the training of the children in the home in the Scriptures and the catechisms of the Church. The real intent of the home as a spiritual agency for the rearing of a Godly offspring would seem to be losing its hold upon the hearts and consciences of our people. The obligations which center there are sought to be shifted to the Sabbath School. The spiritual function of the home is being supplanted by the process of substitution. It is not a healthy situation now existing in this respect. There is imperative need on the part of the pulpit for a re-emphasizing of the vital place of the home in the progress of God's kingdom.

We find cause for gratification in the large increase in the gifts of our people to the causes of the Church, both current and benevolent. This growth in the grace of liberality is widespread, in that every section reports larger contributions than ever before, an increase in the salaries of many pastors, and with few exceptions, the full and prompt payment of all salaries. Many of the Presbyteries attribute this improved condition to the Assembly's Progressive Campaign.

The reports submitted reveal the need of faithful instruction concerning the proper observance of the Sabbath. While as a rule the churches indicate a regard for the sanctity of the day on the part of their members, there is the further disclosure that former standards of observance are being revised along more liberal and non-spiritual lines which tend toward the undermining of the religious significance of the day. The obligation and wisdom of a frequent presentation of the intent and value of the Sabbath are fully justified by prevailing conditions.

We note an expanding interest in the work of the Sabbath School. Frequent mention is made in the information at hand of increased membership, of a more thorough organization for efficient labor, of a larger number of scholars making profession of faith in Christ. So marked has this been in many specific instances that the churches in question have construed it to be an evidence of the special manifestation of the Holy Spirit. May we not interpret it as the blessing of God upon the zealous efforts of the Assembly to promote greater interest and efficiency in this fruitful field and be stimulated to yield all possible support and co-operation to the Committee under whose direction it is being prosecuted?

We regret to find the churches doing very little evangelistic work outside their own bounds. The situation loudly calls for co-operation with the Program of Evangelism which is being furthered by the Assembly through its Executive Committee of Home Missions that out of a passion for souls begotten of the Holy Spirit, the area of the spiritual vision of the Church may be broadened.

Equally as lamentable as the neglect of Family Worship on the part of the membership of the Church is the deplorable absence of effort on the part of Presbyteries, pastors and sessions to secure recruits for the gospel ministry. With but limited exceptions the Narratives affirm, not that few men are responding to efforts to have them give consideration to the gospel ministry as a life work, but that no special efforts are being made to secure an adequate supply of ministers. The Church is accepting its obligation to employ the means of Grace at its disposal to bring men to a saving knowledge of Christ, but it sorrowfully confesses that it is not using the means of Grace at its disposal to perpetuate its ministry. It is the judgment of your Committee that the mind and conscience of the entire Church need to be aroused to the fact that with equal earnestness and fidelity it should seek the lost and call upon God to raise up, qualify and send forth an ever increasing number of laborers to garner a great harvest of souls for the Master. We can no more afford to drift in the one instance than we can in the other.

This report is submitted in profound gratitude to God for His blessings upon the labors of our Church during the year which has just closed, and with the prayer that the Lord of the Harvest may use us for the attainment of larger results for His kingdom in the years to come.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN S. FOSTER, Chairman.

BILLS AND OVERTURES

The Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures made a partial report, which was adopted with the exception that the answer to Overture No. 4 was placed on the docket; also a part of the answer to Overture No. 18 was placed on the docket.

The answer to Overture No. 10 was adopted by a rising vote, and the Assembly was led in prayer by the Rev. Frank P. Price, D. D.

A resolution suggesting that Rev. W. L. Lingle, D. D., and Rev. A. M. Fraser, D. D., be appointed to prepare a pastoral letter was placed on the docket.

It was ordered that the Assembly hear at 11:30 a. m., for fifteen minutes, Dr. Plato T. Durham on the Church in Inter-Racial Work.

The records of the Synod of Mississippi were approved.

The Standing Committee on the Assembly's Training School for Lay Workers made a report, which was considered seriatim and adopted as a whole. It is as follows:

ASSEMBLY'S TRAINING SCHOOL FOR LAY WORKERS

Your Committee has had before it the report of the Board of Managers for the year 1919-1920, the charter and by-laws of the institution, and the catalogue number of the Bulletin, together with certain oral statements and explanations made by President Lingle in conference with your Committee.

The Assembly should have great satisfaction in this school, and deep gratitude to God, in view of the efficient and economical management, the wise policy, the fruitful service, the growing favor, and the bright future of the institution. The Assembly should also note the pressing needs and take steps to supply these needs as soon as possible.

Your Committee recommends:

(1) That the Assembly express its grateful appreciation of the services of the faculty during the past year, and approve their being selected for the coming year.

(2) That the Assembly answer in the affirmative the overture of the Board of Managers and authorize said Board to secure the charter revision it desires, set forth in the overture as follows:

"The Board of Managers overtures the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States to authorize the Board of Managers to (1) secure the necessary charter changes, which will be accomplished by amending Sections (d) and (e) of the charter as heretofore amended, and making said sections when amended read as follows:

"(d) The number of Trustees who shall manage the affairs of the corporation shall be fifteen, who shall elect from their number the following officers: President, Vice-President, and Secretary of the corporation; and the Board of Trustees shall also elect the Treasurer, who may or may not be a member of said Board of Trustees; and shall have the power to elect from its members, or otherwise, such other officers as may from time to time be necessary.

"(e) The Board of Trustees shall be elected by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States. At the first election held hereunder, the General Assembly shall elect the said fifteen Trustees, five of whom shall serve for one year, five of whom shall serve for two years, and five of whom shall serve for three years, and thereafter all of said Trustees shall be elected for a term of three years, provided that every Trustee shall be entitled to serve during the time for which he is elected and until his duly elected successor shall have qualified, and provided that the Board of Trustees shall have power to fill any vacancies that may occur in the Board until the next meeting of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, at which time the General Assembly shall elect a Trustee to fill the remainder of the unexpired term, or the full term, as the case may be.

"And (2) to make the necessary revision of the by-laws of the corporation, which will be accomplished by substituting for Article I, paragraph 1 of the by-laws the following:

"Article I, Paragraph 1. There shall be a Board of fifteen Trustees, who shall be elected by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States for a term of three years, and who shall serve until the election and acceptance of their duly qualified successors. The Board of Trustees shall be divided into three classes, with an equal number of members in each. At the first election after this article goes into effect, those in the first class shall be elected for a term of one year; those in the second class for a term of two years; and those in the third class for a term of three years. Thereafter, upon the expiration of their term of office, the members of each class shall be elected for a term of three years. Provided, however, the Board of Trustees shall have the power to fill any vacancy that may occur in the Board until the next meeting of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States; and provided further, that the Board of Trustees shall have no authority to apply for, or make any change in the charter of the corporation, or in this paragraph 1, article 1, of the by-laws of the corporation, except as authorized by vote of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States."

(3) That the Assembly elect the following persons as members of the Board of Managers, to serve until the next meeting of the Assembly:

F. T. McFaden, Richmond, Va.

R. E. Magill, Richmond, Va.

Robt. M. Friend, Petersburg, Va.

Owsley Sanders, Richmond, Va.

H. H. Sweets, Louisville, Ky.

Homer McMillan, Atlanta, Ga.

S. H. Chester, Nashville, Tenn.

S. Nye Hutchison, Norfolk, Va.
 Walter L. Lingle, Richmond, Va.
 Mrs. H. N. Price, Baltimore, Md.
 Miss Katherine Heath Hawes, Richmond, Va.
 Mrs. Hampton Fleming, Richmond, Va.

(4) That the Assembly elect the following persons as members of the Board of Trustees, to take their places after the charter revision has become effective, and to serve until the next meeting of the General Assembly:

Geo. W. Call, Richmond, Va.
 Walter W. Moore, Richmond, Va.
 Samuel K. Phillips, Greenville, N. C.

(5) That the Assembly approve the raising of $500,000 for this institution as soon as practicable (to be used for a dormitory estimated to cost $200,000, and for the endowment of five chairs in the faculty, estimated at $60,000 each), and place the raising of this amount under the supervision and control of the Assembly's Permanent Committee on Systematic Benevolence and Stewardship.

(6) That this Assembly request all Presbyteries to urge each treasurer of benevolences to see that the Training School gets its due percentage in the distribution of the benevolent funds of each congregation.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN I. ARMSTRONG, Chairman.

Rev. Chas. L. Goodell, D. D., Executive Secretary of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, was introduced to the Assembly.

ASSOCIATE REFORMED SYNOD

The second order of the day today, to hear the report of the Ad-Interim Committee on Conference with the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Synod, was taken up. Rev. R. C. Reed, D. D., Chairman, made a verbal statement reporting progress. The Committee was continued.

ALLIANCE OF PRESBYTERIAN CHURCHES IN THE WORLD

Rev. R. C. Reed, D. D., representative of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches Throughout the World Holding the Presbyterian System, addressed the Assembly.

It was made the second order of the day today, immediately after the completion of the report of the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions, to hear Rev. R. C. Anderson for fifteen minutes on the Mountain Retreat Association.

Rev. R. C. Reed, D. D., reported that he had secured the sum of $189.92 toward the expenses of publishing an English translation of Zwingli's works.

The order of the day, the hearing of the report of the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions, was taken up and considered seriatim. Pending consideration, the hour for recess arrived.

FRATERNAL MESSAGES

The following telegrams were received from the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.:

PHILADELPHIA, PA., May 25, 1920.

General Assembly, Presbyterian Church U. S., Charlotte, N. C.:

The General Assembly, Presbyterian Church U. S. A., rejoices that both our bodies have adopted the Plan of Union prepared by the joint conference on Closer Relations. I Corinthians 1:7-9.

S. S. PALMER, Moderator,
W. H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., May 25, 1920.

General Assembly, Presbyterian Church, Charlotte, N. C.:

The Presbyterian Assembly U. S. A., in session at Philadelphia, reciprocates cordially the greetings of your venerable body and invokes and invites increased co-operation between our Churches in the work of Christ. John 15:8.

S. S. PALMER, Moderator,
W. H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

The hour for devotional exercises having arrived, the Assembly engaged in devotional exercises, led by Rev. Paul Kanamori, a distinguished evangelist of Japan.

Recess was then taken until 2:30 p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

2:30 p. m.

The Assembly met.

It was made the second order of the day for Wednesday morning to hear the report of the Standing Committee on Systematic Bene-ficence.

It was made the third order of the day for Wednesday morning to hear for twenty minutes Rev. Chas. McFarland, D. D., General Secretary of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America.

It was made the order of the day for 2:30 p. m. Wednesday to hear the report of the Standing Committee on Publication and Sabbath School Work.

Rev. Dr. Plato T. Durham was heard for fifteen minutes in the interest of the Church in Inter-Racial Work. The address was referred to the Standing Committee on Home Missions.

The unfinished business, the report of the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions, was taken up. The report was amended, adopted as a whole, and is as follows:

FOREIGN MISSIONS

Your Standing Committee on Foreign Missions begs leave to report as follows:

There have come into our hands the minute book of the Executive Committee of Foreign Missions, the annual report of the same Committee, a letter from Rev. C. E. Diehl, and a communication from the Secretary and Treasurer of the Presbyterian Hospital of Charlotte, N. C.

We have invited to meet us, for conference, our Secretaries insofar as there seemed reason for their presence before the Committee, and have had their willing and courteous assistance in the work you expected us to do.

We rejoice to report that the good hand of our gracious God has rested in blessing upon this branch of our work during the past year. The gifts of the churches to the cause of Foreign Missions were increased over those of the preceding year by $323,904, bringing the total for the year up to $1,115,345. As the cost of operation for the year was $1,095,241, we have had for the first time since 1913 a balance on the year's accounts, and have been able to reduce the debt resting on this cause by $20,104.

We regret to report that the debt is still all too large, in the sum of $164,622.

Study of the reports from the seven countries in which we are prosecuting the work of Foreign Missions reveals the fact that Africa continues to lead in the number of persons uniting with the Church, although, probably on account of the depletion of our working force and the deadly ravages of Spanish influenza among the natives, this number is not so large as has been reported in each of the three preceding years.

In Brazil our workers report a remarkable change of public sentiment towards Protestantism. Opportunity waits on the Church, and there is call for a general advance.

In China also the notable present aspect of the work is its unparalleled opportunities. A Union Presbyterian Church has been organized out of twelve separate churches. It has six Synods, twenty-six Presbyteries, seventy-seven thousand communicants, and is the largest single denomination in China: a Church, Presbyterian in government and on a basis of union which conserves the fundamental doctrines of the Gospel. To our Church came the honor of furnishing the first presiding officer of the new Church in the person of Rev. P. F. Price, D. D., of the Nanking Theological Seminary, and the first Treasurer in Dr. J. M. Blain, of Hangchow.

On the Cuban field the co-operation of our Executive Committee with the boards of the Presbyterian Church U. S. A. has shown results that amply justify the arrangement. Presbyterianism has, under the new order, attained a prestige never enjoyed before, and the possibility of working out plans for the whole field gives a definiteness to the work which it did not otherwise possess.

Perhaps the notable thing with reference to our work in Japan is its exceedingly difficult character. Our missionaries seem to be working under the delicate situation in which they find themselves with extreme tact and fidelity, and their work is not without marked indications of ultimate success.

The Christians of Korea are emerging from their baptism with fire, purified and strengthened. Already there are indications of a rising tide of spiritual life and vigorous fruitfulness.

The denominational distribution of territory in Mexico has been completed, so that every part of the country is now under the responsible care of some Protestant Church. The full persuasion of your missionaries in that country, of your Executive Committee of Foreign Missions, and of your Committee now reporting, is that the Mexican problem is one to be solved by the missionary enterprise alone, and that in view of the pressure of that problem the Protestant Churches should greatly and immediately multiply their agencies and intensify their efforts to relieve the ignorance, superstition, and irreligion of that unfortunate land.

Our missions in the seven countries report a combined constituency of 80,000; a Sunday School enrollment of 60,085; a Church membership of 43,793; and accessions to Church membership during the past year of 4,617.

Thirty-one new missionaries were added to our force on the foreign field during the year, but losses by death and retirement from the work have been and threaten to be so great as to leave the force practically no greater than it was a year ago.

Not to cover the whole of our responsibility for evangelizing foreign lands, but only to take care of our present work on a basis of efficiency, calls for 119 new missionaries, many of these to fill vacancies that have been made by death during the last four years and have thus far remained unfilled. The situation with reference to medical work is especially critical. Repeated calls made during the year for this work have met no response, and meantime, in each of the three countries where we carry on medical work, the needs are urgent and the work is suffering for the lack of men.

The visit of our Executive Secretary to the missions of China, Korea, and Japan, involving, as it did, a nine months absence from the offices of the Committee, seems to have resulted in so great encouragement to the workers in the several fields and in so much more intelligent sympathy with them and so much fuller understanding of the problems that confront them, both in our Executive office and throughout the Church, as to have justified abundantly whatever consumption of money, time, and energy it may have involved, at the same time that it made evident the wisdom of a policy that would embrace frequent visits to the various fields by representatives of the Church.

The testimony of our returned Executive Secretary, added to that of our workers on furlough, reinforced by letters from men and women on the field, ought to bring to the Church a new and more profound sense of the awful needs of the parts of the heathen world for which we are responsible—needs which nothing but the Gospel of Jesus Christ can supply—and that Gospel it is our responsibility to give.

The co-operation of our Executive Committee and our missionaries with those of other denominations in the various fields in so-called "union" educational institutions is noteworthy both for extent and apparently satisfactory results.

The women of the Church, as now organized, are doing even more for the cause of Foreign Missions than formerly, and to them are due the appreciation and unstinted gratitude of the Assembly, both for co-operation in plans inaugurated by it and for good things of their own devising and achievement.

Three vacancies have occurred on our Executive Committee during the year, two by resignation and one by the lamented, untimely death of the beloved Dr. J. F. Cannon, who for many years had served on the Committee, as elsewhere, with the utmost faithfulness and efficiency. The filling of these two vacancies was anticipated by provisional appointment of Rev. E. D. McDougall and Rev.

W. L. Caldwell made by the last Assembly. Filling the third is a matter or recommendation in this report.

We find from the minutes of the Executive Committee of Foreign Missions that this Committee made no agreement to underwrite the Inter-Church World Movement for the year 1919-'20 or the year 1920-'21, except subject to the approval of the Assembly. There is, therefore, no obligation for the payment of any money to the Inter-Church World Movement unless it shall be ordered by this Assembly.

Recommendations.—We recommend—

(1) That Rev. S. H. Chester, D. D., be re-elected Secretary of Foreign Correspondence and Editor of the Missionary Survey for a term of three years.

(2) That Rev. H. F. Williams, D. D., be elected for a like term to the Secretaryship of Home Development.

(3) That Rev. Jno. I. Armstrong, D. D., be elected for the same term, Educational Secretary.

(4) That Rev. J. O. Reavis, D. D., be elected for three years as Associate Field and Foreign Secretary.

(5) That C. E. Diehl, D. D., E. E. Smith, J. P. McCallie, A. D. Mason and W. A. Dale be elected to serve three years on the Executive Committee, and that Rev. S. M. Glasgow be elected to fill the unexpired term of M. G. Buckner, resigned.

(6) That the Executive Committee of Publication be requested to restore in the Missionary Survey the space allotted to the Cause of Foreign Missions at the time of the first issue of that magazine, if in their judgment such action is feasible.

(7) That the churches, societies, and individuals assume, whenever practicable, definite obligation for definite parts of our Foreign Mission Work, giving preference to the support of the work abroad already undertaken by the Committee, and of missionaries already on the field.

(8) That the Assembly appoint, as heretofore, February 13-20 as the Annual Week of Prayer, Preaching and Self-Denial for Foreign Missions.

(9) That classes be organized in all the churches to study "Day in and Day Out" in Korea, by Mrs. A. M. Nisbet, the Mission Study text-book recommended for the year.

(10) That Mission Study Classes for men be organized in all the churches, to study "Stewardship."

(11) That all Sunday Schools this year co-operate in the campaign for our Mexican Missions, following the Seven Year Plan for Missionary Education in the Sunday Schools, which plan is now in its sixth year.

(12) That all Christian Endeavor Societies be urged to use the programs prepared for the six missionary meetings according to the regular Christian Endeavor Society schedule, and that all other Young People's Societies be urged to use at least six missionary programs during the year.

(13) That our Executive Committee of Foreign Missions endeavor to arrange to have the call to service on the foreign field presented to the young men of the various medical colleges of the country by public address, written appeal, and personal interview, with a view to securing volunteers for this most important and needy branch of the work.

(14) That in view of the vastly more expensive character of medical education, and also in view of the financial assistance given by college and divinity school to our volunteers in training for evangelistic service abroad, the most of which assistance is not available to our volunteers for foreign medical service, our Executive Committee of Education be authorized and urged, if in its judgment it shall seem wise and proper, to furnish, under the same safeguards as are now in use, a larger sum than heretofore to our volunteers in training for medical service on the foreign field, the Assembly hereby expressing its willingness to see this assistance furnished, where needed, up to the sum of $400 per annum per volunteer.

(15) That the suggestion of the Presbyterian Hospital of the city of Charlotte be referred to the Executive Committee of Foreign Missions with power to act.

(16) That the next meeting of this body shall be a Foreign Missions Assembly and that the Executive Committee of Foreign Missions be requested to arrange a program to be carried out on that occasion.

(17) That in case Dr. Reavis declines his election the Executive Committee be authorized to elect a man until next meeting of the Assembly.

C. M. RICHARDS, Chairman.

Rev. R. C. Anderson, of the Mountain Retreat Association, then addressed the Assembly for fifteen minutes. The address was referred to the Standing Committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief.

Rev. Chas. L. Goodell, D. D., Executive Secretary of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, then addressed the Assembly. The address was referred to the Committee on Foreign Correspondence.

The order of the day, the hearing of the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the Inter-Church World Movement was taken up. The majority and minority reports were presented; also an amendment to the minority report.

The hour of recess having arrived, the time was extended for thirty minutes.

The Assembly then took recess until 8:00 p. m.

EVENING SESSION

8:00 p. m.

The Assembly met, and after devotional exercises, engaged in a popular meeting in the interest of Home Missions, Rev. T. A. Wharton, D. D., presiding. The report of the Standing Committee on Home Missions was read. Pending a motion to adopt the report, addresses were made by Rev. Homer McMillan, D. D., Rev. C. R. Womeldorf, Elder Roger Frazier, Rev. J. W. Lee, Rev. W. M. Fairley, and Mr. Thomas B. Talbot.

The report was adopted, and is as follows:

HOME MISSIONS.

Your Standing Committee on Home Missions beg leave to submit the following report:

The annual report and review of the General Assembly's Executive Committee of Home Missions present a statement of splendid progress in all departments of the work committed to their care. It is noteworthy that this most marked advance in the history of our Church should have been made in so troubled a period and against the pressure of varied new as well as of old difficulties. The receipts for the year amounted to $407,643.28, an increase over the past year of $104,256.31, an increase of 34 per cent, at a cost for administration and publicity of 6 per cent.

The most gratifying feature is the fact that it was on advance on all lines—from churches, societies, Sabbath Schools and miscellaneous sources. Unusual legacies and a more intelligent and comprehensive understanding of the needs of the cause have at last partially furnished the means to answer the cry which rings all through the accounts of the field as recorded in this annual report.

And the Committee has advanced steadily during the past year toward its two great objectives.

The first of these is an increase of salaries for our workers. For two years it has gradually raised salaries, and had not the high cost of living exceeded our increase, the missionaries would have been at least comfortable, and while that increase has not kept pace with the increase in the cost of living, the Committee has been able to advance the salaries of our workers 20 per cent.

The second objective is the adequate equipment of our work. Appeals for special funds for material equipment have met with partial response and several legacies for buildings have recently become available. These, added to small funds, which have been slowly accumulating, and the fortunate sale of several pieces of real estate, have made it possible to make appropriations for buildings aggregating over $100,000.00.

The Assembly will be pleased to note progress also in the work of Stillman Institute. A new residence has been erected; homes are now provided for three teachers; improvements to the extent of $2,000 in the homes already existing have been made. Sixty acres of good land adjoining the present property have been purchased, giving us a holding now of 110 acres.

For several years the Home Mission Committee has had under consideration the establishment and conducting of a training school for Negro girls in connection with Stillman. Now at last it would seem that the purpose of the Committee to erect this school for Negro girls is about to be realized. The Committee has been promised $20,000 by the General Educational Board of New York on condition that the sum of $40,000 be raised by our Church. Practically one-half of this money is now subscribed, and we trust by another year the Committee will be able to report this training school in operation.

It will be gratifying also to the Assembly to know that at last we are on the point of realizing our desire to enter into the field of Jewish evangelization. The Home Mission Committee has been corresponding with the Home Mission Board of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., as to the feasibility of conducting a joint Jewish mission in the city of Baltimore. The details of the arrangement have been worked out, and it is now in full operation.

We feel that the thanks of this Assembly are due to this Committee for the full and admirable report which it makes to this Assembly. Its arrangement and completeness of detail thoroughly furnishes every worker in the Assembly with the information needed to a full understanding of every department of our work.

From the various sources of suggestion, from overtures and from facts presented in the body of this report, we desire to make the following recommendations:

In order to adjust the matter of the sale of the land belonging to the school for colored people heretofore located at Abbeville, S. C., and for the purpose of transferring that school to its new location, the following action is hereby adopted the General Assembly, authorizing the sale of the property and the execution of deed by the Trustees of the General Assembly and by the Trustees of the former Afro-American Presbyterian Church to the purchaser of the said property.

Resolution by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States.

Whereas, the Afro-American Presbyterian Church, organized by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, formerly owned a tract of forty acres of land, near the city of Abbeville, S. C., which property belonged to said Afro-American Presbyterian Church, its successors and assigns, and

Whereas, the said Afro-American Presbyterian Church has been converted into the Snedecor Memorial Synod and has become a constituent part of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and all its property and other belongings are subject to the control of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and

Whereas, a sale of the forty acres of land above referred to has been arranged at a satisfactory and reasonable price by the representatives of the Presbyterian Church in the United States,

Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, That the Board of Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States be, and they are hereby, authorized and directed to sell and convey the premises hereinafter mentioned, Resolved, further, That George E. Wilson, President of the Board of Trustees, and John R. Pharr, Secretary of the Board, be, and they are hereby, authorized and directed to execute and deliver a deed to the purchaser of said premises upon the purchase price being paid over to the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States.

Resolved, further, That the said Trustees be authorized and directed to pay any necessary expenses in connection with the sale of said property.

The property to be conveyed is described as follows:

All that tract or plantation of land, situated, lying and being in the County of Abbeville, in the State of South Carolina, containing forty acres, more or less, and being bounded by lands of Mrs. Fannie J. Marshall, estate lands of Jas. Edward Calhoun, Dr. L. T. Hill and Wilson street, being the same land conveyed by Mrs. Belle Chapman to the Afro-American Presbyterian Church.

The following additional action is taken by the General Assembly:

Whereas, the Board of Trustees of the School for Colored People at Abbeville, S. C., formerly connected with the Afro-American Presbyterian Church (since changed to the Snedecor Memorial Synod as a constituent part of the Presbyterian Church in the United States) consisting of Jas. I. Vance, W. H. Frazer, A. B. Morse, and others, has vacancies in its number and cannot assemble for the transaction of business pertaining to its duties and responsibilities.

1. Therefore, be it resolved, That the said Board of Trustees of the Abbeville School is hereby reorganized by the appointment of the following members to constitute its Board of Trustees, namely: Jas. I. Vance, W. H. Frazer, A. B. Morse, S. L. Morris, John R. Blake and J. Allen Smith.

2. That S. L. Morris be named as President of this Board and A. B. Morse, Secretary and Treasurer, and that three constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

3. That the said Board of Trustees be authorized to meet upon the call of the President and take such legal steps as may be necessary to transact any business, such as the signing of papers, the transferring of property, and any other matters pertaining to the affairs of the Abbeville School for Colored People, and that all acts of said Board hereinafter taken pertaining to the school shall be recognized as authoritative and legal by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States.

In response to the overtures of Nashville, East Mississippi and North Mississippi Presbyteries, asking the Assembly to give sympathetic interest to the effort made by Rev. A. R. Bird to adequately construct a great Presbyterian plant in the City of Washington in order to meet the religious needs of the Capitol City, and in response also to the address made by Mr. Bird before the Assembly, touching this same matter, your Committee recommends the following answer:

We are in hearty sympathy with the effort to build up a strong religious influence in that city, and while we are not in a position to undertake or recommend a special campaign for this purpose, we nevertheless commend this enterprise to our churches, and especially to our people of large means, as a great opportunity for the strengthening of a church center whose influence will extend through all our bounds, and authorize the Executive Committee of Home Missions to receive any special contributions for this purpose.

In response to the address of Rev. Plato T. Durham, D. D., on the work of the Southern Inter-Racial Committee, we desire heartily to commend to our pastors and people this effort to bring to our inter-racial relations the spirit and principles of Jesus Christ, and request the co-operation of our people in the work of their local committees as far as possible.

The Committee also recommends in response to a request coming to us through C. R. Womeldorf, of our Mexican work, asking the General Assembly to establish at its earliest convenience a Christian and Biblical Training School for Mexicans, to prepare them for the work of teaching and preaching, that the Assembly commend to the Trustees of the Austin Theological Seminary the establishment of such an institution as soon as they may find it practicable.

The Committee also desires to commend the records of the Committee in Atlanta for their fullness and accuracy, and the neatness with which they have been kept.

The Committee also desires that the General Assembly place on record its profound appreciation of the helpful and inspiring address of Rev. John McNeill, D. D., and to thank him heartily for this valuable service.

To the overture presented to the Committee from the Quincy Presbyterian Church, of Florida, requesting the early establishment of institutions for the religious training of Negro girls, we recommend the following answer:

That such an undertaking is already under way, at least the establishment of one such institution, and that the Committee desires to enter the field as fast as the funds for this purpose can be obtained.

To the overture from the Presbytery of Louisville, endorsed and sent to the General Assembly at New Orleans, asking the General Assembly to authorize the Executive Committee of Home Missions to hold a Conference of the Chairmen and Superintendents of the several Synods to meet annually for the purpose of considering the Home Mission task of the Church and discuss together methods of co-operation by the various agencies of the Presbytery, Synod and Assembly, and so presenting a unified Home Mission task for the whole Church, your Committee recommends an affirmative answer.

To the overture of West Hanover Presbytery, seeking a change in the method of offerings for Home Missions and the raising of salaries of the visiting evangelists, we recommend a negative answer, believing that the present plan is satisfactory.

In response to an overture from the Executive Committee of Home Missions, requesting that the Assembly permit the Executive Committee to appoint a local Advisory Board of Trustees for the supervision of Stillman Institute in matters of detail delegated to them, your Committee recommends an affirmative answer.

In response to the overture from Norfolk Presbytery, asking the General Assembly to order the Executive Committee of Home Missions to set aside as much as 10 per cent of its annual receipts to the purpose of adequate physical equipment of Home Mission fields, the Committee recommends a negative answer, on the ground that such action would be in conflict with the manual prepared by this Assembly for the conduct of its Home Missions Executive Committee, and further, because this Committee is endeavoring very earnestly to meet the needs of such equipment as rapidly as the funds provided by the Church will permit.

We recommend that the Executive Committee of Home Missions give their most earnest attention to the appeal of the church in Tampa, Fla., made by their representative, for a larger equipment to meet the great need of their growing work among the Latin population.

To the communication received containing the report of the Permanent Committee of Systematic Beneficence and Stewardship, making certain recommendations to this body, we desire to make the following response:

In this report your Committee is asked to recommend the election of a Superintendent of Evangelism to give his entire time to the work, and whose duties would be the same as those authorized by the Assembly of 1914 for that office. We would recommend that this matter of the election of such Superintendent be left entirely to the discretion of the Executive Committee. We note that this Committee is already authorized, by the action of the Assembly of 1918 in Durant, to create this office and to elect such a Superintendent, when in its judgment such a measure shall be wise.

We recommend in consonance with this Committee of Systematic Beneficence the election of Mr. John A. Burgess for a term of two years on the Executive Committee. Also we recommend the re-election of J. S. Foster, D. D., W. M. Everett, Chas. J. Martin, J. G. Patton, D. D., and J. R. McCain, as members of this Committee for three years.

We desire also to endorse most heartily the recognition given by the Committee of Systematic Beneficence to the splendid service rendered by Rev. R. F. Kirkpatrick, D. D., in the Executive Committee's department of Evangelism. Much of the success in this realm of their work during the past year is due to his leadership.

We recommend also that the following amount be apportioned to this cause, namely: $720,000 for 1921-22, this being 16 per cent of the $4,500,000 contemplated as the Assembly's budget for benevolences for the coming year.

We desire to offer also the following recommendations, suggested in the report of the Executive Committee:

1. That the Assembly continue to call upon the whole Church to entrench its aggressive Home Missions work in the hearts of its constituency by means of intercessory prayer and by substantial support with liberal offerings. Only that which costs touches the deepest depths of the heart.

2. That the Assembly endorse Home Mission Week, November 21-28, and its observance by all our churches, for studying the needs of the country, and where possible taking voluntary and self-denying offerings for Special Equipment Funds.

3. That the Assembly insist on the active co-operation of all its Church agencies to carry the whole load of the Church, and upon equitable distribution of benevolent funds according to the Assembly's Schedule, which determines the relative importance of the Assembly's Causes.

4. That as the term of Rev. Homer McMillan, D. D., Secretary, expires with this Assembly, the Committee, unanimously bearing testimony to his zeal, fidelity and efficiency, heartily recommends his re-election as Secretary for three years.

Respectfully submitted,

T. A. WHARTON, Chairman.

The Assembly then adjourned until 9 a. m. tomorrow, closing with prayer by Rev. T. A. Wharton, D. D.

SIXTH DAY

WEDNESDAY, May 26, 1920, 9:00 A. M.

The Assembly met and was led in prayer by Rev. H. C. Ostrom. The minutes of yesterday's session were read and approved.

It was made the fourth order of the day this morning to hear the report of the Standing Committee on Bible Cause.

The Standing Committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief made a partial report, which was adopted. The report was adopted as a whole, and is as follows:

MOUNTAIN RETREAT ASSOCIATION

To overture No. 26, from the Presbytery of South Carolina, requesting the General Assembly to exercise its authority or influence to see that each Synod "be represented on the Program Committee and Board of Managers of the Mountain Retreat Association, so that the conduct of the platform shall represent the entire Church," your Committee replies as follows:

From an examination of the charter of the Mountain Retreat Association, as amended January 9, 1917, your Committee is of the opinion that the General Assembly, not being in control of the Mountain Retreat Association, has no authority to do as requested by the Presbytery of South Carolina. (See Section 7, page 11; Section 11, page 12; Section 14, page 13, charter and amendments of the Mountain Retreat Association, January 9, 1917.)

The terms of the two Trustees nominated by the General Assembly, expiring on August 15, 1917, your Committee recommends that the General Assembly nominate Dr. A. D. P. Gilmour, of South Carolina, and Mr. Chas. E. Barker, of Tennessee, as the two Trustees of the General Assembly to serve for three years from August 15, 1920.

In order clearly to define and to strengthen the relation between the Mountain Retreat Association and the General Assembly, your Committee recommends that an Ad-Interim Committee of three members be appointed by the Moderator to make a report and recommendations to the next General Assembly looking to these ends.

EMPLOYMENT OF MINISTERS

Mr. A. C. Todd, a commissioner to this Assembly, has presented to the Assembly a preamble and resolution, which has been referred to your Standing Committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief.

This paper states that there is an increasing number of vacancies in our pastorates; that an increasing number of our ministers are being called by our Executive Committees to fill positions as secretaries, clerks, financial agents, teachers, superintendents, executives, and for other purposes; and requests the Assembly to instruct its Executive Committees "to make prompt and diligent effort to release the ministers so employed," and to instruct the Presbyteries to "exercise their authority and best endeavor to recall the ministers so engaged, to the end that these vacant churches be supplied."

In reply to this paper, your Committee recommends that the General Assembly adopt the following minute:

The General Assembly believes that, owing to the nature of the work done by the Executive Committees and other agencies of the Church, it is essential that much of it be done by ministers. But in view of the serious lack of ministers in our pastorates, the Assembly urges upon its Executive Committees and other agencies the great importance of exhausting every means for the employment of competent elders, deacons, or laymen, when any of the work in any of these committees or agencies can be done efficiently by these; and thus stop as far as possible any unnecessary drain upon our pastorates.

J. D. EGGLESTON, Chairman.

The Moderator announced the following Ad-Interim Committee on the Mountain Retreat Association: J. D. Eggleston, A. M. Scales, T. S. McCallie.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures made a partial report. The report was adopted.

(See full report on page 79.)

THEOLOGICAL SEMINARIES

The Committee on Theological Seminaries made a report which was adopted. It is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries respectfully reports that it has had placed in its hands the reports for the last Church year of Austin, Columbia, Kentucky and Union Seminaries, and a communication from Union Seminary touching an overture of Columbia Seminary Board of Directors, docketed by the last Assembly for consideration by this Assembly, on the matter of the control of the Seminaries by the General Assembly, and the standardization of theological education.

From the reports, which will be found in full in the Appendix to the Assembly's Minutes, your Committee culls the following salient facts:

That during the year Austin added $105,000 in pledges to its permanent funds; Columbia entered upon the expectation of handsome increase of endowment from the educational campaign now in progress in South Carolina; Kentucky received scholarship gifts amounting to $5,000, and bequests subject to certain life tenures amounting to $100,000 or more, and Union received gifts of $8,822 for current use and $99,997 for permanent funds;

That Union has almost completed its Schaufler Hall, the model Sunday School building, for which a kind friend provided the sum of $125,000, and has in course of construction a new two-apartment professors' house;

That during the year Kentucky Seminary lost by death two of its honored professors, Drs. R. A. Webb and T. M. Hawes;

That Drs. A. R. Shaw and D. H. Ogden were engaged as Acting Professors by Kentucky Seminary, to supply temporarily the places made vacant by the death of Drs. Webb and Hawes;

That Dr. Chas. R. Hemphill resigned the presidency of Kentucky Seminary, to take effect on the qualification of his successor, and that Dr. Jno. M. Vander Meulen was elected to the Presidency;

That Rev. Hugh R. Murchison has been elected Executive Secretary and Director of Religious Work in Columbia Seminary;

That a new professorship was erected in Union Seminary, to be called the Professorship of Religious Pedagogy and Sunday School Work;

That Austin Seminary remains closed and hopes to be able to resume its work not later than September, 1921;

That all the Seminaries completed their year's work without deficit;

That all of them which were in operation had a good attendance of students, and have bright prospects for the coming year, and during the session just closed enjoyed many very scholarly and practical courses of lectures in addition to the regular work;;

That the Seminaries have, all told, at present, a corps of 25 professors and instructors, and during the year enrolled 169 students, Columbia graduating 10, Kentucky graduating 8, and Union graduating 23, and in addition Union giving the degree of Doctor of Divinity, on completion of the prescribed course, to 3 others.

Your Committee makes the following recommendations:

(1) That the Assembly express its pleasure in hearing of the good financial condition of all its theological institutions;

(2) That it express the hope that nothing may hinder the early resumption of its important and useful work by Austin Seminary;

(3) That the Assembly deeply sympathizes with the Kentucky Seminary and the Church at large in the loss of Drs. Webb and Hawes, whose signal service to the Church and to the cause of theological education it appreciates and records;

(4) That the Assembly approve of the elections mentioned above.

As to the matter docketed for consideration by this Assembly, touching the control of the Seminaries and the standardization of theological education (Minutes, 1919, pp. 25 and 26,) your Committee reports that only one reply to same, transmitted to the several Seminaries, has been received, viz: from Union Seminary, and this stating that its constitution makes it impracticable to comply with the proposals of the overture. Your Committee, therefore, recommends that the overture be replied to with the statement that the Assembly does not see it way clear to inaugurate the changes proposed.

GEORGE SUMMEY, Chairman.

Rev. Russell Cecil, D. D., offered a resolution touching the Church of the Pilgrims in Washington, D. C. The motion to refer the resolution to the Standing Committee on Systematic Beneficence was docketed.

The Standing Committee on Foreign Correspondence made a partial report. A part of the report was adopted and the remainder was placed on the docket.

INTER-CHURCH WORLD MOVEMENT

The unfinished business, the report of the Standing Committee of Bills and Overtures on the Inter-Church World Movement was taken up. The privileges of the floor were granted to Rev. J. I. Vance, D. D., now to give information only on the subject of the Inter-Church World Movement.

The privileges of the floor were granted the Executive Secretaries of the Assembly who are not members of this Assembly, together with Rev. A. D. P. Gilmour, D. D., chairman of the Permanent Committee on Systematic Beneficence, in connection with the giving of information on this subject. The Moderator led the Assembly in prayer for Divine guidance in the discussion of this question.

Pending consideration, the hour for recess arrived and the Assembly took recess for a few minutes.

After recess the Assembly met and engaged in devotional exercises conducted by Rev. Thornton Whaling, D. D.

Recess was taken until 2:30 p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

2:30 p. m.

The Assembly met. The Standing Committee on Foreign Correspondence reported recommending that Rev. Joseph A. Vance be heard at 5 p. m.

The unfinished business, the report of the Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures on the Inter-Church World Movement, was resumed.

UNITED CHURCHES OF CHRIST IN AMERICA

Pending consideration of the hour for hearing the Rev. Joseph A. Vance, D. D., arrived. Dr. Vance was then heard in the interest of the Plan of Union of the United Churches of Christ in America. The address was referred to the Standing Committee on Foreign Correspondence.

Recess was then taken until 8 p. m.

EVENING SESSION

FOREIGN MISSIONS

The Assembly met, and after devotional exercises engaged in a popular meeting in the interest of Foreign Missions, consisting of a meeting of the Executive Committee of Foreign Missions, stereoptican views and addresses by Dr. E. R. Kellersberger, Dr. Geo. E. Henderlite, Rev. F. M. Eversole, Rev. Chas. A. Logan, Rev. R. J. McMullen and Rev. Egbert W. Smith, D. D.

INTER-CHURCH WORLD MOVEMENT

The unfinished business, the consideration of the report of the Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures on the Inter-Church World Movement, was resumed.

The majority report was amended and adopted.

MINORITY REPORT AS AMENDED

We recommend that the Assembly—

(1) Approve of the action of the Executive Committees in underwriting the expenses of the Inter-Church World Movement.

In answer to the overtures from Mecklenburg and other Presbyteries touching participation of our Assembly with the Inter-Church World Movement, in whole or in part, the Assembly makes the following reply:

That while the Presbyterian Church in the United States is ever ready to co-operate with the Churches of Christ in all worthy movements not hurtful to the corporate life and spiritual mission of the Church, it declines to participate in the Inter-Church World Movement, on the ground that it is a voluntary organization, not subject to ecclesiastical control and supervision and cannot, therefore, safeguard those vital interests which the Assembly deems essential to the very life and welfare of the Church.

The majority report, which was amended and adopted, is as follows:

The Committee on Bills and Overtures to which have been referred the various papers concerning the Inter-Church World Movement recommend:

(1) That the Assembly commend the conservative spirit manifested by the various Executive Committees in carrying out the instructions given by the last Assembly with reference to participation in the Inter-Church World Movement, and authorize the payment of the following sums, as representing the maximum of obligations incurred by our Church in this work, leaving the amounts actually to be paid out to be adjusted by the various Executive Committees in accordance with their proportionate obligations, namely:—

Maximum to be paid by the Foreign Missionary Committee	$15,000
By the Home Missionary Committee.....	5,000
By the Committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief	5,000
By the Committee of Publication and Sunday School Work	2,500

(2) That the Assembly reaffirm its endorsement in principle of the Inter-Church World Movement, and bid it God-speed.

That the Assembly appoint a committee of three to nominate for election by the Assembly itself the representatives in the Inter-Church World Movement;

That these representatives be instructed to safeguard the historic position of the Presbyterian Church in the United States concerning the spiritual character of the mission and work of the Church of God;

That they be further instructed to co-operate in securing a more intimate relation between the Inter-Church World Movement and the Church, and in bringing this Movement more immediately under the direction and control of the Church;

That these representatives be required to make report to the succeeding Assembly.

That the Assembly instruct its representatives in the Inter-Church Movement and in the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America to confer together with a view to formulating a plan for the co-ordination of the Movement and the Council.

A. M. FRASER, Chairman.

It was made the first order of the day tomorrow morning to hear the report of the Ad-Interim Committee on the Consolidation of Agencies.

The Assembly then adjourned with prayer until tomorrow at 9:00 a. m.

SEVENTH DAY

THURSDAY, May 27, 1920, 9:00 a. m.

The Assembly met and was led in prayer by the Moderator.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The records of the Synod of Alabama were approved.

MILEAGE.

The Committee on Mileage made the following report, which was adopted:

Your Mileage Committee would report that we have carefully checked all expense bills submitted by Commissioners and have written 258 checks, amounting to $10,899.70, which have been disbursed, after being signed by Dr. Law, Treasurer and Stated Clerk.

Your Committee would venture to suggest a change in Expense Blanks provided for use of Commissioners, by addition of two lines, reading as follows:

Estimated expense returning.....

Total expenses

This would then be self-explanatory and avoid all confusion in making these out by Commissioners.

To the Overture from Presbytery of Durant asking that, "In the interest of economy the Assembly print in the Appendix this part of the mileage committee's report, giving the traveling expenses of each Commissioner, arranged as the roll is by Synods and Presbyteries." In reply.

We do not deem this either wise or necessary as instead of being in the interest of economy, it would add considerably to the expense of printing the proceedings, and so far as we can see serve no wise purpose.

Respectfully submitted,

J. J. McINTOSH, Chairman.

CONSOLIDATION OF AGENCIES

The report of the Ad-Interim Committee on Consolidation of Agencies was presented by the Chairman, Dr. J. P. McCallie. Majority and minority reports were presented. A motion to docket both reports until the next Assembly was adopted. (See Appendix.)

It was ordered that the Stated Clerk secure a copy of the Scriptures to be presented to the four pages who have served the Assembly so faithfully.

A telegram from the General Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church was received, and referred to the Committee on Foreign Correspondence.

The Moderator announced the following additions to the Ad-Interim Committee on the Deacon's Work: Rev. Alexander Martin, D. D., H. M. McAllister, J. P. McCallie.

TRUSTEES OF MISSION COURT

The report of the Board of Trustees of the Mission Court was read and the recommendations as to Trustees was adopted, approving of the election of the following Board of Trustees:

For three years—Mrs. J. Calvin Stewart, Mrs. George Randolph Cannon, Rev. W. W. Moore, D. D.

For two years—Miss Carrie Lee Campbell, Miss Mary Weddell, Mr. John S. Munce.

For one year—Mrs. Chas. A. Morgan, Mrs. Frank S. Royster, Mr. George W. Watts.

SYSTEMATIC BENEFICENCE AND STEWARDSHIP

The Standing Committee on Systematic Beneficence and Stewardship made a report, which was considered seriatim, amended, and adopted as a whole, and is as follows:

There have come into the hands of your Committee a number of overtures touching the five-year campaign for Benevolences, fixing the time for the canvass, the quotas for Benevolences, an adequate budget, the mode of fixing quotas, the reorganizing and defining the duties of the Permanent Committee on Systematic Beneficence and Stewardship, the providing for physical equipment of all Foreign Mission Fields, against our Executive Committees' underwriting budget of the Inter-Church World Movement, asking that the Permanent Committee be enjoined from assuming financial responsibilities not explicitly authorized by the Assembly, for a larger percentage of undesignated contributions to Foreign Missions, touching closer co-operation of the Assembly's Executive Committees in securing the budget, the merging and reorganizing of the four Executive Committees and for near East Relief.

Many of these overtures bear on the same subject, and while each one is not taken up separately, answer to all will appear in the report that follows:

Besides these we have a paper, signed by Mr. C. E. Graham, and which is as follows:

CHARLOTTE, N. C., May 21, 1920.

To the Standing Committee Systematic Beneficence and Stewardship, General Assembly in Session at Charlotte, N. C., Presbyterian Church in the United States.

BRETHREN: In order to provide the special funds now urgently needed by the Executive Committees and agencies of the Presbyterian Church in the United States for the purposes of equipment and other special needs totaling not less than one million and a quarter dollars, to be distributed as follows:

Executive Committee of Foreign Missions.....	$ 625,000
Executive Committee of Home Missions.....	200,000
Executive Committee of Christian Education and Ministerial Relief for Student Loan Fund.....	100,000
Montreat	125,000
Assembly Training School.....	200,000 and in consideration of the gifts of others for the same purposes, I hereby agree to pay to the Treasurer of the Systematic Beneficence and Stewardship Committee of the Presbyterian Church in the United States the sum of:—

Two hundred and fifty thousand dollars.....$250,000

This proposition is made on the condition that the funds be raised in such a way as to in no way interfere with the plans and purposes of the Presbyterian Progressive Program.

It is further agreed that the funds stated above are to be secured on or before December 31st, 1921.

This subscription is to become binding and payable as follows:

One-fourth when one-fourth of the amount is paid;

One-fourth payable when one-half of the amount is paid;

One-fourth when three-fourths of the amount is paid;

One-fourth payable when the full amount is paid.

(Signed) C. E. GRAHAM.

Witnessed and Approved:

Egbert W. Smith, Secretary Foreign Missions.

S. L. Morris, Secretary Home Missions.

Henry H. Sweets, Secretary Christian Education.

R. E. Magill, Secretary Sabbath School Extension.

F. T. McFaden, President Assembly Training School.

R. C. Anderson, Montreat.

There has also been referred to your Committee portions of the report of the Permanent Committee on Systematic Beneficence and Stewardship, together with the statistical reports of the Presbyteries. Upon these papers your Committee would respectfully report:

We have read carefully the report of the Permanent Committee on Systematic Beneficence and Stewardship. We find that they have held four meetings since last meeting of the General Assembly; that for the most part they have been faithful and diligent in their attendance.

Special mention should be made of the Campaign Committee, whose diligence and efficiency may be seen in the results in greatly increased gifts to all causes—as is shown in the table of benevolent offerings herewith presented:

Foreign Missions	$1,115,345
Assembly's Home Missions	407,643
Christian Education and Ministerial Relief	283,371
S. S. Extension and Publication	94,892

Synod's Home Missions	174,836
Presbytery's Home Missions	304,138
Congregational Home Missions	210,216
Schools and Colleges	840,081
Bible Cause	22,185
Orphans Homes	377,569
Miscellaneous Benevolences	447,177
War Work Council	26,021

$4,303,474

This is a per capita of $11.81 for benevolences—something never before surpassed or equalled by any religious denomination.

We would recommend the holding of a Stewardship Conference the last week in July at Montreat, N. C., to which all Synodical Managers should be invited, as a means of further stimulating the cause of benevolence in the bounds of the Assembly.

We have examined carefully the relations of the Permanent Committee to the Inter-Church World Movement, and do not find that they in any way exceeded the responsibility laid upon them by the last General Assembly, either in the matter of participation or in the small amounts in which the budget was underwritten. We feel sure also that their act in advising the postponing of the date of the Every-Member Canvass was prompted by a real faith in increased results therefrom.

We recommend that the $4,500,000 already approved by the Assembly for benevolent work in 1921-'22 be apportioned among the Synods on the same basis as last year, as follows:

Alabama	$ 213,590
Appalachia	196,220
Arkansas	139,701
Florida	136,122
Georgia	341,787
Kentucky	248,366
Louisiana	136,714
Mississippi	201,126
Missouri	221,294
North Carolina	743,541
Oklahoma	38,074
Snedecor Memorial	9,428
South Carolina	355,754
Tennessee	239,382
Texas	465,414
Virginia	677,549
West Virginia	135,938

That the following amounts be apportioned for the Assembly's causes for 1921-22:

Foreign Missions	$ 1,498,500
Home Missions	720,000

Christian Education and Ministerial Relief.....	337,500
Publication and Sabbath School Extension.....	90,000
Bible Society	27,000
Training School	27,000
Assembly's Causes	$ 2,700,000
Synod's Causes	1,800,000

That the following percentages apply to any undesignated gifts:

Foreign Missions	33.3%
Assembly's Home Missions.....	16.0%
Christian Education and Ministerial Relief.....	7.5%
Publication and Sabbath School Work.....	2.0%
Assembly's Training School.....	.6%
Total.....	60.0%

Synodical and Presbyterian causes to be apportioned by each Presbytery and Synod.....	40.0%
--	-------

In answer to numerous overtures touching the Five-Year Forty Million Dollar Campaign, we would recommend the following:

Whereas, under the operation of the existing Progressive Program, the Church is making splendid progress in its understanding and appreciation of its needs, and whereas its financial and spiritual interests are being greatly promoted without that temporary high pressure which is contrary to the Presbyterian method of action; and whereas the proposed plan to raise forty million dollars, within five years, cannot fully respect the needs and opportunities of each year as they come; and whereas such a plan might tend to eliminate the annual campaign of education and the canvass for increasing subscriptions, which have proven to be of such signal service to our churches, we recommend that the General Assembly

(1) Decline to approve of the plan to raise forty million dollars in pledges of five years, and

(2) That we continue the progressive idea embodied in the present program from year to year.

In response to overtures from Nashville, Knoxville and Columbia Presbyteries referring to adequate budget for benevolent causes, Presbyterian, Synodical and Assembly, and asking that the churches be protected from special appeals we would make answer as follows: That adequate provision for all Assembly causes is provided in the four and one-half million dollar budget. The Assembly does not consider itself competent, however, to prevent appeals for local and Synodical causes.

Overtures from Muhlenburg and Memphis Presbyteries relating to the budget for benevolent causes and asking that the proportion allowed to Foreign Missions be increased so as to provide for present indebtedness without having to resort to special appeals, we recommend be answered in the negative.

That overture No. 76, from Muhlenburg Presbytery, relating to closer co-operation by the Assembly's Executive Committees in the work of securing the budget, be answered by stating that the desired co-operation has been approximately attained.

Overture No. 67, from Macon Presbytery, asking that the time for making the Every-Member-Canvas be not changed, we recommend be answered by saying that the canvass be held before 31st of March.

Overture No. 71, From Enoree Presbytery, for an all embracing budget, covering three to five years, be answered in the negative.

We recommend the adoption of the following:

We are convinced that the Presbyterian Progressive Program provides the best way to finance the benevolent work of our Church, and in our opinion the Assembly's intention in adopting this Program was not only to finance the benevolent work more adequately, but also to relieve the executive agencies of the responsibility of raising the funds needed for their work. All special appeals of whatever kind interfere by so much with the Presbyterian Progressive Program. We, therefore, recommend that the Assembly forbid its Executive Committees, and all agents thereof, and the Woman's Auxiliary, any appeals for funds presented by letter, or through the Church press, or in any other way, except such appeals as have been considered and recommended by the Assembly's Committee on Systematic Beneficence and Stewardship, and approved by the Assembly itself, and included in the budget of the Progressive Program, or otherwise definitely provided for.

That the overture from the Presbytery of Paris asking for the merging and reorganization of the four Executive Committees of the Assembly, be answered in the negative.

In reply to overtures 68-79, objecting to the fixing of quotas by the Assembly's Committee, that the answer be in the affirmative, for the reason that the Synods are better qualified to apportion to Presbyteries and Presbyteries to churches.

Overtures 89, 90, asking the Assembly to instruct its Permanent Committee on Systematic Beneficences and all its Executive Committees not to underwrite the budget of the Inter-Church World Movement or other undertakings not especially authorized by the General Assembly, be answered in the affirmative.

Overtures 77, 86, 99: Answer: The whole matter of these overtures is answered later in recommendation concerning the offer of Mr. C. E. Graham.

The overtures from Geo. G. Mayes and others asking for the appointment of a commission to formulate an appeal for $1,000,000 for Near East Relief:

We would answer, while the Assembly heartily commends the cause of all suffering humanity to its constituency, it nevertheless declines to appoint the commission called for.

In answer to overtures 87, 88, touching the gifts by Sunday Schools and Women's Societies, we recommend that they be encouraged to send their contributions through the regular church treasurer.

In answer to the overtures touching the powers and organization of the Permanent Committee on Systematic Beneficence and Stewardship, we rec-commend that the whole matter, together with these overtures, be referred to an Ad-Interim Committee to be appointed by the Moderator, which shall carefully consider and report to the next Assembly.

With reference to the suggested outline program in the calendar for the year 1921-22, prepared by the Campaign Committee, we recommend that the next year's Committee print the same for use in the churches.

Your Committee would record its commendation of the very great work done by Rev. W. Fred Galbraith, D. D., Secretary, and Rev. S. W. McGill, Campaign Manager, in connection with the Progressive Program Campaign.

We recommend:

(1) That the Assembly record its appreciation of the earnest and self-denying labors of those who managed the Four Million Campaign in the Synods, Presbyteries and churches.

(2) That each Synod, Presbytery and church be asked to maintain the organization which has so successfully conducted the campaign this year, and that this splendid force of workers be used in carrying forward the Assembly's Progressive Program.

(3) That the Synods consider the advisability of securing managers for their full time to promote the objectives of the Progressive Program, the managers to co-operate with the campaign manager of the Assembly.

(4) That the Assembly request the Presbyterian Committees of Systematic Beneficence, in making apportionments for the churches to recognize the Assembly's schedule of percentages in providing for the Assembly's causes.

(5) That the Assembly request Presbyterian and Synodical causes to bear their proportionate part of the campaign expense.

(6) That the Systematic Beneficence and Stewardship Committee be urged to continue its emphasis on the cultivation of Christian Stewardship ideals throughout the Church, and to seek ways and means to lead our people to a clearer recognition and a fuller practice of the Christian's obligation of Stewardship toward God in possessions, personality and prayer.

(7) Finance: That a budget of $75,000 be provided to carry through the campaign for $4,500,000 and that this fund be furnished by the executive agencies of the Assembly, and Synodical, Presbyterian and Educational Causes in proportion to the benefit they receive from the united campaign.

We would recommend that the Assembly's Committee on Systematic Beneficence and Stewardship for the Church year 1920-21 be composed of the following persons:

Synods	Principals	Alternates
Alabama.....	Rev. D. F. McConnell.....	Rev. David Park Anniston
Appalachia.....	Rev. J. D. Faucet.....	Rev. T. S. McCallie Chattanooga

And that Rev. D. C. Lilly be appointed Convenor of the Committee.

We recommend that the Assembly appropriate the sum of $250 or so much as may be needed thereof for such expenses of the Committee over and above the expenses of members attending the meetings of the Committee.

We recommend that the Assembly's Executive Secretaries and the superintendent of the Woman's Auxiliary, be called into conference with the Committee in the planning of its campaigns.

We recommend that the generous offer of Mr. C. E. Graham of $250,000 for equipment and other special needs, conditional on the raising of $1,000,000 by the Church for the same purpose, be accepted with the thanks of the Assembly, and the Committee on Beneficence and Stewardship be directed to secure a Secretary and Campaign Manager and to set up whatever machinery may be necessary for the raising of this money, at the earliest moment possible, as well as prosecuting all the features of the Progressive Program.

We recommend that Dr. E. W. Smith, whose term of office expires with this Assembly, be re-elected as Executive Secretary of Foreign Missions for a term of three years.

ERNEST THOMPSON, Chairman.

A resolution as to the method of financing the Inter-Church World movement was referred to the Standing Committee on Systematic Beneficence.

The Moderator appointed Rev. R. F. Campbell, D. D., Dr. J. D. Eggleston, Rev. T. A. Wharton, D. D., to nominate for election by this Assembly, representatives in the Inter-Church World Movement.

GREETINGS TO METHODIST PROTESTANTS

The Standing Committee on Foreign Correspondence made the following report, which was adopted:

To the General Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, Greensboro, N. C.:

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church U. S. heartily reciprocates your fraternal greetings and prays the blessing of God to rest upon you in all your work for the Master.

ORGANIC UNION OF CHURCHES OF CHRIST

The following resolution is recommended by the Committee on Foreign Correspondence:

The Assembly has heard with much interest and pleasure the address of the Rev. Dr. Joseph A. Vance, touching the Plan of Union of the American Council on Organic Union of the Churches of Christ, but inasmuch as the General Assembly has approved the proposal to establish a United Assembly, it is deemed inadvisable at present to refer the Plan of Union to the Presbyteries for their consideration.

RUSSELL CECIL, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Publication and Sabbath School Work presented their report. Pending consideration, recess was taken until 2:00 p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

2:00 p. m.

The Assembly met.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures made a partial report, which was adopted. (See full report, page 79.)

THE CHRISTIAN AMENDMENT

The Select Committee to whom was referred the address of Rev. W. C. McClurkin made the following report, which was adopted:

In response to the address of the Rev. Walter C. McClurkin, of the Reformed Presbyterian Synod, touching a proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States recognizing the authority and law of Jesus Christ, your Committee respectfully recommends that, while not without sympathy for the ends sought, nevertheless the Assembly take no formal action in the matter.

For the Committee,

C. W. SOMMERVILLE, Chairman.

It was ordered that Rev. Isaac Yonan, of the Syrian Relief Committee, be heard at 5:00 p. m. for ten minutes.

The unfinished business, the report of the Standing Committee on Publication and Sabbath School Work, was resumed. The report was amended, adopted as a whole, and is as follows:

PUBLICATION AND SABBATH SCHOOL WORK

The Standing Committee on Publication and Sabbath School Work would respectfully submit its report under three heads: (1) Points of special interest; (2) Overtures; (3) Recommendations.

Points of Special Interest.—In view of the fact that the annual report of the Executive Committee is in the hands of the Commissioners of this Assembly and that an abstract of the same appears in the appendix of the Minutes of the Assembly, we deem it sufficient in this report merely to emphasize certain points of special interest.

(1) The total sales of books and periodicals during the year amounted to $345,801.93, which is an increase over the previous year of $60,413.82.

(2) The total membership of our Sabbath Schools is 357,848, as against 289,236 reported at last Assembly.

(3) The total contributions of the Sabbath Schools for the year amounted to $584,994, of which sum $334,422 was given to the benevolent causes of the Church.

(4) The additions to our churches on confession of faith from the Sabbath Schools numbered 12,119, as against 9,463 of the previous year, being 60 per cent. of the total additions on confession of faith. This is the largest number of additions from the Sabbath Schools in the history of our Church.

(5) "The Teaching Value of the Old Testament," by Drs. Moore and Mack, issued by our Committee, has been made one of the units in the Standard Teachers' Training Course of America, and is being used in Canada as well as in the United States.

(6) In the Sabbath School Extension Work 53 persons have been engaged. Twenty-five new schools have been established and 50 schools re-organized. In view of the great need revealed by recent surveys, this department of work should receive the most earnest support of the Church.

Overtures.—(1) From Rev. Thos. H. Law, D. D., Stated Clerk, asking that the Executive Committee of Publication be authorized and recommended to consider and arrange for, if the measure appear feasible, the preparation and publication of another revision of or supplement to Alexander's Digest. We recommend that the overture be answered in the affirmative.

(2) An overture asking that our Committee on Sabbath School Work be requested to arrange to hold, in conjunction with the Presbyterial Committees, at least one Sabbath School Institute within the bounds of every Presbytery during the coming year. We recommend that this overture be answered in the affirmative.

(3) From the Presbyteries of Nashville, Memphis, Muhlenburg, Paducah, and Louisville, asking that the Executive Committee on Publication be instructed to take steps looking to the publication of a volume of the writings of the late Dr. R. A. Webb. We recommend that these overtures be answered in the affirmative.

(4) From North Mississippi Presbytery, requesting the publication of a paper for the Young People's Societies. In view of the fact that "Onward" covers this ground, we recommend that the overture be answered in the negative.

(5) From the Presbyteries of West Hanover and Asheville, concerning additional statistical columns in which full salaries of all ministers will be shown. We recommend that these overtures be answered in the negative.

(6) From Rev. V. O. Armstrong, concerning the use of tobacco, we recommend that the overture be answered as follows:

Resolved, That the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States urges its pastors, missionaries, and teachers in the Church educational institutions to discourage the rapidly growing habit of smoking, especially of cigarettes, by our young people.

Recommendations.—(1) In response to the request of the Executive Committee of Publication and Sabbath School Work for permission to contribute $50,000 to the building fund of the Assembly's Training School, we recommend that the Assembly hereby authorize the Executive Committee to make this contribution with a request to the Trustees of the Training School that the fund eventually be added to the A. L. Phillips Memorial Fund.

(2) Recognizing the urgent need of trained leadership in the Sabbath School and Young People's Work of our local churches, and in consideration of the fact that many of our promising young people are receiving their education in colleges under the control and support of the Church, we recommend to our Church schools and colleges a careful study of the advisability of their including courses in religious education in their curricula. These courses to include studies in Child Study, Religious Pedagogy, Bible Study, and Organization and Methods in Sabbath School and Young People's Work.

(3) In the interest of increased efficiency and promptness of service, we recommend that the Assembly suggest to the churches in our Western bounds the wisdom of sending their orders to the Texarkana Depository.

(4) Following the action of the Assembly's Systematic Beneficence Committee, we recommend that Rev. J. P. Smith, D. D., Rev. J. C. Stewart, D. D., Rev. Russell Cecil, D. D., Mr. M. M. Gilliam, and Mr. J. W. Friend be elected to succeed themselves as members of the Executive Committee; that Mr. Albert Sidney Johnston be elected to fill the unexpired term of Mr. Jas. W. Sinton, deceased, and that Dr. W. B. Lorraine be elected to fill a vacancy.

(5) Again following the action of the Systematic Beneficence Committee, we recommend that the quota of Sabbath School Extension for 1921-'22 be $90,000, or 2 per cent. of $4,500,000.

(6) In view of the importance of the work, we are convinced that the Superintendents of the Sabbath School Department and the Editorial Department should be elected by the Assembly, and for a term of three years, rather than by the Executive Committee annually. We therefore recommend that the Executive Committee of Publication and Sabbath School Work be instructed to nominate to the Assembly of 1921 men for these offices, to be elected for a term of three years.

Respectfully submitted,

DUNBAR H. OGDEN, Chairman.

UNSOUND BOOKS

The two following resolutions were presented. They were referred to an Ad-Interim Committee to be appointed by the Moderator:

That the Presbyterian Committee of Publication be requested not to sell, recommend, or keep as samples for sale, any book or other publications that are not in full accord with the fundamental belief of our Evangelistic Churches.

C. M. RICHARDS.

SUBSTITUTE FOR ABOVE RESOLUTION

We again urge our Committee of Publication to exercise scrupulous care as to the character of the books advertised and commended to our people.

G. F. BELL.

BIBLE CAUSE

The Standing Committee on the Bible Cause made a report, which was amended, adopted as a whole, and is as follows:

We have carefully considered the Permanent Committee's report, which was placed in our hands, and also the report of the Ad-Interim Committee, and the information we could secure personally from the Secretary of the American Bible Society, Mr. Frank H. Mann. Although the Ad-Interim Committee's report was not placed in our hands, yet we have embodied some of its suggestions in this report.

We feel that the Bible Cause, as represented by the American Bible Society, is not fully appreciated by our people, nor does it receive the consideration and interest and prayers which it justly deserves. Therefore, we would again urgently call attention to the fundamental importance of the Bible Cause as the very foundation of all our other great causes. Without the Holy Bible we would have no Foreign Missions and no Home Missions. The Bible is the great text-book of Christian Education, and it is and should be the text-book of our Sabbath Schools. Then, let us not sidetrack the Bible Cause into the position of minor importance, but ever keep it to the forefront, where it ought to be. The American Bible Society has been and is an untold blessing to the world. It is distributing millions upon millions of Bibles annually to the uttermost ends of the earth, and it is making every effort to increase its facilities for publishing the Holy Scriptures to meet the ever-increasing demand, both at home and abroad. Its work is done through agencies, of which there are eleven in foreign lands and nine in America; and of these nine, five of them are engaged in work in the Southern States, with headquarters in Cincinnati, Dallas, Texas; Atlanta, Ga., and Richmond, Va.

The Southern Presbyterian Church is greatly indebted to the American Bible Society as our chief source of supply of the Scriptures in mission work, and our only source of supply in foreign languages for our Foreign Mission work, and the growing demand for them in foreign tongues in the homeland. If for any reason the Bible Society should cease to publish the Scriptures for us in the hundreds of foreign tongues to meet the demands of our missionaries, and we should be dependent upon our own resources, it would tremendously cripple our work, and enormously increase the cost of it. Let us remember this and ask for larger contributions from our people in the support of the Bible Cause.

It was a great blessing to have with us on last evening Mr. Frank H. Mann, of New York, General Secretary of the American Bible Society, and this Assembly desires to express its grateful appreciation of his clear and forceful address. Both addresses by Mr. Mann and his uncle, Ex-Gov. Mann, of Virginia, stirred the entire Assembly, we trust to a deeper interest in the Bible Cause.

Recommendations.—(1) That the General Assembly definitely and permanently recognize the American Bible Society as its special agency for the translation, publication and distribution of the sacred Scriptures.

(2) That the Assembly's Permanent Committee on Systematic Benevolence and Stewardship be requested to consider, and report to the next Assembly, on the advisability of giving to the American Bible Society a larger percentage in the distribution of the benevolent funds of the churches.

(3) That the Assembly recommend to our people "The Bible Society Record." It will keep them informed as to the work in which the Society is engaged, both at home and abroad, and it will be a blessing to the homes of our people. It is $1.00 per annum, or 50c. in clubs of five or more.

(4) That the Assembly encourage and recommend to Presbyteries the employment of Bible women in their Home Mission work.

(5) Not only do we call attention to the vital necessity of the work of the Bible Society in translating and printing and circulating the sacred Scriptures, but to the supreme importance and duty of all our people as to the reading and study and teaching of the Scriptures in private and in Bible classes. We would urge a revival of Bible study. We fear in these days of hurry and pleasure and money-making, our people are not being blessed with a daily meditation and study of the Bible. And the multiplicity of the minister's cares and duties of the new day in which we find ourselves presents a fearful temptation to him to neglect his daily devotional Bible study. We urge the slogan, "Back to the Bible."

(6) That we urge all our people to put the American Bible Society upon their prayer-list, and that all our churches, as far as practicable, observe May Flower Bible Sunday, last Sabbath of September, 1920.

(7) That the first Friday night of each Assembly be set apart to the Bible Cause, under the direction of the Permanent Committee on the Bible Cause.

(8) That the present Permanent Committee be re-appointed, with Dr. Russell Cecil as Chairman, and that we continue to co-operate with the American Bible Society in their request to appoint a representative from our Church to be a member of the Advisory Council, and that Dr. Cecil be appointed as such representative.

J. C. SHIVE, Chairman.

The Moderator appointed the following Ad-Interim Committee, to whom was referred the two resolutions touching the Publication Work:

Rev. D. J. Woods, D. D.

Rev. LeRoy Gresham, D. D.

Rev. W. McC. White, D. D.

Elder W. H. Mann.

Westminster Church, St. Louis, Mo., was chosen as the place for the next Assembly.

The two gavels presented to this Assembly were presented to the Moderator, Rev. W. L. Lingle, D. D.

The Committee appointed to nominate the representatives of the Presbyterian Church U. S. on the Inter-Church World Movement made the following report, which was adopted:

The Committee to nominate for election by the General Assembly those who are to represent the Presbyterian Church in the United States in the Inter-Church World Movement would name the following: A. D. P. Gilmour, D. Clay Lilly, James I. Vance, Russell Cecil, S. L. Morris, H. H. Sweets, J. O. Reavis, C. E. Graham, John J. Eagan, John R. Pharr, R. E. Magill, S. W. McGill.

R. F. CAMPBELL, Chairman.

FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence presented the following report, which was amended. The matter of the appointment of a Committee to formulate the Plan of Union, which had been referred to this Committee, was taken from the docket. The report was adopted as a whole, and is as follows:

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence respectfully report as follows:

1. The General Assembly has heard with pleasure and sympathy the address of the Rev. Charles Merle d'Aubigne, of Paris, representing the Reformed Churches of France. Dr. d'Aubigne suggested that our Church undertake the re-erection of one of the destroyed church edifices in some French town on the front of the battle line where our boys were actively engaged in the struggle.

We recommend that the General Assembly ask our churches to contribute a sum of not less than $25,000 to be devoted to the erection of a church in the devastated region of France, as a memorial to the soldiers of our Church who fell in France during the war, and that the carrying out of this matter be placed in the hands of the Committee on French and Belgian Relief.

2. The annual reports of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, together with a number of other communications from that body, have been referred to the Committee on Foreign Correspondence.

One of these papers is the answer of the Federal Council to the communication of our General Assembly of 1919, touching the action of the Federal Council upon civil affairs. Our communication called the attention of the Council to the fact that we had protested a number of times against resolutions of the Council on civil and political matters which we regarded as inconsistent with the historic principle of the entire separation of the Church and State.

The answer of the Council to our communication is a long and carefully prepared paper, rehearsing the successive steps in this correspondence and calling attention to Section 4 of the Constitution of the Council, which reads:

"This Federal Council shall have no authority over the constituent bodies adhering to it, but its province shall be limited to the expression of its counsel and the recommending of a course of action in matters of common interest to the churches, local councils, and individual Christians.

"It has no authority to draw up a common creed or form of government or of worship, or in any way to limit the full autonomy of the Christian bodies adhering to it."

The Council insists that it has endeavored in the actions of the general body, and also of its various commissions, to adhere to the principles announced in this section of the Constitution, and it says:

"It is our judgment that with a proper understanding of the situation, there is no real line of cleavage between the principles of the Presbyterian Church in the United States and the Constitution of the Federal Council."

It further says:

"We would, however, remind the General Assembly that while in agreement upon these fundamental principles, the various constituent denominations vary in their emphasis and vary at times in the application of these principles to concrete and practical issues.

"We would remind the Assembly that this same difference of emphasis and difference in practical application obtains also within the constituent denominations themselves, as illustrated by the action of the General Assembly itself, which on one occasion took action on the question of prohibition quite contrary to the action of a previous Assembly."

Touching the action of our General Assembly in regard "to the treatment of social questions on the part of the Church," the Council also insists that it has not taken any action inconsistent with the position of our Assembly, and in connection with this makes the following statement:

"In a body like the Federal Council, which unites thirty-one denominations, it would be too much to expect that every particular action taken should express the unanimous judgment of these bodies in every case, and it is for this reason that wise provision was made, as above noted, whereby 'the action taken does not become in the slightest respect binding upon any Church represented in this Council unless that Church, through its own separate and specific approval, elects to make it so.'"

We recommend to the General Assembly that, while continuing our relation with the Federal Council, we reaffirm our loyal adherence to the principle of the separation of Church and State, and reserve the right to protest in the future to any action or actions of the Federal Council, or any of its commissions, which, in our judgment, are not in accordance with this principle and with Section 4 of the Constitution of the Council itself, which has been quoted above.

We also recommend that the present representatives of our Church in the Council be re-elected, Dr. Russell Cecil, who was alternate, to take a place made vacant by Dr. J. F. Cannon, deceased, and Dr. Dunbar H. Ogden to be alternate to Dr. Cecil, as members of the Executive Committee, and Dr. R. F. Campbell as a member of the Administrative Committee; and that Dr. James I. Vance be re-elected to membership in the Federal Council.

3. The report of the World's Conference on Faith and Order, together with the report of our Committee in that Conference, has also been placed in our hands.

We recommend that the General Assembly continue its connection with the World Conference on Faith and Order, to be represented by Drs. Russell Cecil and W. H. Marquess, and J. Horace Lacy as alternate of either of the others, and that Dr. S. H. Chester be appointed to represent our Assembly at the preliminary meeting to be held in Geneva, Switzerland, August 12, 1920; also at the Federal Council.

4. We recommend that the Committee to co-operate with the other constituent bodies in the formation of the Constitution of the United Assembly be limited to twelve persons, as follows: Our Moderator, Rev. W. L. Lingle, D. D.; Rev. A. M. Fraser, D. D., Rev. Russell Cecil, D. D., Rev. S. L. Morris, D. D., Rev. J. M. Wells, D. D., Rev. T. A. Wharton, D. D., Rev. R. F. Campbell, D. D., Rev. J. B. Hutton, D. D., Rev. Thornton Whaling, D. D.; Elders W. F. Stevenson, A. M. Scales, E. T. Miller.

RUSSELL CECIL, Chairman.

The following resolution was offered by Rev. R. F. Campbell, D. D.:

AD-INTERIM COMMITTEE

In carrying out the resolution in regard to a conference of the representatives of the Presbyterian Church in the United States in the Inter-Church World Movement and the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, looking to a co-ordination of the two, Rev. A. D. P. Gilmour, D. D., was appointed Convener of this Conference.

Rev. W. L. Lingle, D. D., Moderator of the Assembly, was appointed to convene the Committee on the Plan of Union.

CHURCH SOCIETIES

The Standing Committee on Church Societies made a report, which was considered seriatim and adopted as a whole. It is as follows:

The eighth annual report of the Woman's Auxiliary has been referred to this Committee, and we record with gratification the increasing influence and continued usefulness of this organization in the life of the Church.

Splendid progress has been made during the year. The total membership of all affiliated organizations is about 70,000 women, an increase of 20,000 over last year.

Your Committee believes that the Auxiliary should be heartily commended for the faithful and fruitful work it has done; for its ever widening ministry in reaching and developing the women and girls of the Church in the work of the Kingdom.

It would place its warm approval on the plan of organization and commend it to the sessions as of practical value in that the Auxiliary plan systematizes the work, develops latent forces into leadership, stimulates Bible and Mission study, and brings all the women into familiar and interested acquaintance with all lines of the Church's work.

We call attention to the fact that there is an Auxiliary Circle plan adapted for use in rural, village and city churches, and we urge pastors and sessions to carefully investigate the plans to see if it cannot apply to each local church.

We would call special attention to the following outstanding achievements of the past year.

1. The very apparent and splendid growth of the Spiritual Life and work: This is manifest in the rapid growth of Bible and Mission study classes, and of the organization of many Prayer Circles during the year.

The League of Intercessors was launched last January for special and continued Prayer for the Church, and thousands have united with the League. A new zeal for the family altar has been kindled. A secretary to stimulate Prayer Bands and increase their number has been appointed in the Synodicals, Presbyterials and in many local Auxiliaries. There are 1718 Prayer Bands now officially reporting, and we are confident there are many more.

2. Better Educational Methods.—The Year Books are being generally used throughout the Church. About 20,000 were sold last year. They give helpful programs and are suggestive for weekly meetings. Much other helpful literature is being constantly issued by the central office of the Auxiliary. We call attention to the attractive and useful leaflets which are listed in the annual report. The last year was also fruitful in the organization of many Mission study classes—about 1,760 classes, with a total membership of over 15,000, were organized during the year.

3. Contributions.—The total contributions of the Women's Societies last year for the Assembly's Benevolent causes were $237,356.91, an increase over the past year of $75,000.

We find that there were many different plans of reporting the other gifts of the societies in different churches. Under the ruling of the Assembly last year a number of societies made all their gifts through the regular Church envelope, and therefore had no report to send up to the Presbyterial or Auxiliary. It is difficult to ascertain altogether satisfactory figures from the reports of the societies. However, the statistical report on Church Societies from Presbyteries appended to this report shows splendid progress and large contributions. These reports indicate the contributions during the year amounted to $783,109.00, over $200,000 in excess of the gifts of last year.

4. Summer Conferences.—Growing interest is being found in the summer conferences. Last summer about 500 women, most of whom were officers in Presbyterials and local societies, gathered at Montreat in the training school for intensive study in methods of work, Bible and Mission study and parliamentary law. In addition to Montreat, many helpful State conferences are constantly being held, and last June the first great convention of the women of the Church, with 800 delegates, met in Atlanta.

5. The Conference for Colored Women.—This conference held at Stillman Institute, attracted 150 delegates from 59 towns in 11 States and representing 8 denominations. We believe that the conference will be far-reaching and helpful in aiding to solve the vexing racial questions. An entire week was spent in Bible study, home economics, sanitation, community problems, and better ways of living. So helpful have been these Stillman conferences that other sections of the Church are asking for similar conferences, and in 1921 probably three more will be held.

6. The New School for Colored Girls.—This school has been the special object of the women both in developing an interest for such work and in their gifts. About $10,000 was raised last year during Home Mission Week for this school, making a total of $13,000 now in hand and raised by the women for this school. The General Education Board has agreed to give $20,000 if the Church would raise $40,000 for the erection of the building. The offer has been accepted and plans are under way by which the building will be ready for use in the fall. The school will be located in Tuscaloosa, Alabama, and in connection with Stillman Institute, and will be under the direction and control of the Executive Committee of Home Missions.

The Committee reports with pleasure that the Superintendent of the Auxiliary, Mrs. W. C. Winsborough, is planning an early and extensive visit to the mission fields of the Orient. We believe that the visit will prove a wonderful blessing to the women's societies throughout the Church, and we rejoice in the generous gifts of individuals which have made possible this visit. The Committee urges that special prayer be offered throughout the Church that Mrs. Winsborough may be given a safe and profitable visit, and that she may be greatly used on her return in stimulating missionary interest among the societies.

Recommendations:—1. That the Assembly again express its cordial approval of the whole work of the Auxiliary; its appreciation and approval of the faithful and efficient leadership of the Superintendent, Mrs. W. C. Winsborough, under whose splendid leadership such remarkable and gratifying results have been attained.

2. That the Assembly recommend the Woman's Auxiliary Circle Plan to the sessions of all of our churches and urge its immediate adoption, where practical, as the uniform and workable plan for all women organizations.

3. That the Assembly urge upon the sessions of all of our churches the great importance of having their local women's societies form connections with their respective Presbyterials.

4. That the four Executive Committees provide a liberal expense for the Auxiliary, and that it be paid in proportion to the percentages assigned to the Committees by the Assembly.

5. That the members of the women's societies make their regular contributions through the regular church collections as members of the church.

6. That additional self-denial and sacrificial offerings (over and above the individual gifts through the church) be made through the societies, and that only such gifts be reported by the societies.

7. That the women's societies continue to include the whole program of the Church in their study, work and prayer, and in their budgets, and in the distribution of their gifts that they include all the approved causes of the Church on the percentage basis approved by the Assembly.

ROBERT H. McCASLIN, Chairman.

The following protest, signed by Rev. George Summey, D. D., and 30 others, was presented and placed on record:

PROTEST AGAINST ACTION AS TO INTER-CHURCH WORLD MOVEMENT

The undersigned, members of this General Assembly, do hereby most respectfully but earnestly protest against the action of this Assembly, taken in the afternoon and evening of May 26, 1920, in connection with the Inter-Church World Movement.

More particularly, we protest:

Against the Assembly's entering upon a relation and work to which several Synods and many of our Presbyteries have formally declined to give their endorsement, to which not one Synod or Presbytery has asked that the Assembly give endorsement or adherence, and in respect to which there is no constitutional provision.

Against the unwisdom of entering upon that relation and work by a bare majority of the Assembly, the matter being important enough to call for as full concurrence as possible of the entire Church.

Against the Assembly's refusal, by a majority of barely one vote, to submit so vital a question of relation and work to the Presbyteries for their advice and consent, as to the Church's future attitude towards the Inter-Church World Movement.

The Moderator appointed the following Committee to answer this protest: Rev. J. L. Caldwell, D. D., J. T. McCutchan, and R. F. Campbell, D. D., who presented the following, which was adopted and put on record:

ANSWER TO PROTEST

Your Committee appointed to reply to the protest against the Assembly's action in the matter of the Inter-Church World Movement respectfully recommend the following answer by the Assembly:

1. The action protested against was not a matter of "entering upon that relation and work," as alleged, for that had already been done by action of the last Assembly. And, furthermore, it was not by "a bare majority," unless a vote of 136 to 103 may be so called.

2. The vote referred to as a "bare majority of one" was not upon the Church's attitude in an indefinite sense, as implied in the protest, the Assembly already having passed upon the relation of the Church to this movement for the ensuing year; the vote was upon its continued relations after that time, a matter which was already by the constitution subject to overture by the Presbyteries without submission of the question to them by this Assembly.

Respectfully submitted,

JNO. L. CALDWELL,
J. T. MCCUTCHAN,
R. F. CAMPBELL.

The time was extended ten minutes in order to take up the order of the day, to hear Rev. Isaac Yonan, of Armenia.

The Rev. Russell Cecil, D. D., presented a resolution concerning the work in Persia, which was referred to a select committee consisting of Rev. Russell Cecil, D. D., Rev. W. J. McMillan, D. D., and Rev. J. B. Hutton, D. D.

The following was adopted:

RESOLUTION OF THANKS

The Sixtieth General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, U. S., in session in the First Presbyterian Church, Charlotte, N. C., recognizes with profound gratitude the smile of Divine favor, so delightfully evidenced in the radiant sunshine and fair weather greeting us upon our arrival in Charlotte, and continuing through all our sessions through the end.

We record with pleasure our increasing appreciation of this Queen City day after day, as we have come into closer touch with its life and enjoyed the delightful hospitality of its homes, churches and clubs.

We have been inspired with the memory of its traditions as the cradle of American Liberty and the birthplace of our national independence.

We have been continually reminded of the virtues inherited from a noble Scotch and Scotch-Irish ancestry; as well as the best in the chivalry, courtesy and hospitality of this sunny Southland.

The commodious building, splendid appointments and beautiful environment of the First Presbyterian Church added greatly to the comfort and delight of the Assembly.

To the genial pastor and officers and members of the First Presbyterian Church; to the ladies of the church who provided lunch so bountifully at the church daily for Commissioners and visitors; to the pastors of other Presbyterian churches who co-operated in entertaining the Assembly; to the homes in which we enjoyed a hospitality that will ever be a fragrant memory; to the boys who served as pages; to Queen's College, that opened its doors to welcome many of our Commissioners; to the President and Trustees of Davidson College, that gave us an excursion to Davidson and entertained us on its lovely campus and received us into its historic buildings; to the Presbyterian Hospital, that entertained us with a sumptuous luncheon on its beautiful grounds; to the "Observer" and "News," so generous in reporting our proceedings; to the Commercial National Bank, that so kindly handled our finances; to all other individuals and institutions contributing to our comfort and cheer, we tender our sincere and heartfelt thanks.

We extend our thanks to all the churches and citizens of Charlotte for their sympathetic interest in our General Assembly, and assure them that our sojourn in their midst will ever be a delightful memory. And we most heartily thank our Moderator, the Rev. Walter L. Lingle, D. D., LL. D., for the remarkably fair and efficient way in which he has discharged, under remarkably trying conditions, the duties of the office, and recommend that a copy of these resolutions be furnished the city papers for publication.

Recess was then taken until 8:00 p. m., closing with prayer.

EVENING SESSION

8:00 p. m.

The Assembly met.

The Standing Committee on Judicial Business made a report, which was adopted. It is as follows:

JUDICIAL BUSINESS

The Judicial Committee respectfully submits the following report: The only matter before the Committee is the memorial of Rev. W. I. Sinnott, complaining of certain language used by the General Assembly of 1910, when his case was before it.

The question to be considered in this case is that of jurisdiction and law. Has the Assembly any power to pass upon the merit of this case?

It appears from the memorial of Mr. Sinnott and the Assembly records of 1910 that this case was decided by the highest court of the Church, and the statements by which Mr. Sinnott feels he has been injured are embodied in said decision.

It is a principle of law, held in the highest courts of the States, and by the Supreme Court of the United States, that public policy requires that there shall be an end of litigation, and this is as true in the government of the Church as in the government of the State and Nation. We think that this is the correct position, and express the opinion that the conclusion of the case has been reached by the General Assembly of the Church, which your Committee regards as final.

Your Committee therefore recommends that the memorial of Rev. W. I. Sinnott be denied. At the same time we desire to express the opinion that Mr. Sinnott is a minister and man of the highest Christian character.

Respectfully submitted,

THORNTON WHALING, Chairman.

CHANGE IN FOREIGN MISSIONS MANUAL

A request came from the Executive Committee of Foreign Missions for a change in the Manual of Foreign Missions, as follows:

"Resolved, That in response to the request of the China Mission, we request the General Assembly to make such change in the Foreign Missions Manual as will leave it optional with the different missions as to whether they shall accord the privilege of voting to the women members of the mission." Action of Executive Committee of Foreign Missions taken May 26th.

Moved, That this request be granted, and that the following change of the Manual be made to give it effect:

(1) In Section IV, paragraph 47, at the bottom of page 26, to the definition of the mission there given, add the words: "But any mission, if it so desires, may by majority vote make its women missionaries members of the mission technically so called, and accord them the privilege of voting."

C. M. RICHARDS.

It was adopted.

CIVIC RIGHTEOUSNESS

A resolution was offered by Rev. C. M. Richards, D. D., which was adopted, and is as follows:

Whereas our country and the world are passing through a period of reconstruction and readjustment, the issues of which are tremendous beyond our powers to estimate, and

Whereas there is at such a time grave danger that men may lose sight of the one righteous standard of conduct and adopt wrong principles for the solution of pressing problems, and

Whereas there seems to be almost prevalent in this particular period an atmosphere unfavorable to the regard for law, either statutory or constitutional, and

Whereas also there are many characteristics of the time that conduce the deadly sin of covetousness, and

Whereas we recognize the right and the duty of the Church to warn against danger and to hold up a standard of righteousness; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Presbyterian Church in the United States, speaking through this Assembly, renews its witness against every disobedience to established law and all disregard of constituted authority; that it lifts its voice against the destructive iniquity of covetousness in its many and insidious forms; that it would, in this deliverance, lift up before all the people the Bible standard of right doing as the only measure of conduct; that it urges upon all, especially the rulers of mankind, the principles of the Gospel of Jesus Christ as the only safe guide to the solution of the world problems; that it calls upon all its preachers and teachers incessantly to lift up this standard and urge these principles; and that it lovingly enjoins its own constituency in particular, in loyal devotion to them, to show among all the people examples of good citizenship and righteousness, observing every right law, hating covetousness, and walking humbly with the Lord.

C. M. RICHARDS.

AUDITS

The Standing Committee on Audits made a report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Auditing Committee desires to report as follows:

Although this Committee is called an Auditing Committee, no books, bank books, cancelled checks or vouchers have been submitted to us for examination, but we have carried out the custom of former committees and have carefully examined the reports.

The Foreign Mission report is certified to by Allan B. Fisher, public accountant, of Nashville, Tenn. There is no report of the treasurer of this fund attached. We have examined this audit carefully and desire to congratulate the Assembly on the reduction of the deficit from $216,657.19 March 31, 1919, to $164,622.07 in March, 1920. From this audit it is our opinion that the finances are in good shape, and books well kept.

The report of A. N. Sharp, Treasurer of Home Missions, has been certified to by Alonzo Richardson Co., of Atlanta, Ga., who report the books balance and are in good shape.

The report of R. A. Dunn, Vice-President, and the certified report of Jno. R. Pharr, Treasurer, of the Trustees of the General Assembly have been carefully examined, and we endorse their recommendation that Dr. A. A. McGeachy, Geo. M. Rose, Jr., and Geo. E. Wilson be re-elected as members of this Board of Trustees. They also submitted the will of Martha F. Harwood, of Texas. This we submitted to Judge H. L. Moseley, of Weatherford, Texas, who very kindly gave us the following opinion:

"These proceedings are legal and regular. However, it is greatly to the possible benefit of the Assembly to postpone the sale of this land as long as possible, because of the oil development in this section of the State. It might be worth a great deal of money." (Signed) H. L. Moseley.

We therefore recommend that this land be not disposed of for the present.

The original signed certificate of the Presbyterian Committee of Publication, of Richmond, Va., was submitted to us. This was audited by E. A. Leitch, of Richmond. The only criticism we would make is that they have charged off a depreciation of furniture and fixtures, $500.00, when the whole furniture and fixtures amount to $1,585.53. This is charging off nearly 33 per cent., when the United States government only allows 10 per cent. to be charged off for depreciation of this kind of property.

The report of Dr. Thos. H. Law, Treasurer of the Assembly, showing that he received $20,516.63, and that he had a balance left on hand of $1,780.45, was carefully examined, but it is the opinion of the Committee that a certified accountant should audit these books, as we have nothing to show for the accuracy of the statement except the report of the Treasurer.*

We have before us a copy of the statement of the Presbyterian Minister's Fund for life insurance, which we suppose is only sent for information.

The report from the Treasurer of Christian Education and Ministerial Relief came in too late for examination.

Recommendations—

On account of the extreme high prices of everything, we recommend that the per capita assessment on the Presbyteries for the coming year be made six cents (6). This will probably leave a small balance, but we think it best to be safe in this recommendation.

Your Committee also recommends that, in line with the principles of representative government, the officers of the various Church courts, including the Assembly, except the Stated Clerk and Permanent Clerk, are elected annually. We recommend that the same principle be applied to all the officers of the Assembly. As the services of the Clerks, however, require familiarity with the duties of their offices, we recommend that the terms of these officers be fixed at three years, and at the next Assembly an election be held for these officers for the first period, and the election be held in connection with the election of Moderator. We also recommend that as the work of Stated and Permanent Clerks have doubled in the last ten years, and also in consideration of the fact of the high cost of living, that the salary of the Stated Clerk be $1,500.00, and that of the Permanent Clerk be $300.00 per annum, to date from the beginning of the fiscal year.

*According to the rules of the Assembly the Treasurer's accounts and vouchers had been carefully audited by the local committee appointed by the General Assembly for this purpose, and certified as correct on his account book which had been placed at the disposal of the Committee.

Respectfully submitted,

B. R. LACY, Chairman.

The Assembly re-appointed the following Auditing Committee on the Treasurer's accounts: H. E. Ravenel, E. S. Tennent, I. A. Phifer.

EXPENSES OF REPRESENTATIVES IN THE INTER-CHURCH MOVEMENT

The Standing Committee on Systematic Beneficence made a report as to how the expenses of members of the Inter-Church World Movement are to be met. The report was adopted, and is as follows:

In view of a telegram, received and read from a representative of the Inter-Church World Movement, and in view of the fact that the Movement is putting on a campaign in July for its own financing,

We would recommend that the Assembly's financial obligation be limited to paying the expenses of its appointees by which it is represented in the Inter-Church World Movement.

SABBATH AND FAMILY RELIGION

The Standing Committee on the Sabbath and Family Religion made the following report, which was adopted:

Your Committee respectfully submits the following report:

There have come into the hands of the Committee for consideration two matters—one the report of the Permanent Committee on the Sabbath and Family Religion, and an overture from Fayetteville Presbytery.

Your Committee has carefully considered the full report of the Permanent Committee on The Sabbath and Family Religion, and we have had also the benefit of the presence of Rev. I. Cochrane Hunt, D. D., representing the Lord's Day Alliance of the United States, and availed ourselves of the valuable suggestions that he has brought before the Committee.

Your Committee notes with concern the widespread desecration of the Sabbath, the general neglect of family worship, the failure of Christian parents to present their children for baptism, as indicated in the declining number of infant baptisms reported to the Assembly, and the neglect of home training in the Scriptures and Catechisms of the Church as brought to the attention of the Assembly by the Permanent Committee. All of these things are so fundamental to the permanence of our civilization and free institutions, and so essential to vital Godliness, and to the continued efficiency of the Church, that we deeply deplore their neglect.

However, your Committee is led to believe that there is something of encouragement to be found in the increasing number of homes that have re-established their family altar, inaugurating the practice of daily family prayers. We trust that this is but the beginning of better things in home religion and in Sabbath observance.

Your Committee notes with sorrow the death of Ruling Elder George C. Brazelton, a member of the Permanent Committee.

Your Committee would make the following recommendations:

(1) That our ministers be requested to preach on these important matters of the Sabbath and Family Religion at least once during the year, and the Sabbath preceding the meeting of the General Assembly be designated as especially appropriate for the presentation of the claim of the Christian Sabbath. And further, that Sunday Schools on that day be requested to give special consideration to the question of Sabbath observance, availing themselves of the program furnished by the Lord's Day Alliance of the United States.

(2) That Presbyteries be urged to take such steps as may be necessary in order to ascertain accurately, for themselves and for the benefit of the Assembly, the number of homes within their bounds in which family worship is observed.

(3) That, wherever Sunday School Institutes are held, those who are responsible for the programs be urged to set apart an hour in which to bring before parents the importance of home training and family worship.

(4) That the personnel of the Permanent Committee remain as it is at present constituted, Rev. Robt. Hill, D. D., Rev. C. T. Caldwell, D. D., Rev. A. F. Carr, D. D., and Mr. Frank E. Williams, instead of Mr. George C. Brazelton, deceased.

(5) That the Permanent Committee on The Sabbath and Family Religion be allowed a sum of money, not to exceed $300.00, for the prosecution of its important work.

(6) That this Assembly express its renewed approbation of the work of the Lord's Day Alliance of the United States, and its satisfaction at the avowed purpose of the Lord's Day Alliance to employ a special field representative for the Southern States. That the work of the Lord's Day Alliance be commended to the liberality of our people, with the hope that at some future time the Assembly may find it possible to give the Lord's Day Alliance a definite place in the Church's budget.

(7) The overture from Fayetteville Presbytery is as follows:

"The Presbytery of Fayetteville overtures the General Assembly to reconsider the third recommendation of the report of its Committee on the Sabbath, adopted at the New Orleans Assembly. The language seems very likely to lead many to the inference that the Assembly lends some degree of countenance to outdoor recreation, as boating, automobiling and driving during hours not occupied by public worship. We therefore further overture the Assembly to reconsider the above named recommendation and positively affirm anew our strict adherence to the standards prescribed for Sabbath observance in the Westminster Confession of Faith."

Attest: E. L. Siler, Stated Clerk.

Maxton, N. C., April 29, 1920.

In answer to this overture, your Committee recommends that the General Assembly reaffirm its loyal adherence to the time-honored standards of the Church, and that it affectionately remind our people that "the Sabbath is to be sanctified by a holy resting all that day, even from such worldly employments and recreations as are lawful on other days, and the spending of the whole time in the public and private exercises of God's worship, except so much as is to be taken up in the works of necessity and mercy."

Respectfully submitted,

R. F. KIRKPATRICK, Chairman.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

The Committee on Leave of Absence made the following report, which was approved:

The Committee on Leave of Absence respectfully submits this report to the Assembly:

The Committee recommends that Commissioners be excused from attendance on sessions of the Assembly as follows:

After Monday night session, John Stites.

After Tuesday night session, Frank Taylor.

After Wednesday morning session, Preston Charles and Jas. W. Gordon.

After Wednesday afternoon session, J. H. Owens, R. B. Boyce, and H. C. McAtee.

After Wednesday night, Mar Yosip, J. C. McLeod, C. M. Bailey, E. B. LeMaster, W. B. Y. Wilkie, J. R. Brooke, J. C. Erwin.

After Wednesday night's session, J. S. McKenzie, S. C. Bossinger, W. G. Creath, C. Delgado, M. L. Eaves, and R. L. Frazier.

After Thursday morning session, C. W. Woodson, Robt. McTeer, G. W. Blissett, K. H. Warren, Geo. H. Kuykendall, A. W. Morrison, Claude Little, S. W. McCown, W. A. Beckner, J. H. Kline, and J. J. McIntosh.

J. F. McKINNON, Chairman.

CHURCH OF THE PILGRIMS

The following resolution touching the Church of the Pilgrims, in Washington, D. C., was adopted:

Resolved, That this Assembly take out of the hands of the Executive Committee of Home Missions all matters relating to the Church of the Pilgrims in Washington City, and direct the Permanent Committee on Systematic Beneficence and Stewardship to raise as soon as possible $125,000 for this church.

The select committee to whom was referred the address of Rev. Isaac Yonan made the following report, which was adopted:

ARMENIANS

Whereas we have learned of Armenia devastated, crushed and ruined; her people enslaved and bleeding, wandering exiled in the desert; her children orphaned; Christian girls prisoners or slaves in Moslem harems; her ancestral territory seized by others; her homes in ruins; her hopes shattered, and her life imperiled;

And whereas America shares responsibility for carrying out the provisions made for the protection of the weaker nations, and for the reorganization of the world on the basis of justice and freedom;

And whereas the survivors of the massacres and deportations of 1915 have since that time been kept alive in large measure by the more than fifty millions of dollars contributed by American citizens and administered by more than five hundred American missionaries and relief workers, who heroically remained at their posts protecting this exiled remnant of the oldest Christian nation from extinction by starvation,

Be it resolved, That we petition the government of the United States, in the name of justice, of humanity, and of Christian civilization, to take such action as may be necessary to assist the Armenian people to live, establish order and achieve the economic regeneration of their country;

And be it further resolved, That we commend and endorse the efforts of the Near East Relief to secure from the American people such contributions as may be necessary to sustain this sorely stricken people until, with stable government established, they can be restored to their homes and to self-support.

RUSSELL CECIL, Chairman.

BILLS AND OVERTURES

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures was taken up. Overture No. 4 was taken from the docket. The report was adopted as a whole, and is as follows:

The Committee on Bills and Overtures respectfully submits to the Assembly the following partial report:

Overture No. 6 deals with the propriety of displaying the national flags in the church, of advertising church services in moving picture theatres, of the use of moving pictures, stereopticon slides, etc., at the mid-week meeting.

Your Committee recommends the following reply:

The Assembly repeats its previous deliverances regarding the necessity of preserving the purity and spirituality of its forms of worship.

But, inasmuch as the Book of Church Order provides that the session have control of the services in the particular church, we recommend that these questions be referred to the session as the court having original jurisdiction. We refer to the action of previous Assemblies suggesting that overtures to the Assembly come through the regular Church courts, recognizing the right of the individual to complain through these courts successively.

Overture No. 10 requests that the Assembly petition the President to designate the noon hour daily as a time of prayer. The Committee recommends the following:

In view of present world-wide unsettled conditions and the growing unrest and distress in our own land, the General Assembly recommends to all our churches that during the month of June our people at the noon hour unitedly join in a five minutes intercessory prayer that God will banish the evils that now threaten and give to us stability and peace, and that our Assembly request all other Christian bodies who are willing to do so to join us in this intercession.

Overture No. 100 requests the changing of the language of the Shorter Catechism No. 22. The Committee recommends that it be answered in the negative.

Overture No. 5 asks us to define the work of an evangelist and designate those eligible for evangelistic work. Your Committee recommends that in answer the Assembly refer the writer to the deliverances of the Assembly of 1881 as found in the Minutes of that year, and quoted in Alexander's Digest of 1910, page 145, paragraph 2.

Overture No. 4 requests the appointment of an Ad-Interim Committee to revise the entire Form of Government. We recommend that this be answered in the negative.

Overture No. 1, touching the addition of a chapter to the Book of Church Order, on the subject of Church Membership. We recommend that the Presbytery be referred to the actions of this Assembly touching an amendment to the Book of Church Order with reference to Church membership.

Overture No. 2 relates to the Church membership of deposed ministers. We recommend the following reply.

That the Assembly recommend to the Presbyteries that they advise and consent to the following amendment to the Rules of Discipline:

1. Add to Chapter XV the following paragraph:

"281. V. When a Presbytery shall divest a minister of his office without censure, or depose him without excommunication, it shall assign him to membership in some particular church, subject to the approval of the session of that church."

2. Strike out the clause, "and shall assign him to membership in some particular church" from paragraph 236 of the Rules of Discipline.

Overture No. 101 requests the Assembly to appeal to Christians throughout the world to co-operate in establishing compulsory settlement of international disputes. We recommend the following reply:

In response to the overture of Rev. C. W. Humphreys, D. D., we recommend that this Assembly, in line with previous deliverances, appeal to all Christians throughout the world, and especially those in our own country, to co-operate in securing the settlement of international disputes without a resort to war.

Overture No. 7 requests the transfer of the Church of Hicksville, Ga., from the Presbytery of Macon to the Presbytery of Central Alabama. We recommend that the Assembly direct such a transfer, the Synod of Snedecor Memorial concurring.

Overture No. 18, from Durant Presbytery, seeks, first, the withdrawal of our Church from the Federal Council of Churches; second, our withdrawal from the Inter-Church World Movement; third, that we decline further discussion of organic union. The Committee recommends the following answer:

We ask that the first item be referred to reply to the Committee on Foreign Correspondence. As to the second item, we refer Durant Presbytery to the action of this Assembly on the Inter-Church World Movement. As to the third item, we refer them to the action of this Assembly in adopting the report of Ad-Interim Committee on Closer Relations.

Overture from Rev. E. W. McCorkle, relating to the publication of a Biblical Encyclopedia in Chinese. We recommend that the overture be answered in the affirmative, and that the details of financing the work be referred to the Executive Committee of Foreign Missions, with the request that the work be completed as expeditiously as possible.

Overture No. 8, from the Presbytery of Greenbrier, relates to the proper course to be taken by a call for a pastor's services. We recommend that the following answer be made: The call for the pastoral services of a minister is to be presented to the Presbytery, through whose hands alone the minister may receive it; but as a matter of courtesy, and as information, a copy of the call may properly be sent to the minister.

Overtures No. 3, No. 94 and No. 95 relate to making the Assembly a continuous court. We recommend that these be answered in the negative.

Overture No. 96 relates to the licensure and ordination of ministers. We recommend that it be answered in the negative.

A paper has been received from Ruling Elder W. H. Mann asking, in the first part, that all committees, as far as practicable, be made up of an equal number of ruling elders and teaching elders; and in parts two and three, urging the use of elders in conducting religious services, etc. We recommend that part one be answered in the negative and parts two and three in the affirmative.

Respectfully submitted,

A. M. FRASER, Chairman.

AMENDMENTS

The select committee to tabulate the answers to the overtures sent down by the last Assembly made a report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee appointed to tabulate answers to overtures of the last Assembly sent down to the Presbyteries for their advice and consent beg leave to report as follows:

The overtures sent down were four in number, as follows:

No. 1—To Chapter V, Section IV, Paragraph VI, touching reception of candidates (Assembly Minutes, 1919, p. 51.)

No. 2—To (a) Paragraph 118 (III) touching licensure and ordination of ministers, Minutes 1919, p. 50; (b) Paragraph 129, touching licensure of probationers (Minutes 1919, p. 50).

No. 3—To (a) Chapter IV, Section III, concerning election of ruling elders for limited time of service (Minutes 1919, p. 52); (b) to Chapter IV, Section II, concerning election of deacons for limited term of service (Minutes 1919, p. 52).

No. 4—To Chapter V, Section VI, Paragraph II, concerning basis of representation in the Assembly (Minutes 1919, p. 51).

Of the 87 Presbyteries, 67 advised and consented to overture No. 1, 2 voting in the negative; 62 advised and consented to overture No. 2 (a), 8 voting in the negative; 59 advised and consented to No. 2 (b), 11 voting in the negative; 38 advised and consented to No. 3 (a and b), 34 voting in the negative; to overture No. 4, 35 advised and consented, while 32 voted in the negative.

Consequently, your Committee recommends that, since a majority of the 87 Presbyteries have advised and consented to overture No. 1, touching candidates, and to overture No. 2, concerning licensure and ordination, and withheld their consent to overtures Nos. 3 and 4, this Assembly do now enact overtures Nos. 1 and 2, which are as follows:

1. To complete the amendment enacted, the following: In Chapter IV, Section IV, Paragraph VI, immediately after the word "jurisdiction," insert the following: "To receive under its care candidates for the ministry."

2. Touching the licensure and ordination of ministers, as follows: (a) Paragraph 118 (III), strike out the word "Especially" in the first line. Add after the sentence requiring the sermon this provision, "Trials for ordination in the same Presbytery in which the candidate was licensed may be omitted when the examination for licensure has satisfied the Presbytery that he is ready for ordination." This change would make the amended paragraph read as follows: "Trials for ordination in a different Presbytery from that in which the candidate was licensed shall consist of a careful examination as to his acquaintance with experimental religion, as to his knowledge of philosophy, theology and ecclesiastical history, the Greek and Hebrew languages, and such other branches of learning as to the Presbytery shall appear requisite, and as to his knowledge of the doctrine of the sacraments and the principles and rules of the government and discipline of the Church. Or, in lieu of the examination in philosophy, ecclesiastical history, the Greek and Hebrew languages, it may accept certificates of approved institutions of learning. He shall further be required to preach a sermon before the Presbytery. Trials for ordination in the same Presbytery in which the candidate was licensed may be omitted when the examination for licensure has satisfied the Presbytery that he is ready for ordination, which ought, if practicable, to be in that church of which he is to be the pastor."

(b) Paragraph 129. 1. Add the word "ordinarily" to the first line, making the first line read, "Presbytery shall ordinarily license probationers," etc. Then, after the last word of the paragraph, the following: "But where there is a call to a definite work, and the Presbytery is satisfied by the examination for licensure that the candidate is ready and prepared for ordination, the licensure may be omitted." This change would make the amended paragraph read as follows: "Presbyteries shall ordinarily license probationers to preach the gospel in order that, after sufficiently trying their gifts and receiving from the Church a good report, they may, in due time, ordain them to the sacred office. But where there is a call for a definite work, and the Presbytery is satisfied by the examination for licensure that the candidate is ready and prepared for ordination, the licensure may be omitted."

W. S. RED, Chairman.

WAR WORK COUNCIL

The Committee on the War Work Council made the following report, which was adopted:

Your Select Committee to consider the report of the War Work Council finds that the Council has faithfully performed the duties entrusted to it by the last Assembly, and deserves the appreciation of the whole Church for its splendid services to our soldiers. We would, therefore, recommend as follows:

(1) That the six volumes containing the War Statistics of the Churches be presented to Union Theological Seminary, to be kept in the library of that institution and to be accessible for purposes of reference.

(2) That the present work for soldiers at Lawton, Okla., Washington, D. C., and Manchester and Southport, N. C., be continued for another year.

(3) That the cash balance be kept in bank until the above work is completed, and any balance after completion of the work of the soldiers be turned over to Protestant Relief in Europe.

(4) That an offering be taken on Reformation Sunday, October 31, 1920, for Protestant Relief in Europe, and that the churches be asked to contribute $75,000 on that day to complete our fund for this cause.

(5) That the name of the Committee be changed from War Work Council to the Committee on French and Belgian Relief, and that the following committee, appointed by this Assembly, shall be charged with carrying out the foregoing recommendations: Rev. Jas. I. Vance, D. D., Rev. T. S. McCallie, D. D., Rev. Wm. Crowe, D. D., Rev. Homer McMillan, D. D., and Ruling Elder Edwin F. Willis.

Respectfully submitted,

J. A. CHRISTIAN, Chairman.

COUNCIL REFORMED CHURCHES IN AMERICA

The Standing Committee on the Council of the Reformed Churches in America made a report. It was adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee on the Council of Reformed Churches in America begs leave to report as follows:

We have carefully read the minutes of the meeting of the Council of Reformed Churches in America, and find that the Council desires to call the attention of the Churches interested to two matters of special importance:

1. The Council asks our churches to consider the need of "increasing greatly and promptly the endowments of our Christian colleges, in order that competent Christian teachers may be retained, and that students may not be turned away because of excessive tuition charges." In calling the attention of our Assembly to this matter, the Council urges, as argument, that "government figures show that the cost of living has increased 82 per cent." Another set of government figures show that at the same time the average wage of the workers in eight leading industries has increased 95 per cent., but that the salaries of teachers in Presbyterian colleges have increased only 31 per cent., and to enable them to live they must be given increased compensation. Unless this is remedied they will be compelled to yield to strong pressure and go to other institutions where good teachers are sorely needed. It will not do to increase tuition charges, or we will shut out, or turn toward State schools, the very boys and girls we are seeking for the Christian vocations, and who need the training and inspiration of the Christian college. The only remedy for a situation which has become critical is a large increase in college endowments."

2. The Council asks our Assembly to send the following recommendation to our Presbyteries:

"That all Presbyteries take suitable action calling the attention of ministers and sessions to the marked tendency toward much closer co-operation among Churches of the Presbyterian type, and that they recommend to their congregations, especially to those located in cities, that, in all cases where a change of site is contemplated, conference be had with representatives of any adjacent church of the Presbyterian family, with a view to arranging, if possible, for such a combination and redistribution of forces as will provide accessible Churches and make for greater efficiency, instead of seeming competition, on the part of the Presbyterian organizations."

We find that it will be necessary for this Assembly to elect four representatives, with their alternates, to succeed those whose terms expire in 1920. We recommend the following for the three year term 1920-1923:

Principal	Alternate
Rev. Geo. Summey, D. D.....	Rev. Wm. Crowe, D. D.,
New Orleans, La.	Memphis, Tenn.
H. L. Moseley.....	Rev. Thos. C. Johnson, D. D.,
Weatherford, Texas	Richmond, Va.
Rev. A. W. Blackwood, D. D.....	Hon. A. M. Scales,
Columbia, S. C.	Greensboro, N. C.
J. B. Milligan.....	H. R. Todd,
Chattanooga, Tenn.	Birmingham, Ala.

And for the unexpired term of Rev. J. F. Cannon, D. D., of St. Louis, Mo., deceased, Rev. C. R. Nisbet, D. D., of Kansas City, Mo., Principal.

T. S. McCALLIE, Chairman.

The records of the Synods of Florida, South Carolina and Missouri were approved.

The records of the Synods of Kentucky and Louisiana did not come before the Assembly.

RELATIONS WITH THE AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY

The report of the Ad-Interim Committee on Relations with the American Bible Society was read, amended, and approved, except that in the last recommendation, touching an appropriation of $500 per annum, was amended, as follows: That the American Bible Society be requested to provide the Permanent Committee such funds as may be needed in prosecuting the work.

ASSESSMENTS

The Treasurer of the Assembly was instructed to pay the usual assessments of the Council of Reformed Churches in America, the Alliance of Presbyterian Churches in the World, and the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America.

PASTORAL LETTER

The following resolution was adopted concerning a pastoral letter offered by Rev. P. F. Price:

Resolved, That Rev. Dr. W. L. Lingle, the Moderator, and Rev. Dr. A. M. Fraser, Chairman of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, be instructed to prepare a pastoral letter to be read in the churches, explanatory of the request of the Assembly for special and united prayer during the month of June, and touching upon other acts of the Assembly which concern the spiritual interests of the Church at large.

P. F. PRICE.

DUTIES OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON SYSTEMATIC BENEFICENCE AND STEWARDSHIP

The 'Moderator announced the following Ad-Interim Committee to define the powers and duties of the Permanent Committee on Systematic Beneficence and Stewardship:

Rev. A. D. P. Gilmour, D. D.

Dr. W. J. Martin.

Rev. R. O. Flinn, D. D.

Rev. W. T. Thompson, D. D.

Elder E. B. LeMaster.

The Stated Clerk, at the request of the Moderator, presented a Testament and Psalms to 'each of the four pages who have served the Assembly so faithfully.

COMITY

The following paper was read by Rev. Geo. Summey, D. D., and adopted by the Assembly:

This General Assembly notes with regret, in the last moment of its sessions, that its fraternal communication to the General Assembly of 'the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, touching certain matters of comity, and re-submitting to that 'Assembly an unanswered communication of the Assembly of 1917, has as yet received no reply.

The minutes of today's sessions were read 'and approved.

The whole business of the Assembly being finished, and the vote being taken for dissolving the present Assembly, the Moderator said from the chair: "By viture of the authority delegated to me by the Church, let this General Assembly be dissolved, and I do hereby dissolve it, and require another General Assembly, chosen in the same manner, to meet in the Westminster Church, St. Louis, Mo., on the third Thursday, May 19, 1921, 11:00 a. m."

After this the General Assembly joined in singing "Blest Be the Tie That Binds." The Moderator led in prayer, and pronounced the Apostolic Benediction.

J. D. LESLIE, Permanent Clerk.

THOS. H. LAW, Stated Clerk.

For a detailed account of receipts and disbursements we refer you to the itemized statement of your Treasurer which is hereto appended and made a part of this report.

We have received during the year legacies from J. C. Burroughs and Jas. M. Davis. Also balance from Mrs. Harriett Redding estate and part of the Ellen M. Turnbull legacy and have disbursed these funds as directed by the donors.

We have not paid out the Martha F. Harwood legacy because of some doubt as to the intentions of the Testatrix. Your Trustees would respectfully ask you to instruct us as to its distribution. We hand you herewith a certified copy of the Will.

Replying to your inquiry as to investment of permanent funds, our policy is to lend all money coming to us for this fund, taking note and deed of trust on real estate located in Mecklenburg County at not more than 50% of actual value. All of this fund is now so invested except two $1,000.00 bonds specifically devised and which have not yet matured.

The terms of the following Trustees expire with this meeting of the Assembly: Dr. A. A. McGeachy, Geo. M. Rose, Jr., and Geo. E. Wilson. Your Trustees unanimously recommend the re-election of these gentlemen. Officers of the Board are Messrs. Geo. E. Wilson, President; Robt. A. Dunn, Vice-President, and Jno. R. Pharr, Secretary and Treasurer.

Respectfully submitted,

R. A. DUNN, Vice-President.

III. Report on Foreign Missions.

(ABSTRACT)

The total number of additions to the native churches reported from all our fields is 4,617. This is 874 less than the number reported last year. There was heavy loss in our Congo Mission. . .

AFRICA.

This year, as for several years past, this is our banner mission in the number of accessions. The number is smaller than for the past three years, however, partly because of the depletion of our working force by sickness and other causes, and partly because the mission has adopted a policy of more rigid requirement in the matter of qualification for baptism, and partly because of a devastating epidemic of influenza which prevented the holding of church services, and in which it is estimated that about 600,000 of the natives perished. Emphasis has been laid on work of an intensive rather than an extensive character. An encouraging number of our Church members are devoting their lives to Christian work and every effort is being made, both to increase the number, and to elevate the standard of preparation for our native ministry and other workers.

There has continued to be serious friction with the Roman Catholic priests in our territory, of whom large numbers, heavily subsidized by the government, have been sent out, and whose aggressive hostility and refusal to observe any rules of comity with our workers have been most conspicuous. The absence of an American Consul, since the retirement of Mr. McBride three years ago, has made it more difficult to deal with the situation. Our committee has made persistent effort to secure the appointment of a Consul, and has had the often-repeated promise that one would be sent out as soon as a suitable man could be found. So far, however, no appointment has been made. An unsuccessful effort was made to secure a personal interview with the King of the Belgians during his visit to this country, experience having shown that no sympathetic hearing of our grievances could be had by the present Belgian Minister at Washington. At the King's invitation, through his secretary, however, a representation in writing was made to him directly, to which an answer has been received through Dr. Henri Anet, our official representative in Belgium, the tenor of which leads us to hope that the matter complained of will at least in some measure be corrected.

A special fund is being raised by the women of the Church for building sanitary homes for all our African missionaries, the result of which we hope will be a great diminution of the losses we have been sustaining heretofore from premature health failures, making it necessary for the missionaries to return home, often before the end of their three years' term on the field.

In spite of hindrances and difficulties of many kinds, the work goes forward in such a way as to show that the abundant blessing of God is resting upon it.

Statistical Summary for 1919.—Population of our field, estimated, 1,810,000; foreign workers, 50; children of foreign workers, 26; native workers, 1,635; out-stations, places of regular meeting, 523; communicants, 19,206; additions in 1919, 1,737; Christian constituency, 35,962; Sabbath schools, 460; Sabbath school membership, 32,929; schools, 440; students, 17,484; income from native sources, $2,453.

LATIN-AMERICA.

Missionary work in Latin-America is being unified and promoted in many ways through the agency of the Committee of Co-operation, which is the Continuation Committee of the Panama Congress.

This committee, representing thirty mission boards, has been engaged for five years in making surveys of Latin-American countries, on which are to be based the strengthening of the work of individual boards, more equitable and businesslike distribution of forces and fields, the development of co-operative institutions and the publication of a Christian literature. . . .

BRAZIL.

The changed attitude of Brazil towards this country, growing out of the irenic policy of our government toward Latin-America in recent years still continues, lending emphasis to the importance of pushing our work in that field with greatly increased energy while this situation lasts. Unfortunately this is just what we have not been doing.

Our North Brazil Mission has been strengthened by the addition of three men with their families, only one of whom, however, was a new recruit. The other two were transferred from the East Brazil Mission. To supply their places in the East Brazil Mission one new missionary family and one single woman have been sent out, leaving that mission still short by one family of the force it had two years ago.

The West Brazil Mission has lost one man by death, the veteran Dr. J. Rockwell Smith, and one by failure of health, and has received no reinforcements during the year. Before these losses it was already four men short of what might be called a respectably adequate working force.

One of the most neglected mission fields in the world is that of Northern Brazil. Two-thirds of it is covered with virgin forests, through which wander native tribes, numbering several millions, who have never heard the name of Christ, and to reach whom no effort has yet been made. In the other one-third of the territory, including several large coast cities, and many interior towns with populations of from one to five thousand, and with a total population of about two millions, there are twenty-nine foreign missionaries, representing our Church, the Southern Baptists and the South American Evangelical Union. There are about thirty Brazilian pastors, of whom eleven have been trained in our school at Garanhuns, and are working in connection with our mission.

The attitude of the general public towards Protestantism has changed remarkably in recent years. . . .

Statistical Summary for 1919.—Population of our field, estimated, 4,036,000; foreign workers, 41; children of foreign workers, 32; native workers, 71; out-stations, places of regular meeting, 141; organized congregations, 36; communicants, 4,368; additions in 1919, 610; Christian constituency, 6,792; Sabbath schools, 53; Sabbath school membership, 2,607; schools 14; students, 716; income from native sources, $85,986.

CUBA.

The co-operative plans between our Committee and the Home Mission Board and the Woman's Board of the Northern Assembly are now in full operation, with results that amply justify the arrangement that in the beginning was entered upon with some trepidation. One result of it, mentioned by Rev. R. L. Wharton in his historical report, is that "Presbyterianism has been given a prestige such as it never enjoyed before in the island, and the possibility of working out plans for the whole field has given definiteness and effectiveness to the work."

Our special work is confined to the school at Cardenas, except that Dr. Wharton has general supervision of all Presbyterian educational work. The Cardenas school is being developed as rapidly as possible into a school of full college grade. At present there are eight parochial schools conducted under the care of the Woman's Board. The ideal is to have such a school in connection with every church.

The Cardenas school has a fine property, but greatly needs an additional dormitory building to accommodate the large number who wish to come, but cannot be accommodated in the present buildings. The total enrollment this year was over five hundred.

Cuba has been enjoying phenomenal financial prosperity resulting from the record-breaking sugar crop and the high price at which it is being sold. This has attracted several thousand American immigrants to Havana, besides a still larger number of transient visitors. The influence of this foreign element on our mission work, directly and indirectly, is very great, and this gives emphasis to the importance of the work that is being done by the Committee of the Annual Conference on Anglo-American Communities for this element in Havana. The effort is being made to raise a fund of a quarter of a million dollars to build a great union church and social center, and in this way to counteract in some measure the effect of the large undesirable addition to the Cuban population, resulting from our national prohibition law, and the shipping of a large part of the product of our distilleries and breweries to Havana. This work deserves our fullest sympathy and encouragement.

A neat and attractive monthly religious periodical, "El Heraldo Cristiano," is being published under the editorship of Rev. Ezequiel Torres, formerly connected with our mission, and has now the largest circulation of any religious periodical in the Island.

Statistical Summary for 1919.—Population of our field, estimated, 74,500; foreign workers, 11; children of foreign workers, 3; native workers, 17; out-stations, places of regular meeting, 3; organized congregations, 9; communicants, 834; additions in 1919, 57; Christian constituency, 1,192; Sabbath schools, 10; Sabbath school membership, 845; schools, 3; students, 522; income from native sources, $4,350.

MEXICO.

Rev. H. L. Ross and Rev. J. O. Shelby with their families are regularly at work in our new field in Mexico. Mr. Shelby is located at Morelia and Mr. Ross at Zitacuaro, both in the state of Michoacan. This is the greatest agricultural state in Mexico, and the climate of Morelia is said to be as near perfection as can be found anywhere in the world. The elevation of about 5,000 feet, combined with the sub-tropical latitude, produces a climate about as near the golden mean as can be imagined. It is somewhere in this region that we would like to reproduce the Graybill Memorial Industrial School, having turned over the plant of the school at Montemorelos to our brethren of the Southern Methodist Church, who will probably continue the work which we began there. While waiting for the favorable opportunity to begin this new work, Prof. Morrow, who will have it in charge, is giving his time to the development of an industrial feature in the Presbyterian College at Coyoacan...

No doubt things are happenings in different parts of Mexico that are exasperating. It is to be hoped, however, that some other solution of the problem than that of military intervention will be found possible. As a matter of fact, the Mexican problem cannot be solved by military intervention. We can send a half-million troops to occupy the country, and in the long run they would doubtless be able to run all the bandits back into their hiding places and keep them there while such occupation continued. When the time came, however, for our American army to return home, we should have the same old Mexico to deal with that we have now. If the Mexican problem is ever to be really and permanently solved it must be done by other means than that. It cannot be solved while 80 or 85 per cent. of the population remain illiterate, and while there are no effective agencies being employed to indoctrinate the people in Christian morality. In a word, the only solution of the Mexican problem is the missionary solution, and the reason why we so earnestly deprecate military intervention is that it will make the missionary solution impracticable by putting an end, for an indefinite period, to all our missionary work.

In order that we make even a respectable beginning towards the adequate occupation of our field, several new missionary families are needed at once. Also, owing to the unsanitary condition of the average Mexican home, a number of new missionary homes should be provided as soon as possible. Also, for the safeguarding of the health of our missionaries, as well as for the great help it would be in our missionary propaganda, at least two medical men should be added to our force. The probability is that, once on the field and properly equipped, the medical work would soon become self-supporting. . . .

Statistical Summary for 1919.—Population of our field, estimated, 2,125,000; foreign workers, 11; children of foreign workers, 9; native workers, 37; out-stations, places of regular meeting, 29; organized congregations, 25; communicants, 2,012; additions in 1919, 156; Christian constituency, 4,173; Sabbath schools, 22; Sabbath school membership, 1,571; schools, 11; students 143; income from native sources, $7,947.

CHINA.

China's transition from a monarchical to a republican form of government continues to be beset with difficulties, chief of which is the scarcity of political leaders of sufficient intelligence and honesty to deal successfully with the many difficult problems involved. The troubles have been increased by the frequent interference of the military with the civil powers. China is gradually developing a military establishment which at some future day will probably be able to protect her from foreign aggression. As yet the so-called armies, one representing the Conservative party, with headquarters at Peking, and the other the Radical party, with headquarters at Canton, have been chiefly occupied in trying to dominate the political situation and in securing the pay, which has not been provided by their respective governments, by pillaging the people.

The remedy for this deplorable situation will not be found in the triumph of one or another political faction, but only in the enlightenment of the masses of the people and the elevation of their moral standards. In any such process as this, religion must have a vital part, and in the few splendid Christian leaders that have been developed in the mission schools and colleges the demonstration has been given that for the successful adjustment of her political problems China's supreme need is Christian education.

Therefore, we hail with supreme satisfaction such movements as the enlargement and reorganization on a wider basis of inter-denominational co-operation, of the Peking Christian University, which has just been accomplished. This represents the union of the former Methodist University of Peking; the Union College at Tungchow, supported by the Northern Presbyterians, the Congregationalists, and the London Missionary Society; two theological schools in which the same bodies have been represented, and the Woman's Union College at Peking. Of this great institution our Dr. J. Leighton Stuart has been elected president, and for this purpose has been reluctantly released from his professorship in the Theological Seminary at Nanking by the directors of that institution and by our Mid-China Mission.

A campaign for $2,000,000 for buildings and equipment is being conducted in England, America and China under the leadership of the University Board of Trustees. . . .

In the same connection we also hail with hope and enthusiasm the effort of all the Churches represented in the Inter-Church World Movement to secure funds for the establishment and adequate equipment of all the Christian schools and colleges necessary to insure that the general education which China herself is planning to give to the masses of her people shall be saturated with Christian influences and the Christian spirit. . . .

The Presbyterian Church in China has become a regularly organized body, changing its name to the United Church of Christ in China, on account of the coming into it of some churches previously connected with the American Board Mission and the London Mission. It remains essentially Presbyterian in its form of government, and we are assured by those in whose wisdom and conservatism we have confidence that the doctrinal basis of the union is one that conserves the fundamental doctrines of the Gospel.

A notable incident of the year has been the discovery and introduction of the new "Chinese Phonetic Script," which promises to have a profound effect not only in solving the general problem of illiteracy, but also in enabling Chinese Christians of the illiterate class to obtain a knowledge of the Bible. The statement is made that in an incredibly short time any one can learn to read in this script. Two provincial governors have ordered its introduction in the normal schools. Over five million pages were printed in it in less than six months. A considerable part of the New Testament is being translated and printed. At Chefoo the Chinese cooks put phonetic symbols on their pies. The governor of Shansi is issuing a newspaper in this script. "The Chinese Church a Bible-reading Church within the next two years throughout China," is being adopted everywhere as the Christian slogan. . . .

Statistical Summary for 1919.—Population of field, estimated, 18,950,000; foreign workers, 151; children of foreign workers, 137; native workers, 617; out-stations, places of regular meeting, 225; organized congregations, 50; communicants, 6,419; additions in 1919, 1,445; Christian constituency, 13,323; Sabbath schools, 145; Sabbath school membership, 8,720; schools 179; students, 4,367; income from native sources, $112,163.

JAPAN.

The progress of liberal ideas in Japan, on which our missionary opportunity in both Japan and Korea so much depends, was evidenced by the overthrow of the Terauchi ministry and the coming into power of a ministry pledged to the substitution of civil for military government in Korea and to the removal of some of the educational and other restrictions that have so greatly handicapped our work in recent years. There has also been a growing recognition of the failure of an educational system from which religion is completely divorced to generate moral standards that make honest government and satisfactory social conditions possible. The Minister of Home Affairs recently called into conference the heads of local governments, requesting their support in an effort to strengthen the moral character of the people. To this conference he also invited religious leaders representing Shintoism, Buddhism and Christianity. He stated that he had come to feel deeply that more legislation and economic regulations were of no avail in elevating national character, and he begged the religious leaders to preach sermons that would awaken the conscience of the people and guide them at this critical period in the nation's life.

What we know, and this non-Christian official does not know, is that it is only Christian teaching that can meet this need.

How urgent and imperative, therefore, it is that we should heed the appeal of the various missions in Japan for such re-enforcement that will enable them, to extend their work without delay to all the unreached masses in the rural districts, comprising 80 per cent. of the population, and to provide educational institutions in which the children of Christians, as well as all others who will attend them, may find at least equal advantages to those they find in the government schools, and receive their training in a Christian atmosphere instead of in the atheistic atmosphere of the government schools. . . .

Statistical Summary for 1919.—Population of our field, estimated, 3,840,627; foreign workers, 48; children of foreign workers, 40; native workers, 137; out-stations, places of regular meeting, 53; organized congregations, 50; communicants, 3,885; additions in 1919, 244; Christian constituency, 5,217; Sabbath schools, 83; Sabbath school membership, 4,367; schools, 13; students 716; income from native sources $13,847.

CHOSEN (KOREA).

The fact that during the past ten years Japan has given to Korea good roads, improved methods of agriculture and many hygienic benefits has not reconciled the Koreans to the loss of independence, and to the many fundamental differences in racial characteristics and in their views of life as expressed in habits and social customs, seem to forbid the hope that they can ever live together in harmony under the same government. And the natural antagonism growing out of these causes has been accentuated by the fact that the chief beneficiary of the improvements introduced by Japan since the annexation has been, not the native Korean, but the Japanese immigrant, in Korea.

Hence the universal discontent and the attempted "passive resistance" revolution, followed by the drastic and merciless measures of repression which have constituted the environment in which the missions have had to carry on their work during the past year. The work has been hindered in many ways. In many villages church services have been suspended and missionary itineration has been greatly limited. While the Church, as such, took no part in the agitation, many Christians were in the fore-front of it, including men, women and children, with the result that early in the year nearly all the Church leaders were in prison, either on account of actual participation in the independence movement or on suspicion. The result of this, as described by a writer of the "Missionary Review" for February, was that "immediately the prison walls began to echo with singing and the cell became a house of prayer. The prison outside the west gate of Seoul became a great revival center. Many who entered in darkness came our believers in Christ."

On the other hand, these very facts cause the Japanese authorities to look upon the Christian propaganda as being connected with the independence movement, and have led to restrictive measures of various kinds, and what amounts to a system of espionage that greatly increases the difficulty of our work. . . .

In these days when the strain upon our missionaries is greater than ever before, it is especially incumbent upon the home Church to keep up the force of workers agreed upon in the years past as necessary for the maintenance of the work. Although there was a full complement of these workers upon the field a few years ago, today there are many vacancies (our net loss has been fourteen in five years), and the mission is asking that these losses be supplied by new workers at the earliest possible day.

Statistical Summary for 1919.—Population of our field, estimated, 2,635,000; foreign workers, 72; children of foreign workers, 64; native workers, 288; out-stations, places of regular meeting, 346; organized congregations, 61; communicants, 7,073; additions in 1919, 368; Christian constituency, 13,341; Sabbath schools, 241; Sabbath school membership, 9,046; schools, 79; students 1,864; income from native sources, about, $63,971.

General Totals for 1919.—Population of our fields, estimated, 33,471,127; foreign workers, 384; children of foreign workers, 311; native workers, 2,802; out-stations, places of regular meeting, 1,320; organized congregations, 241; communicants, 43,797; additions in 1919, 4,617; Christian constituency, 80,000; Sabbath schools, 1,014; Sabbath school membership, 60,085; schools, 739; students, 26,117; income from native sources, $290,717.

Financial Statement.—The cost of the work for the year April 1, 1919, to March 31, 1920, was $1,095,241.33, while the income out of which these expenses are met was $1,115,345.50. No other year since April 1, 1913, have the receipts for the regular work been as much as the cost of the work, but on the other hand there has been a regularly increasing deficit. This year the regular receipts were $20,104.17 more than the cost as shown by the books March 31, 1920.

The deficit on March 31, 1919, was $216,657.19. Through adjustment of mission accounts, principally in China, and return to us of $2,415 appropriated and paid by us on the Progressive Program Campaign of 1918-19, it was reduced to $184,726.24. Applying $20,104.17 leaves the net deficit on March 31, 1920, $164,622.07.

IV. Report on Home Missions

(ABSTRACT)

The Executive Committee of Home Missions hereby submits the Annual Report of its operations for the past year, which in financial receipts, in material equipment, in missionary activities, and in spiritual results has transcended any period of our Church life.

THE WORLD SITUATION

In their discourses Christ and the Apostles spoke repeatedly of "the world to come," which in our interpretations should not always be associated with the popular thought of the future life, as this expression sometimes signifies A New Dispensation. In the latter sense it had its initial fulfilment in the transition from the Jewish to the Christian Era. Possibly it is having another fulfilment in a present transition into a New Era in the world's history, which will eventually lift the Church to a higher plane of Christian life and privileges. Every birth, physical or spiritual, individual or national, is attended with the agony of travail. The agony of the world war is ended, which was possibly but the first symptoms of the birth-throes through which suffering humanity struggles in the transition into a higher life with its new environments. Never in the history of the world has there been such an age of sorrow and pain, which, however, may be only a prelude to that which is coming in other forms—economic, social and religious.

Economic and Social Problems.—These two overlap and are indissolubly joined in their spheres of influence. They act and react on each other, which results often in mutual depression and a disturbance of stable conditions. Every nation on earth is in the grip of their mighty force. Political revolutions shake the stability not simply of governments, but the underlying foundations of society itself. Famine and pestilence following in the wake of national convulsions have aggravated the situation by their horrors. Anarchistic Orders and lawless influences are assailing established institutions of law and order and propagating the destructive principles of Bolshevism, having as their avowed purpose the overturning of the Government and substituting in its stead chaos and unrestrained crime. As a consequence there has come "upon earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring; men's hearts failing them for fear."

Religious Conditions.—The Church itself is suffering the effects of the general depression, and the loss sustained is manifest not simply in the relaxed tone of its spiritual life, but in actual decrease of membership in some large denominations, as revealed by statistics.

As illustrations of specific losses, one large denomination reports a net decrease in membership during twelve months of 55,000, and another a net loss of 28,000. While it is a cause of gratification that our own Church sustained no actual loss, it is nevertheless significant that its net increase was only 1,708, the smallest in all our history. If in the business world men periodically take stock of their holdings, why should not the Church inquire into her spiritual status? The distressing situation ascertained will have its compensation, if it serves to throw the Church back on God in sincere confession and importunate intercession, which may possibly result in the greatest turning to God in all the history of the Church.

Home Missions, the Fundamental Factor.—This diagnosis of conditions is essential to any correct and adequate treatment of spiritual symptoms. Unquestionably, Home Missions vitally influences the life of the Church; and the Church undeniably shapes the destiny of mankind. Is it any wonder O. G. Dale affirms: "The outcome of Home Missions in America in the next twenty-five years will determine the destiny of American Protestantism and the nation itself." The Gospel of the Son of God is the only remedy for the world's ills. Everything else has signally failed in the world crisis. The vaunted civilization of this age of advanced thought and scientific achievement utterly failed in the acid test of virility. Education was equally futile to stay the oncoming cataclysm. Christendom itself, but thinly veneered with the outward forms of Christianity, staggered under the shock of the awful impact of evil. The harsh criticisms hitherto directed against the Church are melting away and mankind turns again to the Church as its only hope of salvation. Now is the psychological moment for accentuating anew Home Missions as the vitalizing force of enlisting the entire membership in its fundamental task of saving America and for arousing the Church to new energy in a church-wide spirit of evangelistic effort.

ASSEMBLY'S HOME MISSIONS

Its Distinctive Character.—"Line upon line and precept upon precept," has scarcely served to educate the Church into a comprehensive understanding of the various functions of its Home Mission agencies. The confusion of mind between Local Home Missions, as conducted by the individual Presbytery or self-supporting Synod in their respective bounds, and as distinguished from Assembly's Home Missions, is the source of much damage to the cause. Lack of appreciation inevitably leads to lack of interest. The obligation upon each strong Presbytery or Synod to sustain its own work and meet its own destitutions is self-evident. There are, however, weak Presbyteries utterly unable to sustain their dependent churches, and there are destitute classes unequally distributed throughout our bounds whose needs cannot be borne by any one Presbytery or Synod. This situation calls for the combined strength of the whole in a common service, which necessitates the Agency of Assembly's Home Missions to function for the entire Church. It is therefore the balance wheel whereby are equalized the weak and the strong in a joint ministration to human need in our bounds.

The distinctive work assigned to Assembly's Home Missions is sustentation in weak Presbyteries, evangelizing the Frontier, ministering to Foreigners among us, the Indians, the Mountaineers and the Negroes. As these classes are more in evidence in certain sections than in others, this is the explanation of the fact that Assembly's Home Missions cannot function equally in all parts of the Church, but must operate chiefly where these dependent classes are most numerous. They who demand that Assembly's Home Missions expend its funds in their section or Synod are unmindful of the distinctive work assigned to this Agency by the Assembly, and are confusing it with Local Home Missions which pertains to Presbyteries or Synods.

In addition to its peculiar mission of ministering to the needy classes, Assembly's Home Missions is also the Agency which sounds the evangelistic note throughout the whole Church, and which seeks to stimulate the Church in its distinctive mission of soul winning. By its publicity department it conducts likewise a campaign of promotion, in which benefit it participates not alone, but which furnishes missionary fuel for kindling the whole Church into a flame of missionary enthusiasm for humanity.

HOME MISSION OBJECTIVES

For some years the Executive Committee of Home Missions has iterated and reiterated its unswerving purpose to continue its educational campaign, having as its ultimate aim two great objectives. One was an increase in salaries of its missionaries to a living wage; and the other is an adequate equipment for the mission stations. The Committee has been handicapped in attaining these aims by reason of insufficient funds. The receipts for many years past have been barely sufficient to maintain the work on the present circumscribed basis.

Increased Salaries.—Due largely to the Progressive Program and unusual legacies for several years in succession, the Committee has at last partially attained its objective for increased salaries. For two years it has gradually raised salaries, and had not the high cost of living exceeded our increase the missionaries would have been at least comfortable. Bradstreet and Dun estimate that $1,000 will purchase only $437 at prices compared with four years ago. Others estimate the increased cost at 82%. In eight great industries wages have increased 95%; presidents of colleges and professors' salaries have increased 31%; but the ministry has received only 20% increase. Compared with the high cost of living, this means in reality progression downward. As speedily as the Church supplies the means the Committee will continue its pursuit of its worthy objective.

Adequate Equipment.—This second objective comes within the range of our vision as a possibility this year for the first time. Appeals for special funds for material equipment have met with partial response and several legacies for buildings have quite recently become available. These, added to small funds which have been slowly accumulating and the fortunate sale of several pieces of real estate, have made it possible to make appropriations for buildings aggregating over $100,000. In most instances the plans have been made and either the contracts let, or else laborers engaged to do the work under our own supervision where we estimate we can save money by employing day labor.

The larger part of this equipment, however, is for dormitories and schools in the mountains, and in some cases far from railroads. The difficulty of securing material in the mountains and the lack of transportation have to a certain extent halted our progress. The contracts and estimates somewhat exceed the resources in hand for the purpose. By the time this report is laid before the Assembly our funds now on hand for meeting these bills will be perhaps exhausted, but we are proceeding on the assumption and faith that these unfinished buildings will be completed and all costs paid in time for the fall sessions of our missionary institutions.

THE SCOPE OF THE WORK

The gradual enlargement of our sphere of service and the combination of other agencies with Assembly's Home Missions entail upon the Executive Committee a responsibility for conducting eight departments of work. Each has a distinctive purpose and an importance of its own, evident from the fact that in some denominations five separate Boards coincide with and carry on the work assigned to our one Executive Agency.

1. By Departments.—The magnitude of the cause is apparent from the simple enumeration of its separate departments:

Evangelistic.—The employment of Evangelists—Pastoral, Presbyterial, Synodical and General, for reaching the vast unsaved masses.

Sustentation.—The support of pastors in weaker Presbyteries or Missionary Synods.

Church Erection.—The financial aid by donation or loan to assist feeble churches in securing houses of worship.

The Frontier.—For church extension in destitute sections, but chiefly in the West.

Mountain Work.—For reaching the largest neglected class on the continent.

Foreign Speaking.—For Christianizing the fourteen millions of New Americans, including the half million Mexicans in Texas, as well as the oldest Americans, commonly known as Indians.

Colored Evangelization.—For ministering to the eleven millions of Negroes, the vast majority being within our bounds.

Mission Schools.—For the Christian education of the neglected children and the training of a native leadership as a spiritual force for community centers.

2. By States or Synods.—The unequal distribution of the needy and the ability of some Synods to sustain their own work necessarily call for larger assistance in some sections than in others; but, as a matter of fact, there is not a Synod in the whole Church but is receiving some financial assistance from several departments of Assembly's Home Missions, as will be manifest from the following exhibit:

Alabama—Sustentation, Foreign Speaking, Negro.

Arkansas—Sustentation, Mountain, Evangelistic, Mission Schools.

Florida—Sustentation, Foreign Speaking, Negro.

Georgia—Sustentation, Mountain, Foreign Speaking, Mission Schools, Negro.

Kentucky—Sustentation, Mountain, Evangelistic, Mission Schools.

Louisiana—Sustentation, Foreign Speaking, Negro Church Erection.

Mississippi—Evangelistic, Mission Schools, Negro Church Erection.

Missouri—Foreign Speaking, Church Erection, Negro.

North Carolina—Sustentation, Evangelistic, Mountain, Mission Schools, Negro.

Oklahoma—Sustentation, Evangelistic, Foreign Speaking, Frontier, Church Erection, Mission Schools.

South Carolina—Evangelistic, Church Erection, Negro.

Tennessee—Sustentation, Mountain, Church Erection, Mission Schools, Negro.

Texas—Sustentation, Frontier, Evangelistic, Foreign Speaking, Mission Schools, Church Erection.

Virginia—Sustentation, Evangelistic, Mountain, Foreign Speaking, Negro.

West Virginia—Sustentation, Evangelistic, Mountain, Foreign Speaking.

3. By Budget of Needs.—Surveys made revealing need and applications from various Home Mission Committees for appropriations reveal larger responsibilities than the Executive Committee can well meet, but the following is a digest of details, enumerated in totals, as the result of investigations on the field after thorough sifting in our office, and is not therefore intended as a full exhibit of askings but a conservative estimate making provision for a small increase in salaries, partial equipment of our most important institutions and a limited advance work by way of enlargement:

Evangelistic.	$ 25,000
Sustentation.	68,000
Church Erection	70,000
Frontier.	30,000
Mountain.	53,400
Foreign Speaking and Equipment.....	80,400
Colored and Equipment.....	80,400
Mission Schools and Equipment.....	100,900
Indians and Equipment.....	116,200
Jewish Mission	15,000
Woman's Auxiliary and Campaign Committee....	15,700
Administration and Publicity.....	28,000
Total	<hr/> $683,000

4. By Recruits Needed.—One of the great embarrassments of the Home Mission Committee in the past has been the lack of funds to maintain its enlarging work, but now that the Progressive Campaign is beginning to relieve that difficulty, we are finding ourselves somewhat handicapped by a scarcity of thoroughly trained workers for the various demands from the field. Including wives of missionaries, our force numbers over 700.

5. By Survey of Results.—The following statistics showing the activities of the year and the results are necessarily imperfect by reason of incompleteness. The most strenuous effort but emphasizes the impossibility of the task of securing full returns. Incomplete as is the table, yet it serves a valuable purpose in giving a survey of operations. The real results are known only to God and will be fully revealed only in eternity.

SUMMARY.

Funds Raised.—$407,643.28 from churches, societies, Sabbath Schools and individuals for the various phases of Assembly's Home Missions, while promoting other branches of service, whose receipts did not come into our Treasury.

Supported (in whole or in part).—764 missionaries, including their wives, on the frontier, in the mountains, among the Negroes, foreigners and other dependent and exceptional classes.

Nationalities Served.—10—Mexicans, Cubans, French, Italians, Bohemians, Hungarians, Poles, Syrians, Chinese and Indians.

Colored Aided.—37 ordained ministers, serving 59 churches and missions with 2,106 members and a constituency of 5,000.

Mountain Workers.—243, including evangelists, pastors, teachers, Bible women, conducting 845 Sabbath-schools, with 3,797 scholars and 3,571 services at 72 preaching points, making 6,489 pastoral calls, collecting $851 in tuition and $4,129 in voluntary offerings, and reaching with the gospel message 75,000 people of the mountains.

Mission Schools Conducted.—47 for dependent classes taught by 125 teachers with 2,500 scholars, having an equipment of 2,000 acres of land and 100 buildings, valued at $400,000 and whose current expenses amount to $75,000.

Institutions Maintained.—Theological Seminary for colored ministers at Tuscaloosa, Alabama; College for Indians at Durant, Oklahoma; school for Negroes at Abbeville, South Carolina; and a hospital and an orphanage in connection with Highland School at Guerrant, Kentucky, and at Banner Elk, North Carolina.

Evangelism.—Supported 15 evangelists and aided as many others, and held 161 evangelistic meetings.

Sustained in Whole.—Two entire Presbyteries conducted in foreign languages, Indian Presbytery in Oklahoma with 34 missionaries, 20 churches, and 600 communicants, and Texas-Mexican Presbytery with 10 missionaries, 23 churches, and 1,300 communicants, and the Snedecor Memorial Synod for colored people.

Totals (Estimated in Part).—42,700 sermons preached by our missionaries, 25,000 pastoral visits, churches and stations supplied which raised $99,137 for self-support and contributed $78,575 to the benevolences of the church, received 5,767 on profession of faith and instructed 50,000 people each Sabbath of the year.

After this general and somewhat comprehensive review of the whole field, it becomes incumbent to examine in closer detail the various departments of our Home Mission operations.

EVANGELISTIC.

Our Program.—Immediately after the meeting of the last Assembly a definite Evangelistic Program was adopted providing for an evangelistic campaign under the auspices of the Presbyteries in which an effort was to be made to enlist definitely each congregation. The program in detail was set forth in a leaflet issued by the Sub-Committee and each Presbytery was asked to adopt this program and make suitable arrangements for carrying it out. This request elicited a very gratifying response from a large majority of the Presbyteries, indicating their willingness to fall in line with these plans.

Evangelistic Staff.—In the development of the Church's evangelistic program, we have secured the services of a very efficient staff of evangelists, who have labored diligently and effectively throughout the year. For convenience, these Evangelists have been divided into three types:

1. General Evangelists, who labor under the auspices of the Committee and report to it, but who are responsible for their own appointments and support.

Rev. J. E. Thacker, D.D., Rev. Geo. W. Belk, D.D., and Rev. Trigg A. M. Thomas, D.D., have continued their work as Evangelists of this type; and Rev. F. E. Fincher, D.D., was added to this number. All of these brethren have labored with conspicuous success and God's manifest blessing has attended their services.

2. Regional Evangelists, who labor under the immediate direction of this Committee, usually in a designated territory, and for whose support the Committee is wholly responsible. In arranging the appointment of such Evangelists, the Department requires the payment of the expenses of travel one way, entertainment of the Evangelist during a meeting and a voluntary offering for Assembly's Home Missions to be credited to the Evangelistic Department; but, ordinarily, no such salaried Evangelist is assigned to a given section until arrangements have been made with the Presbyterial Committees of Home Missions, or the Evangelistic Committee, in that territory for the effective use of the Evangelist's time.

Rev. R. A. Brown has continued to labor as Regional Evangelist in Arkansas and Oklahoma. During the year we have secured the services of Rev. J. McD. Lacy and he has been devoting his efforts to those sections where there have been urgent calls for his services. Rev. R. M. Hall, D.D., accepted the call of the Committee to become Regional Evangelist for the Synod of Texas and began his labors October 1.

3. Volunteer Evangelists, pastors who have given evidence of possessing special evangelistic gifts and who agree to hold one or more meetings each year under the direction of the Committee and as a part of its work. More than eighty such pastors have volunteered for service in this way, and many of them have been engaged in evangelistic meetings during the year with happy results.

Evangelistic Goal.—The Assembly's Committee on Beneficence and Stewardship has adopted as one of the objectives of the Four Million Campaign an evangelistic goal of 50,000 additions to the Church on profession of faith during the ecclesiastical year, beginning April 1, 1920. This Committee very heartily approves that goal and has sent out an earnest appeal to all the Presbyteries urging them to lay adequate plans for a church-wide campaign of evangelism to extend throughout the year, looking definitely to achieving their great objective.

Summary of Results from Our Evangelistic Department.—170 meetings; 1,818 sermons; 3,060 added to Church on profession of faith; 702 added to Church by letter; 10 conferences on Evangelism; 20 decisions to study for the ministry; $3,902 in offerings reported by Regional Evangelists.

SUSTENTATION.

This Department is based on a universal principle operative alike in the natural, the business and in the spiritual world. Every child brought into the world is dependent on others for sustaining its natural life during the period of development. In the business world investments must be backed by further outlay of funds until the enterprise passes the crisis of trial. There can be no exception to the law in the spiritual sphere. Ordinarily churches grow gradually from infancy to full development and must have strong supporting arms upholding them during their weakness. In many instances by the law of compensation they in turn repay with interest the investment, and like the banyan tree furnish support to other growing offshoots from the parent body. In other cases the weakling never attains manhood's strength by reason of giving its life blood to others as its membership is depleted by removals to build up other communities.

Sustentation is thus the chief method by which Assembly's Home Missions function in weak Presbyteries, acting as the common agency for the whole Church, enabling the stronger Presbyteries to extend helping hands to the weaker. A large part of its Home Missions funds must be devoted to this worthy purpose. Results are not so apparent as in Evangelistic efforts where large ingatherings can be counted, but without such sustentation aid these ingatherings will be scattered, the evangelistic effort dissipated and the financial investment lost. Shifting populations account for the fact that strong churches sometimes find themselves reduced again to the necessity of securing aid from sustentation funds, just as the aged minister occasionally becomes dependent on Ministerial Relief funds. So gradually and so generally have these changing centers affected the life of the Church, that our Sustentation Department extends the benefit of its beneficent influences to practically every Synod of the Church.

THE FRONTIER.

The Department of the Frontier expands constantly into ever widening areas with new significance at each revolution of the kaleidoscope of changing conditions. The term now includes three separate types. There is still the frontier of the West, to which must be added the frontier of rural life and the frontier of the overcrowded city in the suburbs as well as in the slum districts.

The Western Frontier.—Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, Texas and New Mexico, instead of being fully occupied, are constantly opening new areas of need and of opportunity as the advance of population, of railroads and of new business enterprises develops new sections of recently unoccupied territory. Like the proverbial "poor always with us," the Home Mission needs are equally ever appealing. It is an illustration of "changing the place and keeping the pain."

The Western frontier once consisted chiefly of new towns and community centers peopled by our emigrating sons and daughters who must be cared for by their spiritual mother. Then came the opening up of great cattle ranches for agricultural purposes, the introduction of "dry farming" and the building of great irrigation plants, which quadrupled land values and multiplied enormously populations. Now the oil fields are duplicating on still larger scale the needs and opportunities. Some town in Texas (Ranger, for example) will be transformed over night from a village of 500 to a city of 20,000 with no accommodations for the incoming tides except tents and no provision whatever for their spiritual interests. In such environments human nature degenerates, vice abounds and the Church is helpless by reason of lack of men and means to handle the situation. The Church as a denomination is too occupied with local problems everywhere and too far removed from these exciting scenes of business adventure and of moral conflicts to understand and appreciate the situation. It is a repetition of lost opportunities: "As thy servant was busy here and there, it was gone"; while these appealing fields of need might justly take up the lamentation: "The harvest is past, the summer is ended and we are not saved."

The Rural Life Frontier.—The Supervisor of the United States Census for 1910 drew the line of demarkation between urban and rural population at places having 2,500 or under, as country. This arbitrary standard consigned 53% for the whole United States to the country, while the ratio for the South was 75%. In the surveys made by the Interchurch World Movement the standard population for the city was fixed at 5,000. Everything else is designated as rural, which very slightly affects the relative proportions for city and country. But for this change in the standard, the surveys would have revealed a majority of population as urban, owing to the ever increasing drift of the tide to the city. If the open country and villages with populations less than 1,000 were counted as rural it would consign an overwhelming majority to town and city.

Due to shifting population, increasing tenancy, changing economic conditions, an absentee ministry, lack of leadership and wretched equipment, many country churches are declining in membership and multitudes are abandoned and dying. Many stand idle through most of the year, with a spasmodic effort annually to save the day by a revival of an emotional type. Surveys indicate that one denomination with 17,000 country churches has 12,000 which have not services for full time. In another denomination nine-tenths of its rural churches are served by absentee pastors. One town of 2,000 people has had only an occasional service in ten years. One village of 400 people had never seen a minister in the fifteen years of existence. Seventeen counties in central and far Western States are reported as without any churches. Twenty-five thousand men, women and children in one industrial area in a central Southwestern State are without any religious supervision. These facts reveal an ever-increasing religious frontier in the rural life of the Nation.

The Urban Frontier.—If decreasing population or its changing types create the frontier in rural Christendom, it is just the opposite cause which affects the city. Over-crowding in the cities furnishes opportunity for great masses to hide themselves in the midst of their growing numbers. Labor Unions and Fraternal Orders minister to their social nature and become substitutes for the church. Cities become the hotbed of disaffection, the seething cauldron of conglomerate anarchistic and socialistic principles that ferment and foam under the very shadow of the church, which, alas, is not efficiently organized nor sufficiently equipped to meet this irreligious propaganda. The church works practically one day in the week. Evil forces are working day and night. Solitude on mountain height or in the trackless desert is not so effective in isolating a soul as the enveloping masses of a crowd. This creates the frontier problem of the city. It is more difficult than any other type and well-nigh the despair of the Christian Statesman.

While the country furnishes the moral fiber of the Nation, which rejuvenates the city, yet it is the city which is the determining factor of national life. "As goes the city so goes the Nation." Will the time ever be when the Kingdom of God shall come in such power and influence as to make "the great white ways" of our cities the "highways" of holiness and their slums the breeding places of righteousness, while the city itself becomes a more appropriate symbol of "the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God." "A city which hath foundations whose builder and maker is God."

MOUNTAIN WORK.

In extent the mountain section stretches from Pennsylvania to Georgia and occupies the largest area of any portion of our Atlantic slope. In population it outnumbers any other neglected class in our bounds. In type it presents the problems of isolation, of illiteracy and of irreligion. In occupation its inhabitants live largely by fishing, hunting and farming on such small scale as to confine their products to vegetables, fruits and corn only in sufficient quantities for their frugal meals. In characteristics its people are generous hearted, though somewhat suspicious of strangers, excitable in temper, leading often to deadly feuds handed down from father to son through succeeding generations, proud of their physical prowess and of their family traditions. Contrary to misrepresentation, they are not degenerates but have good red blood in their veins, and if given a chance and their manhood is awakened, they compete successfully with any class for attainments in the sphere of education or in the realm of business. The poverty of their lands has made them dependent on a native spiritual leadership of a voluntary character, that has taught them to despise and distrust a paid ministry and bound them in the shallows of a circumscribed life and religious experience.

The Home Mission operations of our Church for them began only a few years ago on a small scale, but under the marvelous guidance of divine Providence it has developed into an extended work which is reaching now thousands of children in mission schools, by which means the confidence and good will of their fathers have been won and many of them brought into the fold of our Church. Whole communities have been transformed and the field has unlimited possibilities, as the work of occupying and possessing the Mountains for Christ is only just begun.

FOREIGN SPEAKING.

Until the world war reduced the incoming tides of immigrants to the United States, the annual number was one million, while those returning were nearly one-half as many. Due, however, to the call of their fatherland in the dire extremity of the conflict at least a million returned to their native countries. They went as Missionaries from the United States—not commissioned and sent out at our expense but inevitably to reflect the judgments formed by our attitude toward them and by our institutions as they impressed them. Several of our own foreign-speaking churches were depleted by this reflex movement much to our loss, but we are thankful for the impact of the Gospel on their life and character through our Home Mission agencies.

It is the increasing custom now to speak of them as "New Americans," which will have a tendency to increase our respect for them and impress us with the obligation to give them Christian Americanization. The difficulty of assimilating them into our national life and giving them Protestant Christianity grows out of their tendency to segregate themselves in our congested cities as colonies. Statistics show that 72% settle in our cities. In New York the increase in population during the first decade of the twentieth century for Russians, Italians and Austro-Hungarians was greater in each case than in the native population. Still another difficulty grows out of the difference between a type of religion which was gorgeously ritualistic and politico-national, re-enforced by magnificent Cathedrals, in contrast with the severe spiritual type of Protestantism, more especially when they are invited to shabby mission rooms on a back street. In one of our own Missions those who had been accustomed to pictures on the walls as aids to their devotion saw in our Protestant Church only a clock, which some of the congregation watched occasionally, and it was ludicrous but somewhat natural that they went out and reported that Protestants worshipped a clock!

If we are to win them to a better type we must recognize that the little "Missions" in our great cities must be supplemented by personal effort, and that there must be a more general enlistment of people with sympathetic attitude to assist in moulding sentiment in favor of more cordial relationships between racial groups, to interpret for them America's goals and to encourage them to alienate themselves from their former National aims and practices that they may be attracted to American ideals.

The Home Mission Committee is serving ten nationalities and conducting "foreign missions" in nine of our seventeen Synods, including two whole Presbyteries—the Texas-Mexican and Indian.

INDIANS.

The Department of Foreign-Speaking Peoples includes both extremes, the New Americans just arriving and the Indians who are the original Americans. The latter are found in every State in the Union, from Oklahoma leading with 119,108, to Delaware with five. Their total number is 336,243, distributed into more than 150 tribes on 147 reservations. From 1870 to 1900 they declined in number, which gave rise to the report that they were a vanishing race, but since 1900 have increased considerably.

Hon. Cato Sells, Commissioner of Indian Affairs, in his Annual Report states: "In my judgment the controlling factor in granting citizenship to Indians should not be based upon their ownership of lands, tribal or in severally, in trust or in fee, but upon the fact that they are real Americans and are of right entitled to such citizenship."

Ten thousand Indians joined the Colors and rendered good service during the war, and they subscribed for $25,000,000 Liberty Bonds. During the past three years 10,956 have been adjudged competent and worthy and given the rights of American citizenship.

According to partial returns, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs reports 594 Indian churches, with 402 Protestant and 222 Catholic Missionaries working among them. There are 43,346 Protestant and 57,898 Catholic church-going Indians. The Home Missions Council reports 25 Protestant Mission Schools, with an annual expenditure of $330,000 for their maintenance by the various Home Mission agencies. Notwithstanding all the efforts and expenditures of the churches for their evangelization, there are still 46,000 Pagan Indians on various reservations.

The Inter-Church World Movement and the Home Missions Council have each heartily approved denominational co-operation in the support of a great Missionary Training School for Indians at Wichita, Kansas, which is centrally located for reaching the largest number of the many reservations in the West. Henry Roe Cloud, an Indian and a graduate of Yale University, conceived the idea and has already partially succeeded in securing the necessary equipment, and the institution is now in operation and gives promise of enlarging usefulness.

At the organization of our Church sixty years ago the first missionary obligation it assumed was for Negroes and Indians. Work for the latter was denominated Foreign Missions, and so regarded until 1899, when it was transferred to the Home Mission Department. Literally thousands have been brought into the fold through its Missions; and Indian Presbytery still exists for the purpose of ministering to their spiritual needs and is composed of white missionaries and Choctaw pastors co-operating with mutual confidence and esteem.

In addition to our evangelistic work by missionaries and pastors, the Mission School has been the most potent factor in moulding character and training leadership for Indian communities.

Goodland Indian School and Orphanage is the oldest Indian institution of the Presbyterian Church and has influenced hundreds for Christ and the Church. It is no longer under the jurisdiction of our Home Mission Committee but was transferred several years ago to a local Board of Control and has an equipment in buildings and land easily worth $25,000. It is most cordially commended to the liberality of generous friends of Christian and Indian education.

"The school is crowded to its utmost capacity. We have room for 80 pupils, but so many begged to come they were taken in until 90 boys and girls were in attendance, while numbers had to be denied admission. Over half of the children attending are 'New Born' Indians; they came after the rolls were closed, have no part nor parcel in any Indian lands only what comes to them by inheritance, and often that has been dissipated without much benefit to the child. We have the real full-blooded Indian children here. The isolated, neglected ones are sought after and given instruction in all lines that will make good Christian men and women out of them. The children are taking much interest in their Bible and Catchism study. On the second Sabbath in February Mr. Hotchkin was with us. We had the joy of seeing him receive 22 of our boys and girls into the Church, three of whom were baptized.

The Oklahoma Presbyterian College is the only high grade Junior College for Women, not co-educational, in the State. It is the greatest missionary institution and evangelizing agency combined owned and operated by our Church. President W. B. Morrison and wife, Rev. E. Hotchkin and others have rendered a sacrificial service to the Church in connection with it which can never be estimated. They deserve the grateful recognition and should receive the highest endorsement of the whole Church.

The following report of President Morrison shows that it has reached high-water mark of attendance and is embarrassed by its own success:

"Enrolled during the present session in the various departments of the school 222 students, which is 50% larger than any other enrollment in the history of the institution. We filled every available space in both our dormitories (even using the parlor of Hotchkin Hall as a bedroom), and then were compelled to place most of our teachers and some students in homes near the College. While there are some students dropping out occasionally, there have always been others, even up to this late date, ready to step into their places in nearly every case.

"Since our last report was made a very successful series of special services was held among the girls before the close of last session by Rev. E. Hotchkin, resulting in 24 professions or reclamations among them. We feel that this school offers one of the best evangelizing agencies our Church has in Oklahoma, because girls and young women from every section of the country are reached."

The General Assembly in Session at Durant, Oklahoma, in 1918 was so impressed with the magnificent work done by this institution and the great missionary opportunity confronting the Church through its evangelistic agency, that it most heartily endorsed a campaign for raising $100,000 for its better equipment by the erection of another dormitory to accommodate the students crowding its rooms. The Assembly meeting in New Orleans one year later repeated this endorsement and called upon the whole Church to respond to its worthy appeal and thus double its capacity and quadruple its usefulness.

The campaign has been begun, but owing to innumerable difficulties has not yet accomplished its end. The town of Durant and the Synod of Oklahoma have undertaken a campaign for $30,000, which is most generous considering the strength of our Church in that State. They promise that their part shall not fail. Notwithstanding the many demands upon the Church for worthy objects, there can be none of greater promise to our Church anywhere, and it must meet its share of equipping this great institution for the sake of its past sacrifice and service and in the interest of our fundamental Home Mission objective.

COLORED WORK.

The Negro population of the United States is eleven millions—which means one in every ten—and is still increasing, though not as rapidly as the whites. In two Southern States, South Carolina and Mississippi, they are in the majority; in Georgia, Florida and Alabama they equal nearly one-half of the population. Thirteen Southern States report each more than 200,000; eight of these have more than 600,000; and several nearly a million. These thirteen Southern States contain six-sevenths of the Negroes of the United States. In exactly one-fifth of all the counties of sixteen Southern States the Negro is in the majority. Heretofore the Negro question has been almost exclusively a Southern problem.

The Department of Labor reports that "recent extraordinary occurrences—the war in Europe, with the consequent shortage of labor in the North, the ravages of the boll weevil and flood conditions in the South—have set on foot a general movement of Negroes northward that is affecting the whole South." In addition to these conditions it is said other causes influencing this exodus from the South are: Low wages, better educational facilities, unsanitary housing, lynching and the propaganda of labor agencies. It has served to introduce the Negro problem into the North in a most acute form, and the whole country holds its breath in anticipation of some terrible widespread outbreak resulting in massacres of the most shocking nature.

Can a democracy successfully deal with race problems? Autocracy armed with unlimited authority and backed by militarism may curb the prejudices and passions of men, but democracy with its insistent demands for the largest personal liberty has a more difficult task, especially when Socialism cultivates the contradictory principles—of eschewing class antagonisms and intensifying them at the same time. Amicable adjustment of race relations and the cultivation of goodwill between them is the acid test of Christianity. The Gospel of "goodwill toward men" announced by the Angels at the Nativity, promulgated by the teachings of Christ and professed by the Church in all ages, should manifest itself in consistent practice. Would it not be well for churches and individual Christians to promote a campaign for practicing more cordial relations between the races? Can a superior race successfully evangelize another unless it does more than "preach to it"?

Colored Evangelization.—From the very beginning of the Southern Presbyterian Church as a separate denomination, it has felt its responsibility to the Negro. In 1863 the General Assembly made the following statement: "The foreign mission problem is here reversed. Instead of having to send missionaries to the heathen, the heathen are brought to us, thus affording the opportunity of doing a foreign mission work on a gigantic scale, and under the most favorable auspices, a work altogether unique and which the Church in any other part of the world might well covet. The Lord hath set before us an open door; let us not fail to enter it."

In 1865 the Assembly "Resolved, That the abolition of slavery by the civil and military power has not altered the relation * * * in which our Church stands to the colored people, nor in any degree lessened the debt of love and service which we owe them."

Our present work for the Negro, however, may be said to have been begun in 1876 by Dr. Charles A. Stillman, who presented to the General Assembly an overture from the Session of the Gainesville, Alabama, Church, of which he was then pastor, urging the establishment of a school for the training of colored ministers. The result was the founding of Tuscaloosa Institute, at Tuscaloosa, Alabama, where Dr. Stillman had gone and where he served as Superintendent of the School and as pastor of the First Church for almost twenty years. Upon his death in 1895 the name was changed to Stillman Institute.

Stillman Institute, Rev. R. K. Timmons, President.—"The Institute has sustained a great loss in the removal of Rev. and Mrs. N. W. Kuykendall. After six years of faithful and efficient service Mr. Kuykendall felt that the Master would have him return to the pastorate. It was with much regret and many prayers that the faculty, students, and friends of the work told them good-bye. Mr. Kuykendall's place was taken by Mr. W. F. Osburn and his splendid family. In addition to being a thoroughly consecrated Presbyterian elder filled with the missionary spirit, he seems peculiarly fitted for this peculiar work. Prior to coming to Stillman Mr. Osburn had had eight years experience in State High School work and two years experience as County Farm

Demonstrator; and, most important of all, he has a genuinely sympathetic and sensible interest in the colored people.

"Our new residence has been erected at a cost of $5,000. Homes are now provided for the three teachers who give all of their time to the work. One dormitory has been painted and both have been kalsomined and refurnished throughout. These improvements cost $2,000.

"Curriculum.—Another year's work has been added to the Normal department, thus giving five years instead of four in the academic school. This was made possible for the present by the generous gift of $5,000 from Miss M. H. Conkey. Most of the graduates of last year and several students of former years are here taking this advanced work. The Theological School as heretofore offers a three-year course in the ordinary English courses of a Theological Seminary. The Bible, however, is given first place throughout the eight years work. The standard of Stillman Institute ought to be raised from year to year until it can offer in all the departments undertaken as advanced and as thorough courses as are offered by any school for colored men.

"Farm.—Sixty acres of good land adjoining the present property have been purchased at a cost of $9,000. There are now 110 acres in the Institute property. Five acres are used for campus, twenty pasture, and all of the rest is under cultivation. Half of the new property lies within and half outside the city limits of Tuscaloosa. A business man remarked a short time ago that within a few years we would have a fortune in this property.

"Preachers' Bible Conference.—The Sixth Annual Conference for colored preachers was held May 24-30. Almost all of our colored preachers attended, and at the night meeting in Salem Presbyterian Church the speakers were greeted by a full house. This Conference is a great thing in the life of these preachers. Not only do they enjoy a week of Christian fellowship, study and instruction from outstanding white and colored leaders, but they are themselves given a place on the program according to their several abilities and are encouraged to take part in all the open discussions.

"The Conference for Colored Women.—This Conference, which is always conducted by Mrs. W. C. Winsborough, came in September. It was a most remarkable gathering. There were 75 delegates from 55 towns in 11 states representing seven denominations. They were gathered all the way from Virginia to Texas and Missouri to Florida. The majority of these delegates were Presbyterian, which had not been the case heretofore. The score of white and colored instructors came from an equally wide territory. A most splendid program had been planned and was thoroughly executed. This Conference is an index of our own women's interest in the colored people, the intense desire of the leading colored women for religious instruction, and last, but not least, of Mrs. Winsborough's remarkable ability both to plan and execute.

"The kind of work that Stillman Institute has always done is very much needed today and God seems to be blessing every effort put forth."

Rev. W. A. Young, Evangelist.—An advance step was taken a few years ago when Rev. W. A. Young was elected Evangelist to the Colored Churches. He endeavors to visit all the Churches at least once a year, and conducts many meetings. He is an earnest speaker, a fine evangelist, and a man of good, sound judgment and splendid spirit. His last report shows that he assisted in special services in quite a number of the Colored Churches, and a good number were added to the Churches in these meetings. The most important evangelistic series of services was conducted in Richmond, Virginia, at the Colored Mission on Seventeenth Street, which resulted in a great spiritual quickening and in the conversion of many souls.

Institutional Work, Social Service and Sabbath-schools Conducted by White Workers.—A realm of unlimited usefulness entered by white people in behalf of their colored brethren is along Social Service lines. In Sabbath-schools for Negro children it presents the finest opportunity to do genuine missionary work of the neediest character. In Domestic Science and the useful arts it trains them for higher and more efficient spheres of service; and every such kindly ministration in their behalf manifests the goodwill of their white brethren and is calculated to win their confidence and cultivate the most cordial relations between the races. The following are illustrations of work of the most outstanding character in this sphere:

Louisville, Kentucky.—The greatest of all institutional work for Negroes is at Louisville. Its founder and superintendent, Rev. John Little, is a Southern Presbyterian minister, who, of an old Tuscaloosa family, acquired at that center of interest his burning desire to help the colored people. The Church connected with the Louisville work belongs to Louisville Presbytery, as does its pastor, Rev. W. H. Sheppard, one of the distinguished graduates of Stillman Institute. However, the Louisville work is a union work, supported jointly by the Presbyterians of Louisville, the U. S. and U. S. A., German Reformed and Associate Reformed Presbyterian Churches. Sewing classes, carpentry classes, shoe-making, cooking and canning, Daily Vacation Bible Schools, baths, dispensaries, clinics—it would be hard to mention any phase of practical, helpful endeavor which is not being carried on here, in addition to the regular Sunday-school and Church services. This work is conceded to be the best of its kind in this country and it is the model after which other denominations and other cities build their work.

Atlanta, Georgia.—The work in Atlanta was started about twenty years ago, as a Mission of the Central Presbyterian Church. The Sunday-school was taught by white teachers. Last year it was decided to enlarge the work. Central Church provided the equipment, the Presbytery and the Assembly's Committee and the Atlanta Churches furnish the money, and the workers. Rev. Graham F. Campbell, a Union Seminary graduate, is Superintendent. Kindergarten, Boys' Club, Sewing Classes and Mothers' Club are the week day activities; Sunday-school, preaching services and Christian Endeavor on Sunday. The work is reaching now something over two hundred children in the Sunday-school, and at least as many through the week.

Richmond, Virginia.—The work at Richmond is of more recent origin. It was started about eight years ago, as a Mission Sunday-school, superintended by a student of Union Theological Seminary. Probably Mr. Murray Grey had more to do with its start and success than any one person. Since the establishment of the Assembly's Training School, the young ladies of that institution have helped very materially in the work. Mr. J. E. Hobson is the present superintendent.

This Mission is located in one of the worst Negro slums of Richmond, and is doing a great deal to change the character of the community. The police give it credit for breaking up one of the worst gangs of Negro boys in the city.

Snedecor Memorial Synod is composed of four Presbyteries, 34 ministers, 47 churches, 1,076 Sabbath-school scholars, with total contributions of $4,959. These totals apply only to the Presbyteries connected with this Synod. The membership, contributions, etc., of the other Churches are included in reports of the white Presbyteries where their membership belongs. The Synod meets annually at Tuscaloosa, Alabama, in Stillman Institute. The Presbyteries are represented in the General Assembly on the same basis as those in any other Synod of the Church.

Industrial and Christian School for Negro Girls.—For several years the Home Mission Committee has had under consideration the establishment and conducting of a Missionary Institution for Negro Girls. The need has been fully recognized, and it has been a reproach brought against our Church that it has not entered the field of Christian education for colored girls. Plans made in the past have been interrupted and important and needful changes made. Now at last it would seem that our hopes are on the eve of being realized. Arrangements are now being made with a larger objective, and we confidently expect at the next General Assembly to report an institution in full operation for the accomplishment of its worthy aims.

CHURCH ERECTION.

An architect said to a churchman: "Our effort is to materialize the spiritual; the aim of the Church is to spiritualize the material." The Department of Erection combines and promotes both ideals. It materializes the spiritual by expressing in wood and stone certain ideals; and the temple of worship becomes a visible embodiment of invisible truth. It spiritualizes the material by converting it into a dwelling place of the most High God, who though He "dwelleth not in temples made with hands," yet accepts such as symbols of His presence and makes the house of God a means of communion with His Spiritual worshippers and a center of influence for Christianizing a community. The house of God is a silent witness to an invisible presence. It challenges the attention of the community, gives the organization the reasonable guarantee of permanency and constitutes a common rallying place for the religious life of the people.

Donations and Loans.—The Executive Committee encourages building by means of donations and loans, and sometimes by both. Many a weak organization would have died except for the exercise of its religious activities in the effort to build, which was stimulated by this promised assistance from the church erection funds. The scarcity of funds for the purpose greatly handicapped building projects in the past, but the time is come for greatly enlarging this sphere of service. The cost of building material has quadrupled in price, and the government practically stopped all Church erection enterprises during the war by monopolizing the services of laborers. In addition to this our rural churches, once content with a plain, one-room house, are feeling the thrill of modern life and are becoming more up-to-date in their equipment and methods. City missions must now be adequately equipped or else go out of business. All these influences are a distinct challenge to our Church to meet these imperative demands or halt its advance movements as a spiritual factor for bringing in the Kingdom.

Building Funds.—The Moore Fund has promoted dozens of Church enterprises and increased its capital from $5,000 to $7,000. The Manse Fund has rendered similar service and grown from $4,200 to $12,000. It has been ten years since the Church undertook to raise $100,000 as a Semi-Centennial Fund to commemorate the first half century of its organized life. The effort was interrupted by the world war, but has now secured more than half of the amount in cash, pledges and memorials. It should complete the task this current year.

Memorials and Annuities.—Many have established Memorials ranging from $500 to $1,000—in honor of loved ones—a perpetual monument, honoring alike to God and themselves, which are ever circulating by building and returning for the same laudable purpose. Others have increased our building fund in the form of Annuities, which serve a double purpose of giving the annuitant an income during life and assisting churches at the same time in securing houses of worship, where the preaching of the Word is transforming character into the image of our blessed Lord. May the good work multiply and increase!

JEWISH MISSIONS.

The conscience of many Christians is very much exercised as to the religious status of our Jewish friends, but the subject presents the most perplexing problem now embarrassing the Church as to methods of approaching these "lost sheep of the house of Israel." Special "Missions," both denominational and undenominational, have hitherto failed of practical results. It has been impossible to secure men peculiarly qualified to approach them. The subject is one for earnest prayer, profound thought and wise planning.

Dr. A. W. Anthony, Executive Secretary of the Home Missions Council, urges that "The Christian Churches of America should undertake to establish friendly relations with the somewhat more than three million Jews of our land," stating as the result of his investigation that, "Out of a population of more than one and a half million Jews in New York City, between eighty and ninety per cent. have lost all vital connection with the Synagogue."

A leading Jewish Rabbi states: "We Jews have given religion to the world, but have little ourselves. We gave God to the world, but we have little of God in our own hearts. The Jews are not studying their own Bible; other people are studying it. Our tremendous indifference is our worst ailment. We are troubled with agnostic atheism, materialism, and Christian Science." Rev. Henry L. Hellyer, a Christian Jew, of the Presbyterian Church U. S. A., gives a most distressing account of their religious condition: "The Jews in this country especially—they number now about 3,000,000—are drifting rapidly away from the faith of their fathers and are either becoming anarchistic socialists, or worse still, moral degenerates. Some are hungering for the Truth, for something that will enable them to live cleaner lives, but there does not seem to be a helping hand to show them the true way. The need has never been greater, and the opportunity never more urgent. Will the Church heed the cry?"

For more than a year our Home Mission Committee has been corresponding with the Home Mission Board of the Presbyterian Church U. S. A., as to the feasibility of conducting a joint Jewish Mission in the City of Baltimore. The details of the arrangement are now being worked out, and we expect in the near future to have this work in full operation.

At the same time we urge the Church not to be satisfied with this meager effort to evangelize these brethren of our Lord Jesus. A Conference, called by the Executive Committee of Home Missions, held in Montreat, North Carolina, during the past summer, of representatives of all the Synods of our Church had submitted to them the problem of approaching the Jew, and they unanimously adopted the following resolution:

"That the best service to the Jew for the present can be rendered by individual effort to reach individual Jews for the Kingdom."

We most heartily commend this to the ministry of our entire Church and lay it on their hearts and consciences as perhaps the only adequate solution of the problem.

PUBLICITY AND PROMOTION.

The large hope of Assembly's Home Missions arresting the attention, widening the vision and firing the heart of the whole Church must be realized through the agency of a campaign of education imparting information to the rank and file of the Church. The commendable increased support of the work in the past few years is due to the circulation of Home Mission literature more extensively and the Presbyterian Progressive Program, co-operating in disseminating such needed information.

In their public addresses the Secretaries and other representatives of the Home Mission Office have presented the Cause before Church Courts, Missionary Societies and individual congregations at every opportunity consistent with other engagements. Communications and articles in the Missionary Survey and the Soul Winner, as well as Home Mission pamphlets and attractive Lessons for the Sabbath Schools, have carried their missionary and educational messages far and wide and are yielding fruit as the result of this awakened interest.

The Home Mission Study, entitled "Christianizing Christendom," was extensively used and most enthusiastically received, judging from the commendations which have been pouring into the office during the past few months. The Presbyterian Committee of Publication reports that it broke all previous records in its circulation. Although they had anticipated a large sale and issued 7,000 copies, the supply was exhausted in the midst of the study period, and it became necessary to reprint the whole book, using a working force by day and another by night. Its sale still continues, and competent judges are predicting that it is destined to have a tremendous influence in developing the Home Mission activities and in stimulating the life of the Church.

The Home Missions Council, composed of 37 Home Mission Boards and Agencies, representing 27 denominations in the United States and Canada, meets annually and is a valuable clearing house for the exchange of thoughts and plans for presenting the great task of making our country God's country.

The goodly fellowship of brethren engaged in the same fundamental task for mutual sympathy and advice is most valuable in stimulating each other and in Christian co-operation having the laudable purpose of eliminating friction and preventing waste of forces in overlapping work.

Home Mission Week promoted by it has met a long felt want in furnishing the Protestant denominations an opportunity of combined and inspirational nation-wide effort in advertising the needs of our own country and in challenging Protestantism to possess this Continent for Christ.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT.

The total receipts for the year amounted to $407,643.28, which was an increase over the previous year of $104,256.31, the largest in the history of the work. The most gratifying feature is the fact that it was an advance on all lines—from Churches, Societies, Sabbath Schools and Miscellaneous.

Unusual legacies and a more intelligent and comprehensive understanding of the needs of the Cause have at last partially furnished the means to answer the cry which rings all through the accounts from the field as recorded in this Annual Report. It does not enable us to meet all the appeals for equipment, but does permit us to erect some of the most important. Unfortunately the embargo on buildings by the government during the war put the whole country behind with its building projects, and this embarrasses us in the effort to secure laborers. In addition to this consideration, the scarcity of building material and lack of transportation for delivering it in the mountains forces a still further delay, but the plans are made and we will push the work with all possible speed. It will enable our workers to render more efficient service, conserve results and more than double the usefulness of our Missionary Institutions.

The profound thanks of the Home Mission Committee are hereby tendered the generous givers throughout the whole Church. It gives us encouragement to hope that "having begun this good work," their "liberality will abound yet more and more," till the Macedonian cry for help from the midst of our own people is fully answered, and our expanding Home Mission Work is adequately equipped from mountain to seaboard and from Western plains to the furthest recesses of our most needy fields.

S. L. MORRIS, Executive Secretary.

V. Report on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief

(ABSTRACT)

With gratitude to God for His blessing upon the work of Christian Education and Ministerial Relief, the Executive Committee presents to the General Assembly in session at Charlotte, North Carolina, this report of its work for the year ending March 31, 1920.

With deep sorrow and a growing appreciation of the Church's loss we recount the death of Rev. Thompson McDonald Hawes, D. D., on August 29, 1919. When the former Committees were consolidated and moved to Louisville Dr. Hawes was made a member of the new Committee. He was a devoted, faithful and helpful member until God called him home.

Financial Statement.—The receipts for all departments of the work of Christian Education and Ministerial Relief to March 31, 1920, were $283,371.13 as against $214,803.48 the previous year, an increase of $68,567.65. This is an increase of $44,474.27 in the receipts for the general funds and of $24,093.38 for the Endowment Fund. Life Annuity Funds to the amount of $8,436.05 were received, a decrease of $1,763.95 from last year.

I. EDUCATION FOR THE MINISTRY AND MISSION SERVICE.

Appreciating the great need for a large increase in the number of capable, consecrated ministers and missionaries the Executive Committee has conducted the most extensive survey they have ever attempted to locate the choice boys and girls of the Church, and to help them find God's plan for their lives. Many pastors and sessions, parents and teachers, and women and young people's societies have rendered invaluable assistance in this work.

We are convinced that no less than two thousand boys and girls and young men and young women should be in the various stages of preparation for this work right now in our schools, colleges, training schools and theological seminaries.

A Life Work Secretary.—The Executive Committee is rejoiced that they were able to secure the services of Rev. Edward E. Lane as Life Work Secretary. Mr. Lane is visiting the schools, colleges, universities, normal schools and churches to present the claims of the ministry and to confer with the students about their life work. He will also assist in many conferences during the summer months.

Prayer and Earnest Efforts.—Hundreds of pages of the best literature on life service have been printed and placed in the hands of the youth of the Church. This is being sent free to any of the boys and girls of our Church whose names and addresses are forwarded to the office.

Earnest, importunate, believing prayer that God may look upon this great need in Zion and honor all our churches and homes by calling the choicest of our boys and girls to this happy work should ascend from all our hearts.

Candidates Aided.—Applications for loans from the funds of Education for the Ministry and Mission Service to the number of 174 were received and granted by the Executive Committee. The sum of $18,638.50 was remitted to them. Of the 174 who received aid, 149 are Candidates for the Ministry, four are Volunteers for Medical Mission Service, and twenty-one are young women preparing for various forms of Mission Service.

II. MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

Only those who have shared the direct responsibility of ministering to the physical needs of the faithful veterans, the sick or wounded, and the needy widows and orphans of our deceased ministers can fully understand the joy that has come to the hearts of your Committee in the administration of its work this year.

The Roll.—There were on the rolls of Ministerial Relief this year 106 ministers, 161 widows and 25 afflicted orphans. In these 292 homes are 96 little fatherless children under fourteen years of age. Of these 46 are not yet ten years old. We sent to these homes in the past year $83,022.00, an increase of $15,573.00 over the previous year.

Age and Service.—The 106 ministers have reached the average age of 71 years, and have served Christ and our Church 3,364 years. The 186 deceased ministers whose families are on the rolls served for 4,799 years.

The Honorary Retired Roll.—When a minister reaches the age of 70 years and has spent as much as 30 years in the service of the Presbyterian Church in the United States he may be placed by his Presbytery on "The Honorably Retired Roll." No further application for the funds of Ministerial Relief need be made for him as long as he remains with us.

We have now on this roll 48 faithful ministers. Their presence is a benediction. Their prayers are bringing untold blessings to other lives and to the Church.

Average Assistance Provided.—The average annuity forwarded to the 48 ministers on The Roll of Honorably Retired Ministers was $422.33.

The average amount forwarded the 58 other ministers was $326.74.

The average amount sent each of the 106 ministers was $370.03.

The average amount to 161 widows was $251.15.

The average amount to the 25 orphans was $134.55.

The average amount to the 292 families on the roll was $284.32 per annum.

Promotions During the Year.—From April 1, 1919, to March 31, 1920, 14 ministers and 6 widows have been called to their eternal reward. The roll is constantly changing.

Scarcely any of the ministers come on the roll until their eyes have grown dim or their natural strength has abated. Your Committee would record its joy in being, in a sense, the instrument through whom the Church reveals its gratitude for the faithful service of such unselfish, uncomplaining, consecrated men of God. The Church is grateful to them. This record reminds us that they will not be with us long. What we do for them must be done quickly.

III. THE ENDOWMENT FUND.

There was added to the Endowment Fund of Ministerial Relief during the year $51,426.27. We have now in this Fund $623,548.78 safely invested. We also have $31,546.05 in "Life Annuity Funds," on which annuities are paid to donors during their life.

In January Mr. C. E. Graham made an offer to the Committee of $200,000 on condition that the whole Church add $400,000 to the Endowment Fund by December, 1920. A short time before, he had purchased from the receiver of the United States Court, the Heard National Bank Building, at Jacksonville, Florida, intending to use it as a foundation for "The Graham Trust Fund" from which his benefactions might be continued into the future. At that time he offered to turn the building over to the Executive Committee for $700,000 on which he promised to pay the $200,000 on the condition mentioned above.

The name was changed to "The Graham Building." It is ideally located in the business and financial center of the rapidly growing city of Jacksonville. It is a modern, fourteen story, fireproof, office building of steel, concrete, stone, brick and marble construction. It was built nine years ago at a cost of more than $900,000, with bank fixtures, and could scarcely be replaced today for less than $1,500,000. After deducting the cost of ground rent, insurance, taxes, repairs and operating expenses the building is yielding more than 6 per cent on $1,000,000.

Many of the foremost business men of our Church have made a careful investigation of this investment and commend it without reservation and urge that the money to secure it be raised at once.

On April 1, 1920, we had secured $33,923.78 on the $400,000, pledges for more than $10,000, besides our offer from another Elder to pay the last $25,000 of the $400,000.

The Endowment Fund should be greatly increased. Were we to seek a Fund equal to the average amount (per minister) sought by the Congregational, Disciples, Methodist, Episcopal and Presbyterian, U. S. A. Churches, our goal should be $2,356,900.

IV. SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES.

All of the educational institutions of the Church are in need of larger funds for buildings, equipment and endowments. It is specially urgent that larger salaries be provided for our teachers. For years these faithful, gifted men and women have been greatly underpaid. Many of them might have secured twice as much salary in secular schools and universities, but they have gladly sacrificed material gain for high, spiritual service. The great increase in the cost of living now renders it impossible for them to continue in the work unless their salaries are increased. The fact that there is such a demand for teachers, and that the state and large independent institutions are making adequate provision to meet this need, renders it increasingly hard for our institutions to secure the number and quality of teachers needed.

The Field Work.—After finishing the work in the Synod of Missouri which resulted in adding more than $700,000 to the resources of Westminster College, Secretary M. E. Melvin and his efficient team of consecrated workers went to the Synod of North Carolina. The work there was completed the last of February and resulted in the addition of more than $1,000,000 to the funds of the schools and colleges of that Synod, including Union Theological Seminary in Richmond, Va.

Future Plans.—We are arranging to greatly enlarge the work of publicity and literature for our Schools and Colleges. These institutions must be saved to the Church and to the cause of Christianity, and they must be better equipped, enlarged and endowed.

The field force is now at work in the Synods of South Carolina and Appalachia. Engagements have been made to enter others as soon as these tasks are completed.

V. THE STUDENT LOAN FUND.

The total amount of the Student Loan Fund is now $112,456.82.

The total number of students receiving loans during the year is 84, of whom 51 are boys, and 33 are girls.

Total number of students securing loans since the founding of "The Student Loan Fund" is 265; of these 149 are boys, and 116 are girls.

We are putting forth every effort to complete "The Three-Year Program" adopted by the General Assembly, which will increase this fund to $250,000.

No other investments hold forth larger promise than these which are in the lives of our boys and girls of approved character and ability who will soon take our places of leadership.

Many churches, Sunday schools, societies and individuals are finding in the Student Loan Fund an opportunity to perpetuate the memory of loved ones and those who have rendered special service to the Church or the Nation.

"Memorial Scholarships" of $400 or more are held in "The Student Loan Fund" and reported in our Annual Reports. "Monuments in Living Leaders" will prove more enduring and abounding than those of granite or bronze. We publish in the appendix of this report a list of the scholarships. Several others have been received since our books were closed on April 2, 1920.

Students in State Institutions of Learning.—The Committee now have in course of publication a clear and comprehensive statement of the opportunity of the Church in ministering to its youth in state colleges, universities and normal schools.

As one out of every six or eight of these students comes from a Presbyterian home, and are being prepared for future leadership, their spiritual nature should greatly concern the Church. As the students are gathered from all parts of the State within which the institutions are located it is clearly a matter that concerns the entire Synod. At every one of the institutions there should be a well equipped Church and a suitable pastor who may minister to the students.

The Salaries of Our Ministers.—There are 1,956 ministers in the Church. Of these 1,386 are pastors in the home land.

Of these pastors 776 serve 1 church, 319 serve 2 churches, 176 serve 3 churches, 71 serve 4 churches, 34 serve 5 churches, 6 serve 6 churches, 3 serve 7 churches, 1 serves 9 churches and 1 serves 12 churches. The 1,386 pastors serve 2,474 churches, leaving 973 churches without pastors.

We find the average salary received, including rent of manse, and all funds received from Presbyterial, Synodical and General Assembly Home Mission Committees, is $1,661 per year.

We find that 346 pastors receive salaries from $500 to $1,000; 617 from $1,000 to $1,500; 244 from $1,500 to $2,000; 95 from $2,000 to $2,500; 43 from $2,500 to $3,000; 21 from $3,000 to $4,000; 15 from $4,000 to $5,000, and 5 receive $5,000 or over.

Complying with the directions of the General Assembly we have made persistent efforts to keep the matter of adequate support of the minister before the Church. Since these figures were compiled some material increases have been made.

Much yet remains to be done. Our ministers and their families are being forced to unwise economy, and many have been forced to borrow on meagre life insurance policies to the limit and when premium and loan came due have been forced to surrender the policy. A dollar today will scarcely buy more than forty cents three years ago. Unless salaries have been increased our ministers have really suffered a considerable reduction in salary.

The Treasurer.—For more than fifteen years Mr. John Stites has been the efficient treasurer of the Committee. In all these years he has rarely failed to attend a meeting and has given without stint of his time and energies to the work of this important office. His experience and sound business judgment have been of invaluable service to the Committee and to the Church.

The Needs of the Executive Committee.—The needs of the Executive Committee for its work for a year hence are Education for the Ministry and Mission Service (for both men and women) $100,000; Ministerial Relief, $100,000; the promotion of the work of Schools and Colleges of the entire Church, not less than $40,000; and the Student Loan Fund, $115,000.

All of which is respectfully submitted by order of the Executive Committee.

HENRY H. SWEETS, Executive Secretary.

VI. Publication and Sabbath School Work

(ABSTRACT FROM FIFTY-NINTH ANNUAL REPORT)

The fifty-ninth annual report of the Executive Committee of Publication is submitted to the General Assembly in session at Charlotte, N. C., with grateful acknowledgment to God for manifest evidences of His favor upon our efforts to serve the Church.

General Summary.—The report in detail covers the following points:

	Page
Sales Summary	3
Texarkana Depository	4
Real Estate Holdings.....	21
Publications Issued	4-5-6
Periodical Department	6
Co-operative Efforts	6
Sunday School Extension Work.....	7
Report of Superintendent Sunday School and Young People's Department	13
Report of Editorial Department.....	9
Report of Treasurer.....	19
Receipts from All Sources Itemized.....	22

Sales Summary.—The demoralization occasioned by the war has been more hurtful during the past year than for any other like period and prices for paper, printing, labor and all other commodities rose to new altitudes, while it was impossible to make a corresponding advance in our selling prices. Despite the mounting prices and unsettled conditions, a loyal church gave us a generous support, and we made a slight gain in sales over any previous record at both Richmond and Texarkana. Below is our sales summary for the year:

Sale of books at Richmond.....	$102,165.40
Sale of periodicals at Richmond.....	154,611.87

Total sales at Richmond.....	$256,777.27
Sale of books at Texarkana, Ark.-Tex....	$ 58,461.66
Sale of periodicals at Texarkana, Ark.-Tex.	30,563.00

Total sales at Texarkana.....	$ 89,024.66
-------------------------------	--------------

Total sales for year at both houses...	$345,801.93
--	--------------

Net profit for year added to capital account	$ 54,606.48
The gain in sales over last year was $60,413.82.

Texarkana Depository.—A service of steadily enlarging value is being rendered the Church by our depository at Texarkana, as it is permitted to furnish an increasing share of the requisites needed for modern church and Sunday School work.

The volume of sales was the largest yet reported and while operating costs show an increase, a modest profit was earned on the year's business.

Our Periodical Department.—Through the twenty-six publications issued by our Periodical Department we are rendering service of high value to the cause of religious education. As an indication of the superior type of expository and practical work being done by our editorial staff, we report with pride that certain sections of the work of Miss Rankin is being used by the following churches: Dutch Reformed, German Reformed, Associate Reformed and United Presbyterian, and Mrs. Edmondson's Primary Work and Blackboard Sketches are used by the Methodist Protestant, German Reformed, Dutch Reformed and United Presbyterian Churches. Some changes occurred in our editorial staff during the year which are referred to in the report of the Editorial Department.

The steadily mounting cost of printing forced us to advance the price of our periodicals on October 1, 1919. Paper has advanced from 100 to 200 per cent., and labor costs have more than doubled since 1914; but we made an increase of only about 25 per cent. on our Sunday School periodicals. We face still further advances in our publication costs, as paper is costing more in 1920 than in 1919, and a big increase in cost of engraving plates was effective March 1, 1920. We regret the necessity but it now seems imperative for us to make another slight advance in the price of our publications on July 1, 1920.

We published but seven periodicals in 1902 and the enlargement of the list to twenty-six and the growth in circulation is a matter of gratification. The total number of copies printed during the past year was 12,077,925.

New Editors for the Missionary Survey and Onward.—The Editorial Department suffered a distinct loss when, on the first of December, Mr. Wade C. Smith severed his connection with the Presbyterian Committee of Publication in order to accept a position in the Stewardship Department of the Interchurch World Movement of North America.

The work on these two periodicals will go on without interruption with Miss Laura E. Armitage as managing editor of the Missionary Survey and Miss Mary R. Porter as managing editor of Onward, under the general supervision of the Editor-in-Chief. These ladies have been trained by Mr. Smith in the details of the office work. They are showing initiative and literary and artistic ability which warrants us in promising that the two periodicals will steadily improve in character. Several thousand new subscribers have been secured since the new editors took charge in January.

Improved Uniform Lessons.—Every progressive Sunday School makes the careful grading of its classes an object of first importance, and adapts its use of lesson literature, as well as its organization, so as to meet the wants of a thoroughly graded school. For years our lesson literature has measured up to this requirement by a thoroughly graded series of lesson helps, adapting itself to the successive grades of the school by means of the Primary Quarterly, Junior Quarterly, the Intermediate Quarterly, Young People's Bible Study, the Lesson Quarterly and the Earnest Work. Each of these lesson helps carries one and the same Uniform Lesson, but so handled by expert lesson treatment as to fit the needs of every stage of intelligence in a well graded school. The large majority of our schools find this adaptation of the Uniform Lesson the most satisfactory system of lesson study, as it unites the whole school in the study of one and the same Scripture passage, and yet grades the school by the use of skilfully adapted lesson helps. As noted, the circulation of our Uniform Lesson periodicals has steadily advanced and has reached new high levels during the past year.

Departmental Graded Lessons.—Side by side with these Uniform Lesson helps we have been furnishing since the year 1915 a series of Departmental Graded Lessons, which are prepared through joint editorial management of the Presbyterian and Reformed group of churches (the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, Presbyterian Church in the United States, the Canadian Presbyterian Church, the Reformed Church in America, and the United Presbyterian Church). These Departmental Graded Lessons are meeting with increasing acceptance and supply the wants of all of those Sunday Schools who prefer to study a separate and distinct Scripture passage in each grade of their schools.

Wherein do Departmental Graded Lessons differ from the well known Uniform Lessons?

The Uniform Lessons have the same Scripture passage with an adapted treatment for all grades of the school. Departmental Graded Lessons have a separate passage for each department—a passage that will appeal most strongly to pupils within a certain age limit.

The Principle of the Departmental Lessons.—The adoption of the principle of grading by groups instead of by years is a real forward movement in lesson making. The plan has been adopted only after careful investigation and experiment, and because it is based upon well-tested pedagogical principles.

The Departmental Graded System provides only one lesson at a time for all the pupils in a department, the same lesson being used by all the pupils in the group at one time. The lessons to complete the course are issued in successive years. For the completion of the course all that is necessary is to see that the pupil remains in the departments the customary number of years. This departmental plan is wise because the tendency today is in the direction of putting the primary emphasis upon the group and the individual variations in the group, and secondarily upon the age limits within the group. A worker with boys whose reputation is national says:

"The chief distinguishing characteristics do not show themselves as between one year and another year, but rather as between one period and another period. These periods are recognized and differentiated; they are grades. Within each grade is a cycle of lessons designed particularly for the needs of that grade."

The Departmental Graded Lesson Helps are issued in Quarterlies and Leaflets, instead of in fixed booklets. The Quarterlies have, besides the lesson material, several pages of practical articles of interest and benefit to the teachers in the department.

If desired, part of the school may use the Departmental Graded Lessons and part the Uniform Lessons without much confusion.

What advantages are there in this Departmental System of treatment and use?

1. The system suits the smaller schools. There are usually five departments in the Sunday school—Beginners (ages 4 and 5), Primary (6, 7 and 8), Junior (9, 10, 11 and 12), Intermediate (13, 14, 15 and 16), and Senior (17, 18, 19 and 20). Where the Departmental Lessons are used, therefore, a school that has but five classes may be fully organized, with all the departments going, each department having its own distinctive lesson.

2. The Departmental Lessons suit the larger schools equally well. There may be a half dozen or a dozen classes in a department, all studying the same lesson. This makes organization simpler.

3. It is easier to provide substitute teachers than when each year in a department has a different lesson; also the literature is more easily handled by secretaries, as there are only five divisions instead of seventeen, as called for in the original Closely Graded system. This latter system of lessons cannot now be had, except from publishing houses of other denominations, as it has been abandoned by the Presbyterian churches of the United States and Canada as impracticable for use in the average Sunday School.

The Missionary Survey is the organ of the four Executive Committees of the Church, the monthly periodical through which they spread before the Church each month a picture of its benevolent activities at home and abroad. Besides the four departments into which the Survey is divided, covering the special presentation of each of the four great benevolent causes, plans which have been on foot for some time are now being worked out to present in each issue a general editorial section which will give a combined view of the progress of the whole work of the Church. It is planned to add sixteen pages to the Survey beginning with the issue of June, 1920, to provide for the editorial section and give added space to other departments. Every effort also is being made to increase the circulation so as to place a copy of the Survey in every family of the Church.

Co-operative Effort.—Recognizing the unity of the work of our Assembly, we have devoted a liberal share of our time and energy to promoting features of work that do not belong primarily to our department, but they are important in that they are vital parts of the whole program of our Church.

We have participated in an active way in the plans of the Progressive Program, and in addition to furnishing our quota of the expense, we printed the following leaflets and charts: 50,000 "Spear Thrusts," 35,000 "Sacrificial Giving," 35,000 "Family Altar," 10,000 "The Christian Home," 15,000 Family Altar Pledge Cards, 10,000 Family Altar Leaflets, 25,000 "The Church's Plan of Finance," and 7,000 large wall charts. We donated about 1,700 copies of the book "The New Christian" to pastors with the hope that they would organize and conduct classes for the study of stewardship. Some seventy-five classes were apparently conducted.

We furnished and mailed the leaflets to promote the "Family Altar League" at cost of our Committee, as the Assembly's Committee on Family Religion did not have funds for so large a campaign. An encouraging increase of members was enrolled in the Family Altar League in February and March. We promoted definite study of the home and foreign mission work of our Church by issuing and circulating two text-books: "Christianizing Christendom," by Dr. S. L. Morris, and "Fifty Years in China," by Dr. S. I. Woodbridge. Ten thousand copies of each title were published. We issued 10,000 copies of the Prayer Calendar, to the end that the whole Church might unite in special prayer at fixed times for our workers on the firing line. We aided in the support of the Woman's Auxiliary and make grateful acknowledgment to the members of this organization for their help in promoting the circulation of "The Missionary Survey," the official voice of the Assembly, during the special campaign in March, 1920. We contributed for nine months at the rate of $2,500 per year for the support of a chair of English Bible at the Assembly's Training School as authorized by the Assembly of 1919. This splendid institution, the product of the great heart and mind of the late A. L. Phillips, D. D., the church's first superintendent of Sabbath School and Young People's Work, is providing a course of practical training for some of the choicest young people of our Church and in turn the graduates are giving back to the Church a service of great fruitfulness as church secretaries, pastors' assistants and teachers and workers in both the home fields and foreign lands.

The Secretary of Publication spent over four months in Turkey, Armenia and Syria in 1919 as a members of the Armenian and Syrian Relief Commission and made first-hand investigations as to conditions and needs in these devastated areas. Reports were filed which showed that the ancient Christian peoples of Armenia and Syria had suffered atrocities beyond belief or description at the hands of the Turks, and that the fiendish cruelties were instigated by the Germans as a part of their plan for the military conquest of the world. The pitiful needs of the remnants of these Christian nations were laid before our churches and Sunday Schools and the response has been creditable to the hearts and purses of our people. Exact figures are not obtainable, but over $50,000 has been contributed by our Church for the relief of these distressed nations.

Sunday School Extension and Benevolent Work.—Reference is made to the report of the Superintendent of Sunday School and Young People's Work for the details of a year of active and fruitful work in this department. The report shows many new Sunday Schools organized, entering new missionary territory and stimulating better methods of organization and improved plans for religious education in both our Sunday Schools and Young People's societies. Our Church is beginning to realize its responsibility for the religious nurture of the great throng of young people in the South who are out of the Sunday School and practically religious illiterates and a most generous response was made to the appeal for Sunday School Extension funds. The effectiveness of the Sunday School Extension Department of our work is shown by the number of pupils who have come through the Sunday Schools into our churches.

Since the organization of a department of Sunday School work in 1903 special emphasis has been placed upon the power and responsibility of the Sunday School as an evangelizing agency and the table below indicates how fruitful has been the effort of our schools in this vitally important matter.

Additions to Our Churches on Profession of Faith—

We donated Bibles, Testaments, tracts and libraries in liberal measure, as the potency of the printed page as a messenger of truths has never been so great as today: 904 Bibles and 3,268 Testaments were donated for the perfect recitation of the Shorter and Young Children's Catechisms. We are now importing special reward editions direct from England through arrangements made by the Secretary of Publication when on a trip for Armenian and Syrian Relief in 1919.

Fund 16,438.92

Budget for 1921-22.—The Assembly of 1918 approved the Progressive Program outlined to cover three years and a fixed financial goal of $12,000,000.00 for the period. It is expected that $4,500,000 of amount will be raised during the church year of 1921-22. On the basis of the usual per cent. assigned to Sunday School Extension and Publication, we should receive $90,000 for the year 1921-22. If the Assembly adopts an enlarged budget our quota would increase in proportion to the enlargement proposed.

Committee Membership.—According to action of the Assembly of 1917, the term of office of the following members of the Publication Committee expire this year: Rev. J. P. Smith, D.D., Rev. J. C. Stewart, D.D., Rev. Russell Cecil, D.D., M. M. Gilliam, J. W. Friend.

We report with profound sorrow the death on March 4, 1920, of Mr. James W. Sinton, who was a valued member of the Publication Committee from his appointment in 1904 to the time of his death. While one of the foremost banks in the South, of which he was vice-president, made large demands upon his time and strength, he was always deeply interested in the affairs of our Church, both local and general, and his judgment and advice were always sought by the Publication Committee upon all financial matters.

Sunday School Extension.—The ranks of our splendid force of Sunday School Missionaries have been greatly depleted at times during the year. The call to other spheres of Christian service is largely responsible for this. It has been possible by strenuous recruiting to make up to a large extent for these losses, and there are prospects for greater gains in the near future. In appraising the statistical table which follows, it should be kept in mind that quite a number of the present field force were added toward the close of the year and that others occupied their fields for only a few months. The following is a summarized statement of facts and results for the year in Sunday School Extension:

Number of persons engaged, whole and part time.....	53
Number of sermons and addresses.....	2,457
Number of old schools visited.....	822
Number of new schools established.....	25
Schools reorganized	50
Homes visited	9,558
Home Departments established.....	31
Cradle Rolls established.....	32
Teacher Training Courses established.....	27
Adult Classes organized.....	40
Teen Age Classes organized.....	36
Miles traveled	71,303
Conversions reported	870
Institutes and Conferences held.....	136

In recording these results, which emphasize the power of the Sunday School as a witness bearing and converting gospel agency, it is appropriate to again call attention to the fertile fields for evangelism which are crowded about the congregational range of practically all of our churches. Automobiles and good roads have brought hundreds of thousands of unevangelized and untaught people within easy reach of our churches.

Insistent emphasis on the outpost Mission Sunday School is necessarily an important part of the Sunday School Extension policy of the Church. The outpost Sunday School Mission is the clearest open door before the modern church for lay service. In order that this challenging field of service may be more effectively occupied, and with a view to securing closer supervision and promotion of efficiency and increase in both Sunday School and Young People's Work, a forward step in policy has been initiated during the year. This policy has in view the placing of Superintendents of Sunday School and Young People's Work in individual Synods and groups of Presbyteries. The co-operation of some Synods and Presbyteries has already been accorded in the carrying out of this plan.

Rev. Wesley Baker has been secured for the Synod of Virginia, and Prof. R. L. Landis for the Synod of Mississippi. North Alabama Presbytery has secured the services of Rev. G. W. Sheffer; Rev. R. L. Sparks has begun the same type of service in Red River Presbytery. Other Presbyteries and Synods are to take up the new plan as soon as men can be secured for the work.

In addition to the supervision of Sunday School Extension by means of surveying conditions and securing field workers for needy areas and leading out Sunday School forces into outpost mission work, the chief work of these superintendents will be to build up efficiency in Sunday School and Young People's Work, through Conferences and Institutes, correspondence and personal visitation. Quite a number of others on our Sunday School Extension force whose fields require a greater or less degree of concentration on pioneer evangelism and establishment of Mission Sunday Schools are rendering fine services also in promoting efficiency in schools already established.

Sunday School Improvement.—Greater effectiveness in the work of religious education is imperatively demanded by the conditions which confront the Church today. The promotion of better organization, equipment and methods has always been the consistent aim of the Publication Committee. These ends have been sought by means of Standards, Teacher Training Courses, Schools of Method, Institutes and Conferences, as well as by a voluminous correspondence and personal visitation when possible and by wide circularization and distribution of efficiency literature. More intensive work will become possible as rapidly as the new plan for Synodical and Presbyterial Superintendents can be put into effect.

Teacher Training.—It gives us pleasure to report a further improvement in the Teacher Training situation. Both the Standard Three-Year Diploma Course and the Certificate One-Year Course have been more widely used than ever before. That the situation, however, is far short of ideal is disclosed by the following figures:

	1918	1919	1920
Classes in Certificate Course.....	50	59	75
Students in Certificate Course.....	240	291	397
Classes in Diploma Course.....	32	53	86
Students in Diploma Course.....	293	407	596

Sixty-six certificates were issued during the year—thirty-nine for completion of One-Year Certificate Course, twenty-two for completion of first year Diploma Course, and five for completion of second year Diploma Course.

Books for the third year Specialization Course, which completes the Three-Year Diploma Course, "Trained Workers," have not yet been issued, owing to insurmountable difficulties in securing writers and getting manuscripts completed. According to conservative estimates many of these books, which bid fair to be extremely interesting and helpful, will be ready in the late fall or winter of 1920. In the meantime those who have completed the first two years work of the Diploma Course are given substitute studies in specialization work.

In view of the fact that the trained teacher is the key to success in religious education, humanly speaking, a Teacher Training Class in every church will continue to be the chief aim of our Sunday School policy so far as methods of improvement in efficiency are concerned. The adequate training of Sunday School teachers is not, however, merely a matter of completing the course of study and securing a diploma. Every available source of information and training should be sought out in earnest, prayerful consecration to this unparalleled avenue of service.

With a view to putting the Sunday School worker in touch with every means of assistance in this important work, the Publication Committee furnishes lists of helpful books which can be secured for workers' libraries at minimum cost, sends out literature on various phases of Sunday School and educational problems without charge, sets up educational and inspirational programs for Institutes and Conferences on both Sunday School and Young People's Work, and furnishes expert assistance through correspondence and personal consultation and through addresses at Conferences and Institutes.

Without relaxing in any degree our efforts for promoting the personal effectiveness or teaching capacity of Sunday School workers by means of training and the introduction of better methods we recognize the utter dependence of those who are engaged in this form of spiritual leadership on the presence and power of the Holy Spirit which should be constantly sought in effectual and fervent prayer.

The Sunday School Training for Service.—The Secondary Organized Class as a medium for character development and expressional religious activity has been featured in Conferences and Institutes and through periodicals and leaflet literature. Here and there a larger group of young people, which includes the organized classes of the Sunday School as constituent units, and which takes the form of the Young People's Department of the Church, is doing interesting and promising work. Figures regarding the organization of Adult and Secondary Classes follow:

Adult Organized Classes.....	423	446	486
Membership	2,289	2,767	3,576
Secondary Organized Classes.....	160	209	305
Membership	1,207	1,640	2,618

All Organized Classes are given charter recognition on being reported and entered on our records, and helpful literature on organization, methods and activities is furnished free of cost. Special attention is also given in correspondence and in personal consultation to particular problems and needs.

It is very desirable that Organized Classes should be reported to the Sunday School Department at Richmond headquarters in order that helpful service may be given and for the completion of our records. Registration cards are furnished on request. We have good reason to believe that our records of Organized Classes are very incomplete because of failure to report through Sessional Sunday School blanks to the spring meetings of Presbyteries.

Young People's Work.—The summary of results in Young People's Work for the past year indicates substantial progress, but no remarkable advance. In promoting organizations for the religious training of the young people of the Church, the policy of the Publication Committee has been to put chief emphasis on the two agencies which have the endorsement of the General Assembly and the approval of long experience, namely, the Organized Class or Department of the Sunday School (Secondary Division, ages 12 to 23) and the Christian Endeavor Societies, Senior, Intermediate and Junior. Other general forms of organization are recognized and given every assistance when decided preference is shown for them.

Christian Endeavor Societies.—Christian Endeavor progress during the year is only partially indicated in the statement furnished in this report. Correspondence with many societies discloses a widespread and practical interest in the Presbyterian Christian Endeavor Standard of Efficiency which was adopted by the last General Assembly. This Standard has been sent out in an attractive wall chart form to all Senior and Intermediate societies with a leaflet explaining its various requirements and suggesting the best methods for making it effective. The Standard has been received with enthusiasm by the Christian Endeavorers of our Church, and many societies are working for one hundred per cent. rating. This Standard has also been highly commended by all of the National Christian Endeavor officers as an effective means for the promotion of Christian Endeavor success.

Following is the statistical statement of Young People's organizations reported to our office:

	1918	1919	1920
Christian Endeavor Societies.....	875	971	1,128
Christian Endeavor Members.....	31,050	30,741	32,929
Westminster Leagues	106	54	15
Westminster League Members.....	1,910	478
Covenanters	53	19	13
Covenanter Members.....	309	162
Miriams	109	50	24
Miriam Members.....	596	419

The Young People's Council.—A leaflet introducing the plan of the Young People's Council in the local church and giving in some detail its purpose and place in the program of Young People's Work in each congregation, has been prepared and distributed to pastors, Sunday School superintendents, leaders of Young People's Societies and secretaries of Young People's Work. We have had encouraging reports of its adoption and successful application here and there, and earnestly recommend that it be given a fair trial as a means of increasing interest and working out worth-while programs of religious activity for the young people of our congregations. It will also be found helpful in correlating the programs and schedules of different organizations within the local church and for securing a well-rounded and unified plan.

VII. Report on Sabbath and Family Religion

FATHERS AND BRETHREN:—Your Permanent Committee on the Sabbath and Family Religion would respectfully present the following report:

During the terrible days of the Great War thousands of earnest Christians were daily praying that the horrible slaughter might soon end, and the nations of the world return to pursuits of peace. The war has ended, but the nations have not returned to normal life. The editorial columns of a secular paper having a large circulation recently had this to say:

"Tidings from Berlin, from Tokio, from Constantinople, from Rome, from Paris, from London, from Moscow, and the lesser capitals of Europe, picture almost half the people of the world at grips with one another over the abyss of anarchy. There is more of despair than of hope, more of suspicion than of faith, more of hatred than of love. Misery and desperation have excited all the primal passions, all the instincts of savagery. Nowhere is there a sign of trust, of forbearance, of abnegation. The allies of yesterday on the battlefields are now foes in every council." That this is not an exaggerated statement of the case, but in every detail true, the public press of every day is witness.

Coming nearer home, what do we see? We see the lawless forces of disintegration everywhere at work. The laws are openly and flagrantly defied: human life is held so cheap that recent decisions in some of our courts make it cheaper to kill a man than to steal his property. Selfishness, greed, injustice are everywhere in evidence. Fortunes are being made by those already rich, while the poor are crying out for the necessities of life. The struggle is on. The watchword is, Every man for himself no matter what the consequences. Capital and Labor, the Jachin and Boaz of the temple of material civilization, intended by God and nature to be competitors, have become competitors: natural allies have become unnatural foes. Each seems to be determined that the other shall bear all the burdens while he reaps all the benefits.

Religion is held in light esteem. The Lord's Day is desecrated, openly desecrated, even in states on whose statute books are laws, wise and wholesome laws, sufficient if enforced to protect all who are forced to unnecessary labor. Public bodies and newspapers protest against the enforcement of these laws and thus arouse such a sentiment as makes it impossible for conscientious men to do their duty.

The desire for money, the hunger for pleasure, have overflowed all reasonable bounds and become a positive threat against the very life of the nation. Divorce courts are crowded with cases, there being one for every eleven marriages. In some places certain days are set aside for the hearing of divorce cases only. Criminality amongst children has created a demand for juvenile courts. And so it goes.

There are those who look with strange detachment upon the troubled land, and offer as their contribution to the problem, either a denial that there is any problem, or, if there is, it is not as serious as some make out, and anyhow, such conditions have always existed, and there is no occasion to be unduly worked up over it.

But is it the part of wise citizenship, is it even ordinarily sensible, and most of all, is it moral to look on unmoved at the continuation of old evils, even suppose they are not growing worse? Is not the fact that we can so speak evidence that the moral standards are weakening? Have we no higher scheme of living than that? Ought we not to seek for the elimination of ancient wrongs? Ought we not to be their executioners rather than their apologists? Should we not strive for the perfecting of life? Will a man justify himself, or be justified for allowing lives to be lost on the ground that at that place lives have always been lost? Is not that itself the very greatest reason for the speedy establishment of all necessary safeguards? Every wrong, every iniquity that has ever existed in the world may be perpetuated on such a theory as that. Indeed, if that argument is worth while, it is impossible to eliminate any evils.

There are wiser ones, with clearer understanding of human responsibility, who are deeply concerned at what they see, and are earnestly seeking to find the underlying causes that they may suggest remedies. And what are the underlying causes? There is but one, and that is the want of a religious foundation. Men are not moved by the law of love. Self-interest appears to be the mightiest world-motive. It disturbs the peace of the world, and the peace of the home, and the peace of the individual heart.

Our own Church, if it has any reason for existing at all, has a responsibility in this time of world need. Ours is not a large Church, so far as number of members are concerned; but if it were alive to its whole duty, and should move to it with a great spontaneous spirit of loyalty to Christ and pity for humanity, the results would be tremendous.

The first need is to take stock. Just where do we stand? Have we any points of weakness? What are they? Then the next thing is to confess our sins, seek God's favor and forgiveness, and go to work.

Let us look at the points of weakness we ourselves acknowledge.

I. THE DESECRATION OF THE SABBATH

A little more than a hundred years ago, De Tocqueville made a protracted tour of the United States. On his return to France he was asked which of our institutions made the greatest impression upon him. He immediately replied, "The American Sabbath. On that day the business houses and places of amusement were all closed; fires were banked in the furnaces, hammers lay still on the anvil and it seemed as if all the people were either at home or on their way to church." What a different spectacle would greet him could he return today! In one city in the South not long since it was established by actual count that more people went into a few moving picture theatres on Sunday evening than attended all the churches in the city at the same hour. At the same time the streets were alive with automobiles, the street cars loaded, and the cold drink emporiums overflowing.

The mind of God with reference to the day is written large in the sacred Scriptures. It was established, the first sacred institution, after the creation of man. It was written into the indestructible law. Neglect of it was threatened with desolation of the land, and utter dispersion of the people; "And I will bring the land into desolation; . . . and I will scatter you among the heathen . . . because it did not rest in your Sabbaths, when ye dwelt upon it." Nehemiah put a summary end to all work and business on that day. And Isaiah has this to say about using the day for pleasure: "If thou turn away thy foot from the Sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on my holy day; and call the Sabbath a delight, the holy of the Lord, honorable; and shalt honor him, not doing thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasures, nor speaking thine own words: Then shalt thou delight thyself in the Lord; and I will cause thee to ride upon the high places of the earth, and feed thee with the heritage of Jacob thy father."

These make an accumulation of arguments against taking liberties with the holy day which leave the desecrator without excuse.

II. LACK OF FAMILY RELIGION.

In our last report to the Assembly we called attention to the dark fact that in more than half of our churches, by their own confession, there was no kind of family worship attempted, or the attempt was so feeble as to be almost negligible. Nothing received later calls for any modification of this statement.

Is it not high time that this service, once so highly honored by our fathers, should be renewed? The Committee on the Narrative last year used these words in their report to the Assembly:

"In the matter of family worship, we find nothing very definite to report. This is due to the apparent neglect on the part of pastors and sessions to ascertain the exact number of homes in each particular church that observes family worship. We suggest, therefore, that more attention be given to this item in the Narrative, and urge the sessions to take a careful census and ascertain the exact number that observe some form of family worship. The reports would indicate that not more than ten per cent. of our people observe any kind of devotional service in the home."

Now, if we have been able to do what we have done, by the blessing of God, with so poor a showing of family religion, who can in imagination measure what we could have done if our homes had all been loyal?

It is safe to say that divorce courts get little business from the homes in which God is daily honored. It is equally safe to say that it is not from such homes the demand arises for Juvenile courts. We need to recognize as we never have that the Home is the foundation of society, and that the religious character of a nation's homes will determine the moral order of the nation's life. If all our homes were godly, we would have a godly nation. If our nation is preponderatingly ungodly, it is because our homes are so.

In a western city in an evangelistic meeting with an audience of about two thousand, the preacher asked all who had any kind of family worship to stand. Not over fifty arose. A religious leader engaged in holding conferences for a certain denomination undertook in fifteen conferences to find out how many ministers maintained family worship. He did it by passing cards which they were asked to fill in with "yes" or "no," without signing their names. The records show that twenty-four per cent. of the ministers attending the conferences did not have any kind of family worship. To what extent is this true with us? To what extent is it true with the elders? With the deacons?

Every ship that sails the sea faces two possible dangers; she may be wrecked herself, or collide with and destroy some other. To prevent as far as possible both of these calamities, every ship is equipped with every safeguard modern science can suggest. Every young man and young woman passing out of the home into the life of the world faces similar dangers, against which religious training in the home furnishes the most approved safeguard.

III. NEGLECT OF INFANT BAPTISM.

There were fewer infant baptisms last year (1918-1919) than in any year since 1904. In 1904 we had 268,733 members, and last year we had 364,230. Last year 1,598 churches in our Assembly report no infant baptisms. This does not count in a large number of smaller churches from which no reliable statistics were received. If the facts from many of these were obtainable, no doubt this number would be largely increased. We will be the more impressed by these figures when we remember that the total number of churches on our roll is 3,447. Thus it will not be very wide of the mark to say that about half of our churches saw no baptisms of infants last year. In the whole Presbytery of Palmyra there was only one infant baptism. In the Synod of North Carolina there were 239 church without a single infant baptism. Virginia and Alabama tied for second place, with 186 churches each with no infant baptisms.

God never made a covenant with His people in which He did not include the children. "The promise is unto you and to your children." God's commendation of Abraham was in these words, "For I know him that he will command his children and his household after him, and they shall keep the way of the Lord." And Joshua's brave words, "As for me and my house we will serve the Lord," are amongst the best known and most frequently quoted of the Bible passages. In Deut. 11 God directs concerning His statutes, "Ye shall teach them unto your children, speaking of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, when thou liest down, and when thou risest up." It was not for nothing God commanded Abraham to circumcise Isaac at eight days old, nor that this was established as a permanent requirement in Israel. For the neglect of it, God sought to kill Moses. Ex. 4.

The children belong to God; Christ took them in His arms, and said, "Suffer the little children to come unto me." It is a duty we owe to God, to the children, and to ourselves, that we dedicate them to him in holy baptism.

If we continue to neglect this sacred and beautiful ordinance, which has contributed so much to the power and influence of our Church, both we and the world will be the sufferers.

IV. NEGLECT OF HOME TRAINING IN THE CATECHISM AND SCRIPTURES.

The Committee on the Narrative last year said, "There is a manifest neglect on the part of parents in the training of their children at home, in both the Scriptures and Catechisms. This responsibility has been shifted, in a large degree, to the Sabbath School, where we are pleased to note, progress has been made."

One reason why infant baptism, and catechism instruction in the home is so neglected, no doubt, is because many who have been received into our churches have not been from Presbyterian homes, and have not had the training hereditary Presbyterians have. But this makes all the more necessary a revival of instruction along those lines.

V. CONCLUSION.

There are two great ordinances, the Sabbath, and Family Religion, and for her loyalty to these our Church, and the Family to which she belongs, were in other days famous. In these present days we seem to have been caught in the back current, and are in great danger of losing our testimony. A revival must begin in the home; it must be marked by the father re-assuming his natural position as the priest of the family, offering worship at his own hearth, lifting his own household up to the Eternal Throne. It must further be marked by the impressive and beautiful spectacle of the parents presenting their babes for baptism in the open congregation. The demand for private home baptism of infants is not a healthy one, and should not be encouraged. The catechism and the Bible must be brought back and honored. They are great spiritual food; they have always built strong men, and noble women. They are great foundations for a Home.

This revival in the home must be stimulated and started by preaching in the pulpit. Not a preaching that simply calls attentions to the need; but a preaching that possesses prophetic fervor, and will not be denied. Not a controversial preaching, not a we are right and you are wrong sort of preaching; but an honest preaching of the things which are most surely believed among us as our contribution toward the healing of the awful sore of the world.

While we have lost much ground which will never be regained, there is still much left for us, if only we are watchful and strengthen the things that remain. Ours is a goodly heritage, let us faithfully conserve it.

We greatly regret to report to you the death of Mr. Geo. G. Brazelton, a member of the Permanent Committee. Mr. Brazelton died on the 29th of March, after a brief illness from blood poisoning. He was an exceedingly useful man, a ruling elder in the First Church of Tyler, Texas, head of the laymen's organization in the Presbytery of Paris, and an interested and well-informed member of the Church. He was keenly alive to the dangers which beset the Church through the neglect of the Sabbath and family religion. He honored the Lord's Day himself, and in his home he took his place as priest of the family, and daily led them to the Throne of Divine Grace. He was morally and spiritually a strong man; unswerving in his integrity; uncompromising in his loyalty; faithful in all his ways. A year ago he was a member of the General Assembly which met in New Orleans. Now he is a member of the GENERAL ASSEMBLY of the CHURCH of the First-born whose names are written in heaven.

We have not now any particular recommendations to offer. We await the orders of the Assembly.

For the Committee,

ROBERT HILL, Chairman.

VIII. Report of Permanent Committee on the Bible Cause.

The Permanent Committee on the Bible Cause would respectfully report that, notwithstanding the continued difficulties with which it has had to contend during the past year, the work of the American Bible Society has been encouraging. There has been a decrease in the total issues since that of the year 1918; and yet the Report of 1919 shows that the total issues so far recorded are 3,441,669 volumes, consisting of 353,592 Bibles, 546,152 Testaments and 2,541,925 portions. The reason for this decrease is largely due to the fact that the Army and Navy in 1918 were supplied with over 2,000,000 New Testaments; and there was no call for such a large amount of volumes for the year 1919. The Foreign Agencies show an excess of over 400,000 volumes in their issue in 1919 as against their issue of 1918. This excess principally occurred in China, where the issue amounted to over 1,250,000. The records of the past one hundred and three years of the American Bible Society, added to the issues during the year 1919, reveal the fact that the Society in one hundred and four years has supplied 82,567,551 volumes in the United States and 55,025,748 volumes in foreign lands, making the total issue of the American Bible Society 137,593,299. The circulation of the Scriptures during the past year has shown a decrease for the reason that both at home and abroad the books were not available to meet the large demands. It has been impossible for the Society to purchase all the books needed and called for. The Society is making every effort to increase its facilities for publishing the Holy Scriptures to meet the growing demand both at home and abroad.

The Committee would remind the General Assembly that the Bible Society is doing its work in this country through nine Agencies, five of which, either in whole or in part, are actively engaged within the bounds of our Southern Presbyterian Church, namely: The Agency for the Colored People of the South, located at Atlanta, Georgia; The South Atlantic Agency, located at Richmond, Virginia; The Southwestern Agency, at Dallas, Texas; The Central Agency, at Cincinnati, Ohio; and the Western Agency, Denver, Colorado. The reports from all of these Agencies show that the work has been prospering throughout our bounds. The Colored Agency especially, under the direction of the Rev. J. P. Wragg, D.D., has largely increased its work. It extends all over the South, and has circulated during the past year 10,237 Bibles, 11,704 Testaments, 10,126 portions, in all 32,067 volumes of Scriptures. At no time has this Agency had over nine workers, and part of the time only two. These workers, however, have succeeded in visiting 24,663 families, of which 4,352 were without Bibles. They supplied 2,739 with free gifts of Bibles. These workers traveled in all 15,675 miles. Dr. Wragg has moved his headquarters from Atlanta, Georgia, to the Bible House, Astor Place, New York, in the hope of being able from that point to better supervise his enlarged field. The South Atlantic Agency, over which the Rev. M. B. Porter presides, at Richmond, Virginia, reported distribution during the year 1919 of 16,476 Bibles, 24,575 Testaments and 30,512 portions, a total of 71,563 volumes. This agency has employed forty-two workers during the year, who have labored in the states of Georgia, Florida, Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina. The Western Agency, covering the states of Missouri, Kansas, Colorado, Idaho, Montana, Utah, Wyoming, New Mexico and Arizona, of which the Rev. Arthur F. Ragatz, D.D., is the agent, is located at Denver, Colorado. This agency has employed thirteen workers, fifteen correspondents, and twenty-four voluntary workers, who have distributed 37,757 volumes of Scripture either in whole or in part. The Southwestern Agency, which includes Arkansas, Louisiana and Oklahoma, with headquarters at Dallas, Texas, is under the direction of the Rev. J. J. Morgan, who reports that he has had an especially large demand for Family Bibles. He has suffered from the depletion of his stock; but one worker in fifteen days was able to sell 1,400 Spanish Bibles. The Scriptures have been circulated in forty languages in this area, the total number amounting to 69,217 volumes. The Central Agency, with headquarters at Cincinnati, Ohio, and under the direction of Rev. Frank Marston, D.D., covers the states of Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama and Mississippi. Dr. Marston reports also that he had had an inadequate supply of Scriptures and also of workers. But twelve colporteurs and fourteen correspondents have visited 45,000 families, and distributed 50,143 volumes in twenty-four different languages. These nine Home Agency Secretaries, of which we have only mentioned particular reports of five, because these cover our territory, report only 272 workers, of which 71 are colporteurs and 201 correspondents.

In some respects the foreign work of the American Bible Society is more extensive and important than its home work. While there are nine Home Agencies, there are eleven Foreign Agencies; and these Foreign Agencies report that during the year 1919 there were 751 persons engaged in the work, 114 of whom were colporteurs and 637 correspondents. These do not include the twelve Agency Secretaries, the Agency of Levant employing two Secretaries. It would carry us beyond the reasonable scope of this report to produce the figures that come to us from the work in these eleven Foreign Agencies. It will be sufficient to say that the total number of workers during this year thus far reported consist of 193 colporteurs and 841 correspondents, which, aided by 790 volunteers, gives a total of 1,824 persons who have been engaged in this important work of distributing the Holy Scriptures throughout the world.

The American Bible Society inaugurated a new movement last year by inviting a representative from each of the co-operating churches to meet with the Board of Managers of the Bible Society and take part with them in making out the Budget for the year 1920. These representatives were called the Advisory Council, and met, at the expense of the Society, with the Board of Managers in December, 1919, and took part with them in the arrangement of the Annual Budget. The Chairman of the Permanent Committee of the Assembly was present during these meetings, and desires to report that he received a most cordial reception by the Board of Managers. Seventeen of the co-operating churches were represented in this Advisory Council. It is the hope of the Board of Managers that by thus associating with them representatives of the co-operating bodies that the general work of the distribution of the Holy Scriptures will be largely promoted.

The Permanent Committee would recommend that the General Assembly endeavor to fix the attention of the whole Church more earnestly upon the Bible Cause. The demand for the Holy Scriptures is increasing, and our people should be made to understand that as a Church we are not publishing the Holy Scriptures, but that we are depending upon the American Bible Society for our supply, unless we encourage our people to purchase the Scriptures from great publishing houses. We are especially dependent upon the Bible Society for the translation of the Scriptures into foreign languages; and the call for the Scriptures in foreign languages is not now limited to our foreign missionary work; on the contrary we have so many foreigners in our own country that we are continually under the necessity of calling upon the American Bible Society for large numbers of volumes of the Bible in foreign languages in order to meet the demands of the many foreigners among whom we are working through our Home Missionary Executive Committee. If it should become necessary for us as a Church to publish the Scriptures for ourselves in all these foreign tongues the expense of the work would be enormously increased. The Assembly should bear this in mind, and in the judgment of the Committee should ask larger contributions from our people in the support of the Bible Cause. We urge it again upon the attention of our Systematic Benevolence Committee that a larger amount should be apportioned annually to the support of the Bible Cause.

We further recommend that the General Assembly call the attention of our people to "The Bible Society Record," and urge them to subscribe for it. This will keep them informed as to the work in which the society is engaged both at home and abroad, and will be of immense benefit in the homes of our people. Life Members and Life Directors are taking advantage of their privilege to have "The Record" sent to them regularly; and it is still available to clubs of five or more at the special rate of 50c, but the individual subscription is $1.00 per annum.

We further recommend that the General Assembly urge our churches to remember May Flower Sunday, namely November 28th, 1920, the day appointed by the American Bible Society as May Flower Universal Bible Sunday. This is to be the ter-centenary of the landing of the May Flower; and the American Bible Society will take the place of leadership in the celebrations which relate to the open Bible, and is seeking the co-operation of individual churches of all communions. The society will furnish the churches with literature in ample time to make preparation for the celebration.

Respectfully submitted,

RUSSELL CECIL, Chairman.

IX. Report of the Permanent Committee on Systematic Beneficence and Stewardship

We hereby respectfully submit the following report:

Your Committee has held four meetings since the last meeting of the General Assembly in New Orleans, namely, in Montreat, July 16, 1919; Chattanooga, September 10, 1919; Chattanooga, December 30, 1919; and Spartanburg, S. C., May 18, 1920.

The following members were present at the above mentioned meetings, the number of times set opposite their names:

Alabama	Rev. D. F. McConnell.....	4
Appalachia	Rev. L. R. Walker.....	4
Arkansas	Mr. A. H. Witmarsh.....	3
Florida	Mr. T. F. West.....	3
Georgia	Mr. W. M. Everett.....	4
Kentucky	Rev. W. H. Hopper.....	4
Louisiana	Rev. U. D. Mooney.....	4
Mississippi	Rev. F. R. Graves.....	4
Missouri	Rev. C. R. Nisbet.....	1
North Carolina	Rev. Chas. F. Myers.....	0
Oklahoma	Rev. E. H. Moseley.....	2
South Carolina	Rev. A. D. P. Gilmour.....	4
Tennessee	Mr. W. H. Raymond.....	4
Texas	Rev. Wm. Fred Galbraith.....	4
Virginia	Rev. F. T. McFaden.....	3
West Virginia	Mr. J. E. Allen.....	1

From the Executive Committees—

Foreign Missions	Rev. John I. Armstrong.....	3
Home Missions	Rev. Homer McMillan.....	4
Christian Education & Min. Relief.....	Rev. Henry H. Sweets.....	4
Publication and S. S. Extension.....	Mr. R. E. Magill.....	3

The following were excused for their absences for satisfactory reasons:

A. H. Whitmarsh, T. F. West, C. R. Nisbet, E. H. Moseley, F. T. McFaden, J. E. Allen, and R. E. Magill.

Organization.—The following officers were elected: Rev. A. D. P. Gilmour, Chairman; Rev. E. R. Leyburn, Vice-Chairman; Rev. Wm. Fred Galbraith, Secretary; Mr. R. E. Magill, Treasurer.

Rev. E. R. Leyburn leaving the Synod of North Carolina soon thereafter, the office of Vice-Chairman became vacant.

Headquarters.—In order that the office might be more centrally located for greater efficiency, Chattanooga, Tenn., was selected as headquarters and offices were opened there in the Times Building, September 1, 1919.

A Committee on Scope and Method, composed of C. R. Nisbet and John I. Armstrong, was appointed and requested

First. To review the actions of the Assembly touching the functions and powers of the former Committees on Systematic Beneficence and Stewardship, respectively, codify their findings for the Committees now consolidated, governing the actions of the present Committee on Systematic Beneficence and Stewardship.

Second. To report, after investigation, how the membership of this Committee is composed, and who are eligible from the various Synods to membership thereon at this time.

The report of this Committee on Scope and Method was received and is on file in Chattanooga.

The following Campaign Committee was elected at the Montreat meeting: Rev. Homer McMillan, Chairman; Rev. Henry H. Sweets, Rev. John I. Armstrong, Mr. R. E. Magill, Rev. A. D. P. Gilmour, Rev. L. R. Walker, Judge T. F. West, and the conduct of the Presbyterian Progressive Program was placed in the hands of this Committee, subject to the review and control of the Assembly's Systematic Beneficence and Stewardship Committee.

The following sub-committees were appointed to examine the reports of the respective Executive Committees and to make their reports to the whole committee at the Spartanburg meeting:

Executive Committee on Foreign Missions.—Chairman, Mr. W. M. Everett; Rev. F. T. McFaden, Rev. D. F. McConnell.

Executive Committee on Home Missions.—Chairman, Rev. W. H. Hopper; Rev. C. R. Nisbet, Mr. T. F. West.

Publication and S. S. Extension.—Chairman, Mr. W. H. Raymond; J. E. Allen, Rev. F. R. Graves.

Christian Education and Ministerial Relief.—Chairman, Mr. A. H. Whitmarsh, Rev. L. R. Walker, Rev. E. H. Moseley.

The following special committee on the report of the Campaign Committee was appointed: F. T. McFaden, Chairman; C. R. Nisbet, A. H. Withmarsh, W. H. Raymond, W. M. Everett.

These sub-committees and this special committee had before them, respectively, the annual reports of the four Executive Committees, the Woman's Auxiliary and the Campaign Committee.

In addition supplementary oral reports were made by Rev. E. W. Smith, for the Foreign Mission Committee; Rev. S. L. Morris, for the Home Mission Committee; Rev. Henry H. Sweets, for the Committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief; Mr. R. E. Magill, for the Publication and Sunday School Extension Committee; Rev. Homer McMillan, Rev. S. W. McGill and Mr. R. E. Magill of the Campaign Committee; and Rev. F. T. McFaden and Mr. R. E. Magill for the Assembly's Training School.

Foreign Missions.—Your Committee has carefully reviewed the report of the Executive Committee of Foreign Missions, and are much gratified at the excellent condition of our foreign work, and the greatly increased force given it during the past year. We would recommend that this Committee nominate to the General Assembly the following persons to serve for a term of three years on the Executive Committee of Foreign Missions: C. E. Diehl, D. H. Scanlon, W. A. Dale, A. D. Mason, and J. P. McCallie.

We most heartily join the Executive Committee of Foreign Missions in their recommendation to General Assembly as shown in numbers three, four, five, six and seven of their report.

As to recommendation number one, we do not deem it wise to enter upon this program, as it would seriously interfere with the Presbyterian Progressive Program. We do not believe the Church at this time would respond to this Church-wide Campaign for $2,500,000, without causing a failure in the general gifts which would result in certain debt and impairment of the work. We believe the wise policy is to develop equipment and support proportionately.

We nominate the Rev. Egbert W. Smith as Executive Secretary of the Foreign Mission Committee for three years.

We recommend that the following amount be apportioned to this Committee, namely, $1,498,500 for the year 1921-22, this being 33.3% of the whole, $4,500,000.

Campaign Committee.—Your Committee desires in the beginning to commend the diligence of your Campaign Committee, and the thoroughness with which every detail of this work has been prosecuted.

As evidence of the efficiency of this campaign, we call attention to the fact that the gifts to all causes are at least $500,000 more than ever subscribed before.

With six Presbyterian reports missing, the records show that the gifts for benevolences for the year closing March 31, 1920, were $3,943,452. Of this amount about five hundred thousand dollars was for miscellaneous benevolence.

Your Committee approves the holding of a Stewardship Conference the last week in July at Montreat, N. C., and would urge that diligent effort be made to procure the attendance of all the Synodical Managers.

We call attention to the fact that the recommendation of the Assembly as to one of the Executive Secretaries or representatives attending each Synod should present the whole budget, and not the cause of any particular Executive Committee, has been carried out, and reports seem to indicate that this method of presentation of the whole budget is growing in favor throughout the whole Church.

Your Campaign Committee has co-operated during the year with the Woman's Auxiliary, Laymen's Missionary Movement, and the Interchurch World Movement.

Since the detail of our co-operation with the Interchurch World Movement was referred by the last Assembly to the Systematic Beneficence Committee, we call your attention to the following report in full, outlining the plan of co-operation agreed upon:

The last General Assembly endorsed the Interchurch World Movement of North America, and referred the details of participation therein to the Systematic Beneficence and Stewardship Committee. (See Minutes of Assembly, 1919, page 69h, par. 7.)

Several members of the General Committee of the Movement, who had been selected from our Church, attended the preliminary Interchurch meetings, and reported to our Committee.

After full discussion it was decided to condition our participation in the Movement on their acceptance of the following suggestions:

Provided, First.—That "in so doing we desire to allow nothing to interfere with the prosecution of our Progressive Policy and Program for raising $12,000,000 for Benevolences."

Provided, Second.—That the Committee in each State, which shall handle the entire work of the Interchurch World Movement, be named by the authority of the respective denominations in the State.

We will nominate members for each Synod to serve until the meetings of the Synods, when the Synods shall name others, if they see fit. We hereby appoint the Synodical Campaign Managers of the Synods to serve till the Synod shall appoint a successor.

Provided, Third—That the budget for the financial drive be the combined budgets of the several Boards of the Evangelical churches, co-operating, in the Movement, and no other organizations.

All the conditions having been fully accepted by the Interchurch World Movement, the following were elected as members of the General Committee of the Movement to represent our Church:

Rhodes S. Baker.....	Dallas, Tex.
Rev. W. R. Dobyns.....	St. Joseph, Mo.
John J. Eagan.....	Atlanta, Ga.
Rev. Wm. Fred Galbraith.....	Chattanooga, Tenn.
Rev. A. D. P. Gilmour.....	Spartanburg, S. C.
Mr. C. E. Graham.....	Greenville, S. C.
Rev. Homer McMillan.....	Atlanta, Ga.
Mr. R. E. Magill.....	Richmond, Va.
Rev. S. Waters McGill.....	Chattanooga, Tenn.
Rev. Charles H. Pratt.....	New York City
J. B. Spillman.....	Columbia, S. C.
Henry H. Sweets.....	Louisville, Ky.
Rev. Jas. I. Vance.....	Nashville, Tenn.
Rev. Thornton Whaling.....	Columbia, S. C.

Dr. Vance was made the representative of our Church on the Executive Committee.

It having become apparent that the time of preparation for the canvass for funds was too short, it was determined by the Interchurch World Movement to fix the period of the canvass from April 23rd to May 2d.

To meet the situation caused by the selection of this later date, a meeting of the Systematic Beneficence and Stewardship Committee and of the Synodical Managers of the Progressive Program was called on December 30, 1919.

At this meeting it was decided to ask the Church to postpone the canvass in the churches to synchronize with these dates. One-half of the Synods agreed to do this, while one-half held to the old date in March.

It later became apparent to the Interchurch World Movement that in most communities within our bounds there would be only one denomination making the canvass during the period selected, and consequently the Interchurch World Movement decided late, and very reluctantly, that it would not be possible to have the joint campaign in the Southern States.

The Systematic Beneficence and Stewardship Committee authorized the Executive Committees of our Church to underwrite the expense of the Interchurch World Movement for amounts approved by their judgment. All four of the Executive Committees agreed to underwrite the expenses of the Interchurch World Movement to a limited extent—the Home Mission, $5,000; Christian Education and Ministerial Relief, $5,000; Publication and Sabbath School Extension, $2,500; the Foreign Mission Committee to 5% subject to the approval of the General Assembly.

The Committees were convinced that even should they be called upon to pay these amounts the Church would be amply repaid for this small investment, in the following ways:

1. The Survey: Facts and figures from the extension survey have proved helpful and stimulating. When these surveys are completed we will have a basis for future plans and work that will be of invaluable help.

2. Conferences.

(a) The Survey Conference at Atlantic City brought vision and inspiration and practical suggestions to all who were there.

(b) Other Conferences. The helpfulness of the Atlantic City Conference was carried down to laymen through the Pittsburgh Conference, to the Women through the Washington Conference, and to the Church at large through the Pastors Conference held in each State. These were followed by county and township conferences, especially designed to reach the laymen.

3. Publicity.

The duty and opportunity of the Church were presented in leaflets, bulletins, lantern slides, posters, conferences, advertisements, etc. Much of this was prepared too late to be of great service to us this year, but may be of great help later.

4. Safeguards.

It must be remembered that this is a co-operative movement of 30 denominations—a bringing together of the forward movements of all these Churches.

(1) No one may be on the Executive Committee or the General Committee except as he is acceptable to or recommended by his own denomination.

(2) All the forward movements are under the entire direction and control of their own Churches.

(3) No item may be included in any of the united drives except as it shall be endorsed and recommended by the proper Church agency.

(4) The Interchurch World Movement is not an administrative agency, each denomination securing and disbursing its own funds through its own agencies.

(5) Co-operation with the Movement does not commit our Church to any work except that authorized by our Presbyteries, Synods and General Assembly.

(6) Nor does our participation in the Movement affect the standards of the Church in any way.

Would recommend:

1. That we ask the continued co-operation of the Woman's Auxiliary, and of all the societies of the Church in the aggressive work of the Progressive Program.

2. That we ask the fullest co-operation of the Laymen's Movement.

3. As to our further relationship with the Interchurch World Movement we refer the matter back to the General Assembly for its will and instruction.

Budget for 1921-1922.—With reference to the suggested five-year budget, with a goal of $40,000,000, it appears from reports received from the Presbyteries that it is impossible to make up a budget for five years, and it further appears that the proposed five-year budget is not looked upon favorably by a large majority of our Presbyteries, we therefore rescind the action taken by this Committee December 30, 1919, relative to the same.

We suggest that the $4,500,000 already approved by the Assembly for benevolent work in 1921-22 be apportioned among the Synods on the same basis as last year as follows:

Alabama	$ 213,590
Appalachia	196,220
Arkansas	139,701
Florida	136,122
Georgia	341,787
Kentucky	248,366
Louisiana	136,714
Mississippi	201,126
Missouri	221,294
North Carolina	743,541
Oklahoma	38,074
Snedecor Mem.	9,428
South Carolina	355,754
Tennessee	239,382
Texas	465,414
Virginia	677,549
West Virginia	135,938

$4,500,000

That the following amounts be apportioned for the Assembly's causes for 1921-22:

Foreign Missions	$1,498,500
Home Missions	720,000
Christian Education and Ministerial Relief.....	337,500
Publication and Sabbath School Extension.....	90,000
Bible Society	27,000
Training School	27,000

Assembly's Causes	$2,700,000
Synod's Causes	1,800,000

$4,500,000

That the following percentages apply to any undesignated gifts:

Foreign Missions	33.3%
Assembly's Home Missions.....	16.0%
Christian Education and Ministerial Relief.....	7.5%
Publication and Sabbath School Work.....	2.0%
Assembly's Training School.....	.6%
Bible Cause6%

Total	60.0%
Synodical and Presbyterian Causes to be apportioned by each Presbytery and Synod.....	40.0%

We recommend the adoption of the following:

We are convinced that the Presbyterian Progressive Program provides the best way to finance the benevolent work of our Church, and in our opinion the Assembly's intention in adopting this Program was not only to finance the benevolent work more adequately, but also to relieve the executive agencies of the responsibility of raising the funds needed for their work. All special appeals of whatever kind interfere by so much with the Presbyterian Progressive Program. We therefore recommend that the Assembly forbid its Executive Committees, and all agents thereof, and the Woman's Auxiliary, any appeals for funds presented by letter, or through the Church press, or in any other way, except such appeals as have been considered and recommended by the Assembly's Committee on Systematic Beneficence and Stewardship, and approved by the Assembly itself, and included in the budget of the Progressive Program or otherwise definitely provided for.

With reference to the suggested outline program in the calendar for the year 1921-22, prepared by the Campaign Committee, we recommend that the next year's Committee print the same for use in the Churches.

Your Special Committee would record its commendation of the very great work done by Rev. W. Fred Galbraith, Secretary, and Rev. S. W. McGill, Campaign Manager, and also the efficient work done by the Campaign Committee.

We recommend:

1. That the Assembly record its appreciation for the earnest and self-denying labors of those who managed the Four Million Campaign in the Synods, Presbyteries and churches.

2. That each Synod, Presbytery and church be asked to maintain the organization which has so successfully conducted the campaign this year, and that this splendid force of workers be used in carrying forward the Assembly's Progressive Program.

3. That the Synods consider the advisability of securing managers for their full time to promote the objectives of the Progressive Program.

4. That the Assembly request the Presbyterian Committees of Systematic Beneficence, in making apportionments for the churches, to recognize the Assembly's schedule of percentages in providing for the Assembly's causes.

5. That the Assembly request Presbyterian and Synodical causes to bear their proportionate part of the campaign expense.

6. That the Systematic Beneficence and Stewardship Committee be urged to continue its emphasis on the cultivation of Christian Stewardship ideals throughout the Church, and to seek ways and means to lead our people to a clearer recognition and a fuller practice of the Christian's obligation of Stewardship toward God in possession, personality and prayer.

7. Finance.—That a budget of $75,000 be provided to carry through the campaign for $4,500,000, and that this fund be furnished by the Executive agencies of the Assembly, and Synodical, Presbyterian and Educational Causes in proportion to the benefit they receive from the united campaign.

Publication and Sabbath Schools.—We beg to state that we have given this report as much time as was at our disposal and find therein sources for pride in the work of this Committee, and ground for gratitude to God for the substantial progress of this branch of our great work.

We call your attention, not only to the $60,000 increase in sales for the year over last year and to the net profit of $54,000, but to what is more important than material profit, to the general expansion of the work in all of its activities, and especially to the very large percentage of additions on profession that come directly through the Sunday School into the Church. And this is as it should be.

Proper credit for this blessing under God's guidance should be given to this Committee and for the publication and distribution of Sunday School literature of the utmost value.

An examination of the Educational and Editorial Departmental reports shows the publication and very wide distribution of literature relating to Sunday School Work and Young People's activities of the highest value to these organizations.

We note with pleasure the effort of Dr. Glass, Mr. Magill, Dr. Lapsley and the staff of co-laborers, not only to meet the pressing needs of the Church today for literature, but to visualize for the need of tomorrow, recognizing that the Sunday School and Young People's Societies are the avenues through which our young people should come into the Church.

We must congratulate this Committee for holding down the sale price of its publications, and indeed, for getting paper at any cost, nor should there be surprise or censure if the cost of our Church Literature rises with that of the daily papers.

We note on page 8 of the report that the terms of service of five members of the Committee expire this year. We submit the names of these gentlemen to succeed themselves, and for the two vacancies, we submit Mr. Albert Sidney Johnston and Dr. W. B. Lorraine, both of Richmond. Mr. Johnston will fill the unexpired term of Mr. James W. Sinton, deceased, and Dr. Lorraine will fill a vacancy, making the Committee 15.

We believe no department of our Church has a more important work in its care than the Committee of Publications and Sabbath Schools, and for this reason the Executive Committee's annual report should be most carefully read in comparison with past reports. If at all possible it should be put in the hands of all Sunday School Workers with a special request that it be read.

We recommend that the quota of the Sabbath School Extension and Publication Committee for 1921-22 be $90,000, or 2% of $4,500,000.

We rejoice to hear from the Chairman of the splendid progress of the Assembly Training School in Richmond. We see the present and future possibilities of large service in this institution, and urge that its immediate needs for buildings and a support fund be laid upon the hearts of our people.

Christian Education and Ministerial Relief.—The receipts for the Committee of Christian Education and Ministerial Relief to March 31, 1920, were $283,371.13. This is an increase of $68,567.65 over those of last year.

One hundred and seventy candidates for the Ministry and Mission service received aid from the Committee to the amount of $18,638.50, as compared with 150 persons last year and $14,300.69.

In calling attention to the great need for increase in the candidates for the Ministry, the statement is made that there are nine Presbyteries containing 218 churches, 136 Ministers and 708 Elders, with a church membership of 18,826, in which there is no candidate whatever under their care. This situation should cause great anxiety and earnest prayer.

Funds for Ministerial Relief have gone into 292 homes during the past year, but only to the amount of $284.32 per family for the entire year.

Seeing our ministers and missionaries have been so sadly overlooked, and have literally worn themselves out in the mission fields laboring on insufficient salaries, it is a matter of common honor that the Church care adequately for them when on account of sickness or old age they are forced to retire both from labor and from income, and that the needy widows and orphans of those who have died shall be cared for. The care of these faithful servants of Christ becomes a supreme and foremost claim upon the Church.

We make the following recommendations:

First. That W. J. Rubel, G. H. Mourning, Wade Sheltman and A. J. A. Alexander be elected members of the Committee for three years, and H. P. Converse for one year.

Second. That the sum of $337,500 be apportioned to this cause for the year 1921-22. This being 7.5% of the $4,500,000.

Third. That the extensive and aggressive method of the Executive Committee of helping the youth of the Church to discover the plan of God for their lives be approved and be given all assistance possible by the pastors and Church officers.

Fourth. That we approve of the plans of the Executive Committee for carrying out the repeated instructions of the General Assembly to increase the Endowment fund for Ministerial Relief to at least $1,000,000, and the plans to meet the conditions of Mr. C. E. Graham who offers to give $200,000 to this fund if the whole Church will add $400,000 by December, 1920. The Church thus to invest $700,000 in the Graham Building (formerly the Heard National Bank Building) of Jacksonville, Fla.

Fifth. Inasmuch as the ministers have been leaders in the proper financing of all work of the Church, and in this Presbyterian Progressive Program, we recommend:

That the elders, deacons, laymen and women of the Church be called upon to assume the raising of this $400,000 under the direction of the Executive Committee with the help of the Laymen's Missionary Movement and the Woman's Auxiliary. That the session of each church see that on some Sunday in June or September this opportunity and responsibility be put before all our people.

Nominations to Membership on Assembly's Committee on Systematic Beneficence and Stewardship.—The following are the nominees, by Synods, for membership on the Assembly's Committee on Systematic Beneficence and Stewardship, the nominations being made at the meeting of the respective Synods in the fall of 1919:

From the Executive Committees—

Foreign Missions—Rev. Egbert W. Smith, Nashville, Ten.

Home Missions—Rev. Homer McMillan, Atlanta, Ga.

Christian Education and Ministerial Relief—Rev. W. Y. Davis, Louisville, Ky.; Mr. J. W. Rubel, Louisville, Ky.

Publication and Sabbath School Extension—Mr. R. E. Magill, Richmond, Va.; Mr. Robert M. Friend, Richmond, Va.

We recommend that the Assembly appropriate the sum of $250 or so much as may be needed thereof, for such expenses of the Committee over and above the expenses of members attending the meetings of the Committee.

Home Missions.—Your sub-committee appointed to examine and make recommendations upon the report of the Executive Committee of Home Missions, begs leave to report as follows:

We have examined the 54th annual report of the Executive Committee of Home Missions and commend it for its comprehensive review of the Home Mission task, and the development of the activities committed to it.

We recommend:

First. That, while we are grateful for the excellent work that is being done in Evangelism, and we express our appreciation of the work of Dr. R. F. Kirkpatrick, as Chairman of the Sub-Committee on Evangelism, we recommend that there be elected a Superintendent of Evangelism to give his entire time to the work, and whose duties shall be the same as authorized by the Assembly of 1914 for that office.

Second. That we recommend the election of Mr. John A. Burgess for a term of two years on this Committee.

Third. That we recommend the re-election of J. S. Foster, D.D., W. M. Everett, Chas. J. Martin, J. G. Patton, D.D., and J. R. McCain as members of the Committee for three years.

Fourth. That the following amount be apportioned to the cause, namely, $720,000 for 1921-22, this being 16% of the $4,500,000.

Fifth. That in reply to the paper of Dr. W. H. Miley referred to this Committee, we recommend that we express our sympathy with Dr. Miley in view of the financial difficulties that confronted the support of the Department of Evangelism while he was Superintendent, and that we refer him to the action of the Assemblies in commending him and his work during his term of office.

The Woman's Auxiliary.—The annual report of the Woman's Auxiliary reveals a year of great activity and very fruitful service and the Systematic Beneficence Committee records its grateful appreciation of the splendid co-operation of the organization in promoting the plans of the Progressive Program.

The Auxiliary has been most loyal in carrying out the directions and suggestions of the Church courts from the General Assembly down to the session and by a systematic course of education the women of the Church are being led to see their obligation to promote and support every activity and agency of the churches.

It is desirable that the Assembly shall make a deliverance which will secure the generous support of the women for all the benevolent causes of the Church, and at the same time provide a uniform system of making reports to Presbyterials.

We therefore recommend:

First. That the members of the Women's Societies make their regular contributions through the regular church collections as members of the church.

Second. That additional self-denial and sacrificial offerings (over and above the individual gifts through the church) be made through the Societies and that only such gifts be reported by the Societies.

Third. That the Women's Societies continue to include the whole program of the Church in their study, work and prayer, and in their budgets, and in the distributions of their gifts that they include all the approved causes of the Church on the percentage basis approved by the Assembly.

Montreat Association.—Your Committee to whom was referred the request of the Mountain Retreat Association, that the Assembly be requested to place said Association on the General Assembly's Budget for $150,000, begs leave to report as follows:

In view of the fact that the budget has been made up for the coming year, and no change could be made without interfering with the success of the Progressive Campaign and taking from the other causes and thus cripple the other departments of the Church, your Committee does not see its way clear to recommend this request to the Assembly.

It nevertheless expresses the hope that the Assembly may find some other way to raise the amount stated in accordance with the former action of the General Assembly.

General Recommendations.—That we report to the Assembly for information:

(1) There is a pressing demand by the Executive Committees for necessary equipment.

(2) There are several independent campaigns now in progress for objects already approved by the Assembly.

(3) We are convinced that some united provision should be made to meet this situation, but we have been unable to discover any wise plan which we can recommend, without injury to the Progressive Program.

A. D. P. GILMOUR, Chairman.

WM. FRED GALBRAITH, Secretary.

X. Report of Theological Seminaries

I. REPORT OF UNION THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

The Board of Directors and Trustees of Union Theological Seminary in Virginia respectfully submits to the General Assembly and the Synods of Virginia, North Carolina, West Virginia and Appalachia the following report for the session 1919-1920:

Rev. Edward Mack, D. D., McCormick Professor of Hebrew and the Interpretation of the Old Testament.

Prof. George M. Sleeth, Instructor in Public Speaking.

Dr. Caldwell, Clerk of the Faculty.

Dr. Johnson, Librarian.

III. Courses of Study.—Five distinct courses of study are offered, as follows:

1. The regular course, leading to the degree of Bachelor of Divinity.
2. A special course in English, leading to diploma without degree.
3. A post-graduate course.
4. A special mid-winter course for pastors and missionaries wishing to freshen up on theological questions of living interest and on modern methods of practical work.

5. A course of advanced studies leading to the degree of Doctor of Divinity. The Seminary confers this degree, not as an honorary title, but in recognition of proved attainments and eminent scholarship as evinced by the successful completion of prescribed courses of advanced post-graduate study.

IV. Special Lectures.—The James Sprunt Lectures by Rev. G. Campbell Morgan, D. D., of London, on The Ministry of the Word were heard by large audiences in our chapel in November, and have since been published in a volume under the imprimatur of the Seminary. During the Midwinter Ministers' Course in January, besides a month's instruction in Public Speaking by Professor George K. Sleeth, of Pittsburg, the Seminary enjoyed the benefit of three lectures on Stewardship by Rev. E. L. Hill, D. D., of Athens, Ga., and four lectures on Church Music by Professor Hubert Poteat, Ph. D., of Wake Forest College, N. C.

The Society of Missionary Inquiry has had the benefit of special addresses by Rev. Henry M. Woods, D. D., and Rev. P. Frank Price, D. D., of China; Rev. R. E. McAlpine, D. D., and Rev. Paul H. Kanamori, of Japan; Rev. J. N. Mills, D. D., of Washington, D. C.; Rev. W. A. Ross, of Mexico; Rev. R. D. Bedinger, of Africa; Mr. Wade C. Smith, of New York; and the five delegates from the seminary to the International Student Conference at Des Moines. The student body has been favored also with other addresses of value by such speakers as President E. Y. Mullins, of the Southern Baptist Seminary at Louisville; Rev. B. C. Patterson, D. D., of China; Rev. C. A. Logan, D. D., of Japan; Rev. J. Fairman Preston, of Korea; and others.

V. Students.—1. Number of students enrolled for the scholastic year, 94, as follows:

- a. Undergraduates—(1) Seniors, 20; (2) Middlers, 17; (3) Juniors, 35; (4) Specials, 5.
- b. Graduate students, 17.
2. Of the 94 students enrolled, 70 are college graduates, 15 have taken college courses in part, and 9 have had no college course.

3. Twenty ministers have been pursuing the course leading to the degree of Doctor of Divinity.

VI. Diplomas Awarded.—Diplomas, with the degree of Bachelor of Divinity, were awarded to the following members of the Senior Class:

Harold Thomas Bridgman, B. S., B. A., Richmond, Va.
 Edward Calvin Clyde, A. B., Augusta, Ga.
 Horace Newton Cunningham, B. A., Nacogdoches, Tex.
 Leonard Hugh Eikel, A. B., Fort White, Fla.
 George Rouse Faw, A. B., Staunton, Va.
 Walter Ellis Harrop, A. B., Lyndon, O.
 John Kemp Hobson, A. B., Point of Rocks, Md.
 Walter King Keys, A. B., A. M., Emmett, Tenn.
 Herbert Seth Morgan, A. B., Atlanta, Ga.
 William Paul Nickell, A. B., Clover, S. C.
 Raymond Howard Ratchford, A. B., Gastonia, N. C.
 Walter Gray Somerville, Mitchells, Va.
 Ernest Trice Thompson, A. B., M. A., Chareston, W. Va.
 Howard McEwin Wilson, B. A., Clover, S. C.

Diplomas, without the degree of B. D., were awarded to the following members of the Senior Class who have taken the full course in English:

Dan Hamilton Graham, Abingdon, Va.
 John Lytle McBride, Glade Valley, N. C.
 Peter James Murdock, A. B., Richmond, Va.
 William Brown Neill, Selma, N. C.
 Jean Andrew Vache, Philadelphia, Pa.

A diploma without the degree was awarded to James Robert Lowery Berry, B. A., Emmett, Tenn.

Certificates of proficiency in the parts of the course taken by them were awarded to Antonio Almeida, Recife, Pernambuco, Brazil.

 Frank Henderson Scattergood, C. E., M. E., Bristol, Tenn.

A post-graduate diploma was awarded to James English Cousar, Jr., A. B., B. D., of Bishopville, S. C., the Moses D. Hoge Fellow for the past session.

Diplomas with the degree of Doctor of Divinity were awarded to the following ministers who have successfully completed the prescribed three years' course of advanced post-graduate study:

Rev. John Eldred Flow, A. B., A. M., B. D., Alderson, W. Va.
 Rev. Martin Ryerson Turnbull, A. B., B. D., Richmond, Va.
 Rev. Louis Trezevant Wilds, Jr., A. B., B. D., Lexington, N. C.

VII. New Professorships.—The Board has established the Professorship of Religious Pedagogy and Sunday School Work, for which an endowment has been provided by a generous friend of the institution, and will at once proceed to secure a suitable incumbent of the new chair.

VIII. New Buildings.—The work on Schauffer Hall, the model Sunday School building, for which a kind friend has provided the sum of $125,000, was begun last summer, and though delayed somewhat by untoward conditions in the labor world, has made substantial progress, and it is hoped that it will be ready for occupancy at the opening of the session next October.

A new residence is also in course of construction on the campus, having two complete and separate apartments, one for the use of a professor and one for the use of the treasurer.

These buildings are constructed in the same substantial manner and of the same materials as those of the other buildings now on the campus, and when completed will constitute, with these, a handsome and harmonious group of eleven buildings exceptionally well adapted to the uses of a working seminary.

IX. Gifts and Bequests.—The seminary has received a large number of generous gifts during the year, contributions for current uses amounting to $8,822.89, and gifts and bequests to permanent funds amounting to $99,997.63. Total, $108,820.52. To all the kind friends who in this difficult time have given so liberally for the relief and help of the institution, the Board, in the name of the Church, expresses its most hearty thanks.

X. Finances.—1. Total amount of endowments:

Scholarship endowments	$174,583.31
Lectureship, Fellowship and other special funds	102,923.86
General endowments	608,486.93
	<hr/>	$885,994.10
2. Value of buildings and grounds (cost)		350,792.18

III. STUDENTS

The number of students enrolled for the year was 38, all of whom were pursuing undergraduate courses; no graduate courses were offered during the session. Conditions brought on by the war, and the smaller number of young men offering for the ministry, especially in the region from which this Seminary naturally draws most of its students, will account for the decreased attendance. It is gratifying to say, however, that the number of new students enrolled, with the return of several who had been in war service, is encouraging.

Eight young men were graduated on May 4—seven of whom received the degree of Bachelor of Divinity, and one the Diploma without the Degree, certifying to his having completed the regular course of study, with the exception of Old Testament Exegesis.

Bachelors of Divinity—

William Addison Alexander, A. B., Mississippi.

Vernon Andy Anderson, A. B., Alabama.

Harvey Rush Campbell, A. B., Missouri.

Charles Edwin Guice, A. B., Mississippi.

Alfred Andrew Post, Florida.

Paul McLauren Watson, A. B., Mississippi.

Milton Silas Weber, A. B., Missouri.

Diploma—

Ira Dean Holt, Arkansas.

VI. GENERAL.

1. The Board records with deep sorrow the loss to the Seminary of the Rev. Robert Alexander Webb, D. D., LL. D., for eleven years professor of Apologetics and Systematic Theology, and the Rev. Thompson McDonald Hawes, D. D., for twenty-six years professor of Elocution and Public Speaking. Dr. Webb passed away in his apartment at the Seminary in the early morning of May 23, 1919, and Dr. Hawes at Oakland, Md., on the morning of August 29, 1919. Services in memory of these Christian men and able professors, to whom the Seminary is so largely indebted, were held in the Harbison Chapel of the Seminary on October 25, and the quarterly Register of the Seminary for the third quarter of 1919 was made a Memorial Number to Dr. Webb, and that of the fourth quarter, a Memorial to Dr. Hawes.

In the emergency created by these bereavements the Board was favored in securing the services of Rev. Angus R. Shaw, D. D., as Acting Professor of Theology, and the Rev. Dunbar H. Ogden, D. D., as Acting Professor of Apologetics. The full course of Public Speaking was given by Prof. J. Gray McAllister, D. D.

The Seminary suffered an added affliction in the death on February 13, 1920, of Mr. Lattie A. Bain, of Dunn, N. C., a member of the Senior Class, and a young man of earnest piety and every promise of a useful ministry.

2. The Rev. Charles R. Hemphill, D. D., LL. D., President of the Seminary for the past ten years, and the first to hold this office, asked to be relieved of the duties of this position. At the meetings of the Board for several years Dr. Hemphill has expressed the desire to give up the presidency and to devote himself entirely to his professorial duties so soon as the financial condition of the Seminary would allow an addition to the staff, and an acceptable successor could be secured. These conditions appeared to the Board to be met, and Dr. Hemphill's resignation was accepted, with the proviso that he is to continue in office until a new president is elected and enters upon his duties. When his successor qualifies, Dr. Hemphill is to become Dean of the Seminary.

The Board proceeded to the election of a president, and the Rev. John M. Vander Meulen, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Oak Park, Ill., was unanimously elected to the office of President of the Seminary. Dr. Vander Meulen was reared in the Reformed (Dutch) Church, and his ministry has been given to this Church with the exception of five years as pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church of Louisville, and three years as pastor of the church at Oak Park. Dr. Vander Meulen has not yet given his answer to the call of the Board. In accordance with the Seminary's constitution, this election is reported to the Assembly for its approval or disapproval.

3. The Board proposes to make every effort to fill the Chair of Theology with a permanent professor before the beginning of the next session. Should it be unable to do this, it requests Dr. Hemphill to teach the course in Theology, and authorized the Executive Committee to engage any additional instructors that may be needed to maintain the full curriculum of studies.

4. The Board reports the founding of two scholarships of $2,500 each—one is established by a Presbyterian of Louisville, who wishes the name withheld, in memory of the Rev. Neander McAfee Woods, D. D., LL. D.; the other is the Wallace Lillard Lyons Memorial Scholarship, and is established in memory of Mrs. Lyons by her husband, the Rev. J. Sproles Lyons, D. D., of Atlanta, Ga., and her two sons, Rev. J. Sproles Lyons, Jr., and Mr. William Wallace Lyons.

Since the last meeting of the Board information has been received of two bequests to the Seminary. Mrs. Sarah S. Barnes, of Kansas City, Mo., has bequeathed one-half of her residuary estate to the Seminary on the death of her sister; and under the will of Mr. Henry B. Keene, of Washington county, Ky., almost all of his estate is bequeathed to the Seminary, subject to the life estate of his two sisters. It is expected that these bequests will eventually bring to the Seminary $100,000 or more.

5. The Board learns with great interest that a movement has been instituted for the publication of Dr. Webb's lectures on Theology, and expresses the hope that these matured studies of this great theologian may be given to the Church.

Respectfully submitted,
PEYTON H. HOGE, Secretary.

IV. REPORT OF AUSTIN SEMINARY

To the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, Presbyterian Church, U. S.:

The Board of Trustees of the Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary send the following annual report to the General Assembly meeting at Charlotte, N. C.:

It has seemed wise to the Board of Trustees not to plan to open the Seminary earlier than September, 1921. Since the report of last year there have been pledged to the Seminary's permanent funds $105,000. The date for payment on most of these pledges expires within the next eighteen months, when we hope to have most of these funds in hand.

Our property consists of five acres of land situated in Austin, Texas, upon which are the following brick buildings: Three-story dormitory and administration building, one-story dining room, and five professors' residences. There is no debt against these buildings.

Respectfully submitted,
E. T. DRAKE, Secretary of the Board.

Miss Mary Dupuy—Social Studies (School of Social Work and Public Health).

III. STUDENTS

There were enrolled during the year 62 students from eleven States and two foreign countries. Of these students 51 were registered as taking full courses of study and 11 as taking special courses. Teacher Training certificates were awarded 27 students by the Presbyterian Committee of Publication for having successfully completed the first year of the new Teacher Training Course.

Diplomas were awarded to the following full graduates, who had successfully completed the whole course of study at the Training School, covering a period of two years:

Robert Ann Bain, Dunn, N. C.
 Helen Mar Beall, Durham, N. C.
 Lillie Conklin Bringham, Houston, Texas.
 Mary R. Cumming, Wilmington, N. C.
 Mary Catherine Glauber, Madison, Ind.
 Clara Goodloe, Nelly's Ford, Va.
 Margaret Emma Harley, Rome, Ga.
 Sadie Mabel Harley, Rome, Ga.
 Ruth Lowman, Millboro, Va.
 Jean McAlpine, Nagoya, Japan.
 Mary Wilson McCown, Lexington, Va.
 Rowena Ora Williamson, San Antonio, Texas.
 Reba Lawrence Winston, Houston, Texas.

Certificates of proficiency were awarded to the following students who had been in the Training School for at least one year and had completed a majority of the courses offered at the Training School:

Mildred Cameron, Mallory, W. Va.
 Mary Knox Dickey, San Antonio, Texas.
 Sidney Williamson Kearfott, Kearneysville, W. Va.
 Estelle McAlpine, Nagoya, Japan.
 Louise Miller, Hartwell, Ga.
 Addie Belle Nicholson, Charlotte, N. C.
 May Abbott Cook, Danville, Va.
 Mary Pickett Horner, Lynchburg, Va.

IV. LOCATION OF GRADUATES

Of the students who are going out from the Training School into permanent work this year, 10 will engage in mountain mission work, 6 will go in the near future to the foreign field, 4 will become assistants to pastors in large city churches, and one or two will return to their home churches as volunteer workers. There has been a large demand for Training School graduates.

V. COURSES OF STUDY

From the copy of the catalogue which is attached to this report it will be seen that the curriculum, which covers a period of two years, is comprehensive in its scope. At the very heart of the whole course is the English Bible. A knowledge of the word of God in one's own language is an absolute essential for any Christian worker. Large emphasis is laid upon the method of Bible study. The head of the Department of English Bible has written a thesis, during the past year, on methods in Bible study, which should be put into print and given wide circulation. But stress is also laid on other subjects, such as Christian Doctrine, Missions, Sunday School Work, Woman's Work, Personal Work, Stewardship, Hygiene and Public Health, Social Teachings of the Bible, and Young People's Societies.

VI. GROUNDS AND BUILDINGS

In order to accommodate the rapidly growing student body, the Board of Managers have purchased an additional house since the last Assembly. The Training School now owns real estate fronting 250 feet on Chamberlayne Ave., a beautiful boulevard and the main thoroughfare leading from Richmond towards Washington; 470 feet on Westwood Avenue, fronting the campus of Union Seminary; and 400 feet on Seminary Avenue, a very attractive residential street. On this property are three large houses formerly used for residences and now used for students' dormitories. This property is finely located and growing more valuable each year. An insurance expert has recently advised the Board of Managers that the buildings alone are worth $45,000.00. The lots on which these buildings are located are, at a conservative estimate, worth over $30,000.00. This would make the whole property worth at least $75,000.00. The payments still due on this property amount to about one-third of its value.

VII. FINANCES

We are giving below a summary of the receipts and expenses of the Training School for the year ending May 15, 1920. It will be seen that we have made ends meet, made substantial payments on our property, and have a comfortable balance. This balance will be needed to meet necessary expenses during the summer months.

Mr. George W. Call, Union Bank, Richmond, Va., is Treasurer of the General Assembly's Training School.

VIII. THE NEEDS OF THE TRAINING SCHOOL

1. It needs an adequate income for current expenses. The growing number of students makes it absolutely necessary to have a larger number of professors who can give their whole time to the work of the Training School. But it is the policy of the school never to go into debt for current expenses. So it will be necessary to have a larger budget for current expenses before we can secure the new professors that are so much needed. Two years ago the Assembly placed the Training School among the Assembly's causes and the last Assembly put the Training School on the budget for one per cent. of all contributions to Assembly's causes. If the churches will make a full response to this action of the Assembly there will be an adequate income to secure the additional professors that are needed

2. There is immediate and pressing need of a new dormitory to house 100 students. It is impossible to admit all of the eligible students who apply. There are only seven places left in the school for students who may wish to register between now and the opening on September the 22nd. The residences which are now occupied by the students are needed for homes for our growing faculty. It is difficult to estimate the cost of erecting and equipping such a dormitory, but it would not be less than $200,000.00

3. Professorships ought to be endowed as rapidly as possible. The Training School is only six years old, and there is not an endowed chair in it. Four or five chairs ought to be endowed as soon as possible for at least $60,000.00 each.

The President's Chair, the Chair of English Bible, the Chair of Religious Education, and the Chair of Missions should be endowed at the very earliest possible date.

4. There is a pressing need for scholarships. As the student body grows and as the cost of living goes higher, there is an increasing number of promising students who need assistance.

The Woman's Synodical Auxiliary of Texas has endowed a scholarship whose principal now amounts to $2,300.00. A godly woman in Richmond has endowed a scholarship for $5,000.00. Several Presbyterial Auxiliaries and several individuals have provided annual scholarships which have been of great service. With a student body that is growing larger each year, we need more of these scholarships. There are many opportunities for students to render service to the Training School, and we have found it particularly helpful to the student and to the school to have scholarships which are to be awarded to students in return for service rendered to the school, with the understanding that such service is not to interfere with the student's regular studies.

IX. SUGGESTED CHANGE OF THE CHARTER OF THE TRAINING SCHOOL

Resolved, That whereas the Board of Managers believe that it would promote the welfare of the Training School, and add much to the efficiency of the Board, if its organization were modeled after the organization of the General Assembly's Executive Committees, changing the name of the Board from "Board of Managers" to "Board of Trustees," and making the Board to consist of fifteen Trustees, elected by the General Assembly for a term of three years, the term of five of the Trustees to expire each year, the Board to have the power to fill any vacancy in its number until the next meeting of the General Assembly; the Board to elect from its number the President, Vice-President, and Secretary of the Training School, with authority to elect either from its members or outside its members, a Treasurer and such other officers as may be necessary; and

Whereas, these changes cannot be made without amending the charter of the General Assembly's Training School for Lay Workers, incorporated; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Board of Managers do overture the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States to authorize the Board of Managers to (1) secure the necessary charter changes, which will be accomplished by amending Sections (d) and (e) of the charter as heretofore amended, and making said sections, when amended, read as follows:

(d) The number of Trustees who shall manage the affairs of the corporation shall be fifteen, who shall elect from their number the following officers: President, vice-president, and secretary of the corporation; and the Board of Trustees shall also elect a treasurer, who may or may not be a member of said Board of Trustees; and shall have the power to elect from its members or otherwise such other officers as may from time to time be necessary.

(e) The Board of Trustees shall be elected by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States. At the first election held hereunder, the General Assembly shall elect the said fifteen Trustees, five of whom shall serve for one year, five of whom shall serve for two years, and five of whom shall serve for three years, and thereafter all of said Trustees shall be elected for a term of three years, provided that every Trustee shall be entitled to serve during the term for which he is elected and until his duly elected successor shall have qualified, and provided that the Board of Trustees shall have power to fill any vacancy that may occur in the Board until the next meeting of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, at which time the General Assembly shall elect a Trustee to fill the remainder of the unexpired term, or the full term, as the case may be.

And (2) to make the necessary revision of the by-laws of the corporation, which will be accomplished by substituting for Article 1, paragraph 1 of the by-laws the following:

Article 1, Paragraph 1.—There shall be a Board of fifteen Trustees, who shall be elected by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church for a term of three years, and who shall serve until the election and acceptance of their duly qualified successors. The Board of Trustees shall be divided into three classes, with an equal number of members in each class. At the first election after this article goes into effect, those in the first class shall be elected for a term of one year; those in the second class for a term of two years; and those in the class for a term of three years. Thereafter, upon the expiration of their term of office, the members of each class shall be elected for a term of three years. Provided, however, the Board of Trustees shall have the power to fill any vacancy that may occur in the Board until the next meeting of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States; and provided further, that the Board of Trustees shall have no authority to apply for or make any change in the charter of the corporation, or in this Paragraph 1, Article 1, of the by-laws of the corporation, except as authorized by vote of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States.

Resolved further, That so soon as the General Assembly shall have approved of the proposed charter changes as hereinbefore set forth, and of the necessary change in the by-laws of the corporation consequent thereon, that a special meeting of the Board of Managers shall be called to take all proper and necessary action to have the charter of the corporation amended in the form and manner as proposed.

X. ITEMS WHICH REQUIRE ACTION BY THE ASSEMBLY

1. The election of a Board of Managers for next year.
2. The naming of three additional members of the Board if the charter is changed.
3. The approval of the faculty for next year.
4. Provision for adequately financing the Training School for next year.

Respectfully submitted,

F. T. MCFADEN, President of the Board,

WALTER L. LINGLE, President of the Faculty.

XII. Report of the War Work Council

The last General Assembly, in session at New Orleans, in continuing the War Work Council for another year, took action as follows:

"The Select Committee on the War Work Council made the following report, which was adopted:

"Your Committee has studied with some diligence the matter placed in its hands. Unquestionably a very large and difficult work was committed to your Council, and the Council has handled it in a very large way. The brethren of that body richly deserve the appreciation and thanks of the entire Church. None of us were without loved ones who were the objects of the Council's care. We note with patriotic pride and gratitude to God that in the supreme crisis, when all things worth having were at stake, Presbyterians of the South bore their part. They bore it as enlisted men and in organizations devoted to the enlisted men's care, physically, socially and morally. We remind the Assembly that, while the war seems over, yet the problems of reconstruction abroad and demobilization at home still remain.

"We recommend that the Assembly continue the War Work Council as at present constituted for another year, and that it be instructed to give its attention to the following matters:

- "1. The raising of $125,000 from the churches, of which $100,000 be given to the Protestant World's $3,000,000 fund for the rehabilitation of the ruined Protestant Churches of Belgium and France; that the remaining $25,000 be used by your Council in such reconstruction and conservation work at home as may be advisable and necessary. And since the last Sunday of October has already been designated as Reformation Day, with the 'Edict of Nantes' as a topic, that the Assembly designate said date as the one on which the above amount be raised.

"2. Such work in demobilization camps and remaining cantonments as may be possible.

"3. The conservation of the soldiers' experience for the Kingdom of Christ and his enlistment in the unselfish callings, especially missions and the gospel ministry.

"4. That, inasmuch as the Council is already engaged in compiling valuable statistics of the churches as related to the war, it is requested to complete the same.

"Respectfully submitted,

"D. N. McLaughlin, Chairman."

The Council has endeavored to carry out these instructions of the Assembly.

French and Belgian Relief.—In presenting the cause of French and Belgian Relief to pastors and churches, a large amount of literature, secured largely from the Federal Council of Churches without cost to us, was sent out. We also felt that it was worth while to place in the library of every minister of our Church a copy of "The Hand-book of French and Belgian Protestantism." These books were purchased at fifty-five cents a copy, and mailed to all our preachers. Inasmuch as the topic for Reformation Day was "The Edict of Nantes," it is believed that the volume was helpful in connection with the observance of the day, and promoted a wider proclamation of the heroic struggles and sufferings of Christ's faithful saints in one of the sternest eras of trial through which His people have passed.

The offering ordered on Reformation Sunday for Protestant Relief in France and Belgium amounted to $26,021.63. This, with the exception of $56.46 which was designated for other special causes, has been forwarded to the committees in these countries through the treasurer of the Federal Council. Contributing to this fund were 573 churches, 48 individuals, 17 societies, and 52 Sunday Schools.

The sum of $100,000 sought was our Church's share of the fund of $3,000,000 being raised by the Protestant Churches of North America for the sorely tried churches of our faith in these war-stricken countries. Inasmuch as the payment of the fund is to extend through a period of three years, our Church, in its payment of $25,495.17 this year, has measurably met what was expected of it for the past year. Provision, however, should be made by this Assembly for the raising of the remainder of the $100,000 from our Church. The need for this aid cannot be overestimated. If these stricken, weakened, depleted churches of the Protestant faith are to survive, we must come to their rescue. Out of our abundance it would seem that we would be swift and eager to respond. Strangely unmindful both of the lessons of history and of the teachings of Christ must that minister or church be who can face unstirred the condition of our fellow believers in Europe, and who needs either argument or plea to touch the heart and open the purse for their relief. This Assembly should see to it that adequate steps are taken to raise the remainder of the $100,000 asked of our Church for the relief fund for France and Belgium.

The War Statistics of the Churches.—The story of the part our Church took in the world war is partially told in the statistics which have been gathered through the questionnaires filled in and filed with us by pastors and church sessions. It is to be regretted that, notwithstanding repeated appeals, many churches failed to respond with the information sought, and our statistics are therefore to that extent incomplete. The following is a brief summary of these questionnaires:

The statistics, with a summary covering thirty typewritten pages and the annual reports of the War Work Council for the years 1918 and 1919, have been collected in six leather bound volumes and are presented by the Council to this Assembly for such disposition as the Assembly may elect. It is believed that the facts gathered and preserved in these volumes will not only be of profound interest but invaluable to future historians of our Church. A formal request has been received from the authorities of Union Theological Seminary at Richmond, Va., that the Library of that Seminary be made the Depository for these volumes.

Work for the Soldiers.—The mustering out of most of our soldiers has left comparatively little war work to be done. But four camp workers have been maintained during the past year. The work at the National Capital, the permanent camp at Fort Sill, Okla., the training camp near Fayetteville, N. C., and the post at Southport, N. C., have each claimed definite aid and a worker from our Church; and the opportunities for service at these points seem such as to warrant continuance. Especially is this true at Lawton near Fort Sill, and at Manchester near Fayetteville, where our Camp Pastors are doing a great work among the soldiers; and at Washington City, where the come and go of soldier life is incessant.

At Laredo, Texas, our Church was handicapped in its work for the soldiers by lack of equipment. The Council made a grant of $1,000 to this church toward the erection of an addition which could also be used both for Sunday School and social purposes.

Austin College, having on the honor roll nearly six hundred of her students who served in the war, is planning to erect a memorial tower, costing $15,000, to the memory of these sons who died in the war. The Council felt that a worthy use of some of the money remaining in our hands for war work would be this memorial on the campus at Sherman, and the sum of $1,000 has been sent to the treasurer of Austin College, to be a part of the fund for the erection of the tower. Should other of our Church colleges decide to erect similar memorials to the sons of our Church who made the supreme sacrifice, the Council feel that grants on a similar scale should be made if the funds permit.

Recommendations.—We would recommend as follows:

1. That the six volumes containing the War Statistics of the Churches be presented to Union Theological Seminary, to be kept in the library of that institution and to be accessible for purposes of reference.

2. That donations similar to that made to Austin College and in the same proportion be suggested for any other of our Church Colleges erecting memorials to their sons in the service, provided the funds in hand warrant such grants; no individual grant to be in excess of $1,000.

3. That the present work for soldiers at Lawton, Okla., Washington, D. C., Manchester, N. C., and Southport, N. C., be continued for another year.

4. That an offering be taken on Reformation Sunday, October 31st, 1920, for Protestant Relief in Europe and that the churches be asked to contribute $75,000 on that day to complete our fund for this cause.

5. That the name of the committee be changed from War Work Council to the Committee on French and Belgian Relief, and that such a committee appointed by this Assembly shall be charged with carrying out the foregoing recommendations.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES I. VANCE, Chairman.

XIII. Reports of Ad-Interim Committees

Report of Ad-Interim Committee on Revision of the Sessional Blanks

Your Committee appointed by the last Assembly to "revise and simplify the blanks for reports of sessions to Presbytery" submits the following report:

An extensive correspondence was carried on by the Chairman with the members of the Committee. Efforts were made to have a meeting of the Committee but failed.

We recommend the following:

1. That the column "Miscellaneous Benevolences" be taken out of the general heading "Benevolent Funds Collected" and placed as the last column in the blank and that the name be changed to "Miscellaneous Contributions."
2. That in accordance with the action of the last Assembly the name "Schools and Colleges" be changed to "Educational Institutions."
3. That the heading of the Statistical Blank be simplified by omitting the words "Systematic Beneficence."
4. That the questions of the Statistical, Sabbath School and Church Societies blanks be reduced and simplified as per attached blank.
5. That the Narrative Blank be changed to the form of a Questionnaire on Christian Life and Work, to consist of twenty questions, with subdivisions.
6. That the instructions to Clerks for filling out the Statistical Blank be changed to correspond to the changes recommended above. These changes are found in the attached blank.
7. That the form of all these blanks be so changed that they can be used on the typewriter. This recommendation is made in response to overtures to the Assembly in recent years.

Respectfully submitted,

Report of the Committee on Letter to the U. S. A. Assembly on Matters of Comity

Your Committee respectfully reports as follows:

The duties assigned to this Committee were, first, "to make thorough investigation of the matters referred to" in Overture 17, and, secondly, to "recommend suitable action to the next Assembly." (Minutes 1919, pp. 52, 53, 69j.)

I. INVESTIGATION AND FINDINGS

The Committee reports as the results of its investigations the following facts:

1. That in May, 1915, three complaints were lodged with the General Assembly concerning violations of comity on the part of courts or representatives of the Presbyterian Church U. S. A., one from Arkansas, one from Louisiana, and one from Texas.
2. That the General Assembly memorialized the General Assembly, U. S. A., touching these cases, sending to the latter Assembly a special commissioner.
3. That the General Assembly, U. S. A., received the special commissioner and memorial most cordially, and after due hearing in committee referred the whole matter to its Executive Commission, with power.

4. That at the same time the General Assembly U. S. A., directed its Executive Commission "to confer with any committee or other agency that may be appointed by the General Assembly, U. S., in a spirit of fraternal and brotherly kindness," and directed that this action be wired to the General Assembly U. S.

5. That the General Assembly, U. S., agreed to this proposition, and appointed a committee "to meet and confer  concerning the matters complained of in the memorial, * * * with a view to securing a righteous and satisfactory settlement of them." (Minutes, both Assemblies, 1915; Assembly U. S., 1916, pp. 20, 21.)

6. That this committee met the Executive Commission of the General Assembly, U. S. A., or a committee of that Commission a number of times during the latter part of 1915 and early part of 1916.

7. That these two bodies formed a Joint Committee, which, after full hearing of testimony and due weighing of facts, reached an agreement, on March 17, 1916, and submitted the same to the Executive Commission, with the recommendation that it be accepted and approved as a final settlement of the whole matter.

8. That on April 6, 1916, the Executive Commission of the General Assembly, U. S. A., received and approved this Joint Committee's report, and it was duly attested as "a final settlement of the cases under consideration in the judgment of both committees," over the signatures of J. Ross Stevenson, Moderator and Chairman, for the Executive Commission, with power, and W. McF. Alexander, Moderator and Chairman, for the General Assembly, U. S. (Minutes U. S. A. Assembly, 1916, pp. 211ff; Minutes U. S. Assembly, 1916, pp. 23, 183.)

9. That on May 19, 1916, this agreement and settlement was presented to the General Assembly, U. S., and received and approved by it with rejoicing and gratitude as in final settlement, when its terms shall have been carried out by the men and courts subject to the jurisdiction of the General Assembly, U. S. A., of all the matters involved. (Minutes Assembly, U. S., 1916, p. 22.)

10. That on May 19, 1916, this same agreement was submitted by the Executive Commission, U. S. A., to its Assembly (Minutes Assembly, U. S. A., 1916, p. 23), consideration of which appears to have been postponed and resumed May 22, 1916. (Minutes Assembly, U. S. A., 1916, p. 116.)

11. That on May 22, 1916, the Chairman of the Executive Commission, U. S. A., in the resumption of consideration of the Commission's Report, presented a statement supplementary to that part of the Report, Par. VIII, which dealt with Comity Cases with the Presbyterian Church U. S., which supplementary statement was received, approved and placed on record. (Minutes Assembly, U. S. A., 1916, p. 116.) This supplementary statement or "rider" was in the nature of an "explanation," which totally changed the meaning and terms of the agreement to which it was attached, "drawing its teeth," as one of the religious papers of the North expressed it. It in effect struck out the words "directs," "null and void," "further directs," "is directed," "enjoined," "judgment is as follows," and the like.

12. That this supplementary statement cited new testimony that had been taken between May 19, 1916, and May 22, 1916, from commissioners of the Assembly U. S. A., representatives of two of the judicatories concerned in the questions at issue, which testimony was purely ex parte, the other party not being present to cross-examine or offer rebuttal testimony which it could easily have presented. (Minutes Assembly U. S. A., 1916, p. 116, last par.)

13. That this supplementary statement was made to all intents and purposes a part of and of equal effect with the report to which it was attached, thereby totally changing the agreement that had been made March 17, 1916, accepted April 6, 1916, signed by the Moderators and Chairmen of Commission and Committee of the respective Assemblies, and promulgated from April 6, 1916.

14. That as a matter of fact, and presumably under the encouragement and authority of this "explanation" or "rider," none of the provisions of the agreement were carried out, and the violations of comity and causes of friction were left untouched. The "treaty," supposed to be in identical terms, was accepted precisely in the terms in which it was made and agreed upon in the General Assembly U. S., and was without notification practically changed in its terms in the General Assembly U. S. A.

15. That the General Assembly U. S., on May 24, 1917, called the attention of the General Assembly U. S. A., in a most fraternal and earnest communication, to this alteration of the agreement and to the subsequent failure to carry out the provisions of the agreement. (Minutes Assembly U. S., 1917, p. 53.)

16. That this fraternal communication was sent, not by wire but by mail, and not promptly but in the week after the two Assemblies rose, by the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly U. S., to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly U. S. A., as shown by the certificate of the first named Stated Clerk.

17. That this communication was received by the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly U. S. A., according to his personal statement to a member of this Committee.

18. That up to the date of the Overture, No. 17, in connection with which this Committee of Investigation and Recommendation was appointed, and up to the date of the appointment of this Committee, May 21, 1919, and up to the date of this report, May 20, 1920, no answer has ever been given to the respectful and fraternal communication of the General Assembly U. S., of 1917, so far as any report or any published records or Minutes of the General Assembly U. S. A., show. Meanwhile the Assembly U. S. A., held its regular annual meetings of 1918 and 1919 subsequent to its Stated Clerk's receipt of the said communication.

19. That the specific case which led to the sending of this fraternal communication to the General Assembly U. S. A., was an Overture from the Presbytery of Washburn (Minutes Assembly U. S., 1917, p. 53), which could not be answered until said communication was answered, and which Overture the General Assembly U. S., of 1918, again deferred answering, stating that courtesy required it to wait until a reply should be received from the General Assembly U. S. A., (Minutes Assembly U. S., 1918, p. 54), and deferring action until the Assembly of 1919. Again, in 1919, no answer could be given to the respectful Overture of Washburn Presbytery, and to this day it stands unanswered.

20. That the violations of comity complained of in the original correspondence and memorials, and supposed by the General Assembly U. S., to be adjusted by the terms of the identical note or agreement, so far from being stopped have been continued and to some extent in aggravated form, and that, in at least one case, by the order of the General Assembly U. S. A. itself. (Minutes Assembly U. S. A., 1917, pp. 48, 49.)

21. That the General Assembly U. S. A., in 1917, repeated its judgment, rendered at its previous meeting, that its own work was promotive of friction and hurtful rivalry, and then, on the statement of one member of the Texas Synod, U. S. A., that it was not possible to comply with the recommendation of the General Assembly, directed that the work go on, and directed its Home Mission Board to give all necessary support to it. (Minutes Assembly U. S. A., 1917, pp. 48, 49.) It is noteworthy here that the agreement accepted in 1916 read, "Directs that the said work be removed beyond the sphere of friction and hurtful rivalry."

22. That this inconsistent and unwarranted action, violative of the agreement entered into March 17, 1916, and April 6, 1916, was taken while the matter was a pending question in the two Synods, U. S. and U. S. A., in Texas, in which it was due to be settled even under the amended terms of the so-called "explanation" that was attached to the "treaty" that had been adopted.

23. That the orders to the various subordinate courts, subject to the jurisdiction of the General Assembly U. S. A., and conveyed in the agreement of March and April, 1916, have never been carried out in any case.

24. That the friction and hurtful rivalry have been so marked, through this failure to carry out the agreements entered into, that the work of the Presbyterian Church U. S., has been seriously injured in some cases, and serious difficulties and heart-burnings have been perpetuated.

25. That the purposes and principles of comity have by all these conditions been interfered with and violated, to the injury of the cause of Christ and to the disturbance of the peace and harmony of the Church.

II. RECOMMENDATIONS

The Committee makes the following recommendations:

1. That the General Assembly U. S., declare it to be its sense that the fundamental principles of fraternal correspondence are involved in this matter, and that it is essential to the maintenance of such correspondence that the bodies in such relations shall carefully answer each other's communications. Otherwise no friendly settlement of any question can be possible.

2. That the General Assembly U. S., declare its serious objection to and protest against any change or modification or "rider" attached to an agreement, and deplore the silence which has followed its calling attention to this matter and inquiring into it.

3. That the General Assembly U. S., re-submit its unanswered communication to the General Assembly U. S. A., with a preliminary statement, immediately, and by special delivery letter, asking reply during the sessions of this Assembly in Charlotte, as follows:

"CHARLOTTE, N. C., May 22, 1920.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church U. S. A., in session in Philadelphia, Pa.:

"DEAR BRETHREN:—With sincere desire to preserve the cordial relations of fraternity and correspondence which have marked our recent history, and which have caused us to come nearer together in heart and life and work, this Assembly asks your most kind attention to its communication of May 24, 1917, to which it has never received a reply and of which it finds no mention whatever in your Minutes of the years 1918 and 1919.

"This Assembly respectfully urges that the maintenance of the relation of fraternal correspondence depends upon a careful attention to each other's communications and the cordial observance of the solemn agreements that have been made between the Assemblies themselves or by their duly authorized representatives. This Assembly deplores the continued existence of many conditions which it faithfully sought in 1915 and 1916 to adjust upon the terms of the supposed identical note or agreement made on March 17, 1916, and approved and signed on April 6, 1916, by your Executive Commission with power.

"The communication of 1917, referred to above, and to which this Assembly again asks reply, was as follows:

"BRETHREN IN CHRIST:—We observe from the Minutes of your Assembly, 1916, page 116, Vol. XVI, that the form of the report agreed upon by our Joint Committee on Comity appointed by the Assemblies of 1915, which was presented unchanged to our Assembly of 1916, was upon presentation to your Assembly of 1916, so altered by the addition of an "explanation" as to convey the impression that the agreement was not mandatory upon the lower courts, but advisory.

"As a matter of fact, the findings of our Joint Committee in the specific cases giving rise to their appointment have not been carried out. This failure on the part of the subordinate courts under the jurisdiction of your Assembly to carry out the findings of your Executive Commission is a matter of deep regret to us, and we bring it to your attention in a spirit of frank Christian courtesy, asking that you give it the careful consideration that it deserves. We cannot but feel that the surest road to a more perfect comity lies through the proper adjustment of such cases and the removal of friction."

Report of Ad-Interim Committee on The Clearing House Plan and the One Executive Committee

The last two Assemblies have been insistently overtured to bring about a greater degree of co-ordination, economy and efficiency in the work of our Executive Committees.

The New Orleans Assembly of 1919 appointed an Ad-Interim Committee composed of three ministers and four laymen to bring in a report as to the advisability of having,

1. A Central Clearing House as presented in Mr. J. B. Spillman's pamphlet.
2. One Executive Committee as presented in the report of the Permanent Committee on Systematic Beneficence to the last Assembly.

Your Committee has met three times and has secured information from the four Executive Committees and from some score other denominational boards, besides from various individuals throughout our own Church. After earnest conference we present the following recommendations:

1. That the four Executive Committees of the Assembly be located in the same building, the property of the General Assembly, and function in close co-operation, but as separate Committees.

2. That one treasurer with one accounting system in this building receive and disburse on vouchers from the Committees all the funds contributed for the Assembly causes.

3. That the Executive Committees have membership representative of at least five Synods on each Committee and not over five members from any one Synod, and that no secretary be a member of the Executive Committees.

Signed J. P. McCALLIE, Chairman,
ERNEST THOMPSON,
C. A. ROWLAND,
NAT HARRISON,
B. R. D. LACY.

A minority report follows, signed by two members:

The undersigned members of the Ad-Interim Committee of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, appointed by the General Assembly of 1919 "to study the whole matter of the Clearing House Plan," represented in Mr. Spillman's pamphlet, and of the one Executive Committee as presented in the report of the Permanent Committee on Systematic Benevolence to the last Assembly, and report to the next Assembly, regret that they are unable to approve of and sign the report prepared by a majority of the Committee, and respectfully present the following as a minority report:

We recommend that for the present no action be taken touching any of the matters submitted to our Committee, for the following reasons:

1. Our Church is now giving more per capita to the causes of benevolence than any other Church in the country, with possibly one exception. When God is richly blessing our work as conducted, is it wise for us to tamper with the machinery whereby that work is done?

2. The advantages proposed from the change are purely theoretical. Is the present time of restlessness a time to change fundamentally our plans on such theoretical grounds?

3. Our Executive Committees are now made up in the main of trained and experienced men. To move them to one city would clearly lose to us a large part of this training and experience. We do not believe it the part of wisdom to sacrifice this very valuable asset, and to commit our causes involving the interests and very support of so many noble and consecrated workers, besides the interests of the Church at large, to new and untried men.

4. It is the judgment of this part of your Committee that some form of federal union is very soon coming to the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches of our country. If this be a correct judgment, it will carry with it changes of our Committees necessarily. Why should we change now in so fundamental a fashion, when we may change again in a year or two? Let us wait and see what comes of the negotiations for union, before we change our own machinery.

5. We believe that the proposed changes would mean a very decided and unwise step toward the centralization of power in the hands of a few in our Church. Such a tendency our Church has always feared and fought. To purchase increased efficiency at the price of centralized power is at too great a cost.

And even though the feeling against such centralization be regarded as largely imaginary and unwarranted, we know that it exists, and such consolidation, while it exists, would, we believe, injure the causes.

6. We doubt whether any one centre in our Church could furnish within a reasonable radius enough men of large ability, ample time and consecrated interest to make up all our Committees.

The work would either be left to a few, which would mean centralized power, or fall into the hands of men unfitted for the great responsibility placed upon them.

7. We do not feel that our Church is ready for so drastic a change as that proposed in the majority report. When the Church wants this change it will let its voice be heard. From our study of the movement we have not yet heard that voice.

For these and many other reasons we do not agree with the majority report. We disagree with reluctance, for we recognize that there are some admirable features in their plan. But we do not feel that our Church should make so radical a change at this time.

REV. JOHN M. WELLS,
REV. WILLIAM CROWE.

Report on the Work of the Deacon

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of the United States to convene in Charlotte, North Carolina, May 20, 1920.

The undersigned were appointed by the General Assembly in session in New Orleans in May, 1919, a committee to consider and report on the work of the Deacon. The committee was appointed in response to an overture from the Presbytery of Central Texas, "asking for the appointment of an Ad-Interim Committee to consider enlarging the work of the deacon, co-ordinating it with the work of the ministers and elders in the higher courts of the Church, to the end that the deacon may discharge his full duties in the management of the material affairs of the Church; and our courts, freed from these cares, have the opportunity to become educational and inspirational."

The committee has discovered that there is a conviction on the part of many in the Church that the office of the deacon should be dignified in the estimate of the Church and of the deacon himself, and that the work of the office should be made more spiritual in character, more efficient in its results, and somewhat broader in scope. The committee has also discovered quite a wide diversity of views as to the methods by which these objects may be attained, and as to the nature and extent of changes that should be made in the sections of the form of government that deal with the Diaconate. The committee has not been able to digest the various views and suggestions that have come to it, and to submit a satisfactory report on the whole subject. It must therefore content itself with reporting progress, and with suggesting that the consideration of the subject should be continued by the Assembly through an Ad-Interim Committee. If it should be the pleasure of the Assembly to act favorably upon this suggestion, and should it desire the present committee to be continued, it respectfully recommends that the committee be enlarged by the appointment of a member of the faculty of Union Theological Seminary, inasmuch as the present committee is constituted of the instructors in Church Polity in the other seminaries, and by the addition of one or more pastors.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES R. HEMPHILL,
RICHARD C. REED,
THOMAS W. CURRIE.

Report of the Ad-Interim Committee on Non-Resident Members

Your Committee respectfully submits the following report:

First of all we wish to call the attention of the General Assembly to the rather full report of this Committee which was adopted by the last Assembly. It is found on pages 18-20 of the Assembly's Minutes for 1919. It would make this report too long to reiterate the action of the last Assembly on this subject, but we do confidently believe that if ministers and sessions would follow the directions given by the last Assembly in regard to non-resident members that it would go a long way towards the solution of the problem.

It is rather discouraging to see how little interest the Church has shown in the subject of the non-resident member since the last Assembly. The last Assembly requested all the Presbyteries to set apart a definite time for the discussion of this subject and directed Stated Clerks of the Presbyteries to send to this Committee any practical suggestions which might come out of these discussions. Pastors and sessions were also requested by the Assembly to send suggestions to this Committee. We have received just one letter concerning non-resident members since the last Assembly. This indicates either that no one has a solution to offer or that the Church is not as deeply concerned over the problem of the non-resident member as the situation would seem to require. The statistical reports of the last Assembly show 48,356 non-resident members out of a total membership of 364,230. In other words, nearly one-seventh of the Church's entire membership is reported as non-resident. These figures are startling and ought to arouse ministers and sessions to do all in their power to remedy the matter.

As we have studied the Book of Church Order, especially paragraph 277, it has seemed to us that our Church has perhaps been more concerned in finding some method of getting non-resident members off of the active rolls of our churches than it has been in finding some method of conserving them for the Church. The responsibility of moving his membership is placed largely upon the member, and too little responsibility in the matter is placed upon the pastors and sessions. If we would remember that there is a good deal of turmoil and demoralization connected with moving from one home to another and from one community to another, we would realize more fully the necessity of the Church's taking careful and sympathetic pastoral oversight of members in such times of stress and loneliness and turmoil. With a view of placing more responsibility upon pastors and sessions, we are suggesting below some changes in paragraphs 276 and 277 of the Book of Church Order.

The last Assembly directed this Committee to prepare a pastoral letter to non-resident members, to be used by the pastor and session of the church in the community to which the member moves, in their efforts to induce the member to transfer his membership. We submit such a letter as a part of this report.

Your Committee would make the following recommendations:

1. That pastors and sessions be urged to carry out the directions of the last Assembly in regard to non-resident members.

2. That the Assembly approve of the following paragraph as a substitute for paragraph 276 of the Book of Church Order and send it down to the Presbyteries for their action:

"When a Church member shall remove his residence beyond the bounds of the congregation of which he is a member, so that he can no longer regularly attend its services, it shall be his duty to transfer his membership by presenting a certificate of dismission from the session of the church of which he is a member to the church with which he wishes to unite. When the church of which he is a member has no session, or for other good reasons it seems impossible for the member to secure a certificate of dismission, he may be received by the session upon other satisfactory testimonials, in which case the church of which he was a member shall be duly notified."

3. That the Assembly approve the following paragraph as a substitute for paragraph 277 of the Book of Church Order and send it down to the Presbyteries for their action:

"When a church member shall remove his residence beyond the bounds of the church of which he is a member into the bounds of another, it shall be the duty of the pastor and elders of the church of which he is a member, as far as possible, to continue pastoral oversight of him and to inform him that according to the teaching of our Book of Church Order it is his duty to transfer his membership as soon as practicable to the church in whose bounds he is living. It shall also be the duty of the pastor and elders of the church from whose bounds the member moved to notify the pastor and elders of the church into whose bounds he has moved and request them to take pastoral oversight of the member, with a view to having him transfer his membership. If a member, after having been thus advised, shall neglect for twelve months to have his membership transferred, his name shall be retired by the session to a separate roll for non-resident members and he shall be so notified. The name of any member whose residence has been unknown for three years shall also be retired by the session to this roll for non-resident members."

4. That the Assembly approves the Pastoral Letter to non-resident members which is attached to this report, and that pastors and sessions be urged to send copies of it to members who remove beyond their bounds, advising them to transfer their membership as soon as practicable. We also recommend that the Assembly direct the Executive Committee of Publication to print or type as many copies of this pastoral letter as pastors and sessions may need.

Respectfully submitted,

WALTER L. LINGLE,
RUSSELL CECIL,
R. E. MAGILL.

PASTORAL LETTER FROM THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH TO NON-RESIDENT CHURCH MEMBERS

Dear.....

We are addressing this letter to you because you have moved beyond the bounds of the church of which you are a member. In moving you left behind many things which were dear to you, and among these was your church. It is going to be hard for you to say the word that will sever your relationship with the church which you left behind. Many hallowed memories center there. Nevertheless we are writing to urge you as strongly as we know how to transfer your membership as soon as possible from the church beyond whose bounds you have moved to the church in whose bounds you are now living. There are several good reasons why you should do this.

First of all, loyalty to the church demands it. The Presbyterian church through its highest court has distinctly expressed the desire that you should transfer your membership. In fact it is not putting it too strongly to say that it is the law of the church that when a member moves from the bounds of one congregation into another he should also move his membership. We are sure that you want to be loyal to the expressed wishes of your church. From year to year nearly one-seventh of the entire membership of our whole Church is reported as non-resident. You can readily see that this is not good for the Church as a whole. In fact we have come to the point where the large number of non-resident members constitutes one of the real problems of our Church. You can help solve this problem in conforming to the expressed wish of the highest court of the Church by moving your membership.

A second reason for moving your membership promptly is loyalty to Christ your Saviour. You ought, without ostentation, take your first opportunity to confess Christ in the community to which you have moved. You can best do this by transferring your membership promptly and becoming a faithful and loyal member of the Church in whose bounds you are now living. The Master needs you there. If you neglect identifying yourself with His people and His Church, you are not as loyal and true to Him as you should be.

Your own Spiritual well-being is still another reason. You will grow more rapidly in grace by associating yourself intimately with God's people and by doing your share of the Church's work in your new community. Those who fail to connect themselves with the church in the place to which they move generally become cold in their spiritual lives and often neglect their plain religious duties. For the sake of your own spiritual life we urge you to move your membership and identify yourself in the closest possible way with the church in the community in which you now live.

The last reason we shall mention is your influence on others. If you fail to connect yourself with the church and neglect your religious duties, it will greatly lessen your Christian influence on those around you. Instead of helping them, you will be hindering them. You can help them most by connecting yourself with the local church and living as a faithful, loyal member of that church.

Therefore, for your own sake, for the sake of others, for the sake of the Church, and for Christ's sake the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church urges you to transfer your membership as soon as possible to the church in whose bounds you are now living. You can make this transfer by writing to the pastor or session of your old home church for a letter of dismission. Or ask the pastor of your local church to write for your letter, and he will gladly do it.

This letter was written by order of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States and approved by the General Assembly.

Report of the Committee on Closer Relations

The Ad-Interim, Committee on Closer Relations with Other Churches of Like Faith and Order offer the following report:

History of the Negotiations.—A sketch of the negotiations of previous Committees leading up to the work of this Committee.

1917-1918.—The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America in session May, 1917, sent a communication to our Assembly, in session at the same time, proposing a conference of the two Churches on organic union, the conference to be conducted by Committees appointed by their respective Assemblies. Our Assembly made the following reply to this communication:

"While this Assembly does not regard organic union as practicable at this time, yet it hereby appoints the Committee of Conference on Union asked for by the Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., and recommends to the proposed conference the consideration of the Federation of all the Presbyterian Churches of our country upon some practical and effective basis."

After a series of conferences between the Committees of the two Churches, our Committee reported to the General Assembly in 1918 as follows:

"It is the judgment of your Committee that neither organic union nor federal union at present can be effected.

"We would recommend, however, that the Assembly accede to the request of the Committee of the U. S. A. Church that your Committee be continued another year to receive any added light that may be had and make final report to the Assembly of 1919."

1918-1919.—The Assembly approved this report and took the following action expressing its judgment on the question before the Church and providing for the appointment of a committee to continue the conference:

"The Assembly goes on record as opposing organic union at this time, but as approving the idea of a federal union of all Presbyterian and Reformed Churches in the United States.

It is ordered that the Committee be enlarged so as to include one member from each Synod.

That these committeemen be selected by the commissioners present from the Presbyteries constituting their respective Synods.

That this Committee select its own chairman."

The result of the year's labors of the Committees of the two Assemblies was the adoption by both Committees of a "Plan of Federal Union" to be presented to the two Assemblies. This Plan proposed a federation of all the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches in the United States that might choose to join such federation. It is printed in full in the Minutes of the General Assembly of 1919. This Plan of Federal Union was adopted by the Committees of both Churches by vote of all present except one member of our Committee and two members of the Committee of the Church U. S. A.

1919-1920.—Majority and minority reports on the subject came before the Assembly of 1919. The Assembly having heard both reports referred them, together with certain overtures and communications on the same subject, to a Select Committee composed of one from each Synod. The Select Committee presented majority and minority reports to the Assembly. The minority report, signed by four members, recommended the adoption of the Plan of Federal Union prepared by the Ad-Interim Committees as a working basis from which Committees of co-operating Churches could form a Constitution for a Federal Union. This minority report was rejected by the Assembly. The majority report was adopted embracing the following recommendations:

"First.—That the majority and minority reports, with all other papers that have been in its hands, be referred to an Ad-Interim Committee which, in conjunction with similar committees from one of our sister Churches of like faith and order, shall consider the whole question of closer relations.

"Second.—That whatever plan or plans this Ad-Interim Committee shall decide to report to the General Assembly, shall be formulated in the most definite terms possible, and that this Ad-Interim Committee shall make its report to the next General Assembly.

"Third.—That this Ad-Interim Committee be instructed to publish in the Church papers, not less than two weeks prior to the meeting of the Assembly, the plan or plans to be submitted by them to that body.

"Fourth.—That this Ad-Interim Committee shall be composed of one member from each Synod, who shall be nominated by their respective Synods and reported to the Moderator, to be appointed by him. The Moderator shall designate the convener as well as the time and place of the first meeting of this Ad-Interim Committee. And in case of the inability of the Moderator to act, the Stated Clerk shall perform these duties. This action of the Assembly shall be promptly communicated to the Synods by the Stated Clerk of the Assembly.

"Fifth.—In case the discussions of closer relations between this Church and any other Church shall contemplate organic union, the attention of the Ad-Interim Committee is directed to past deliverances of and reports of this Assembly touching such matter, and it is advised that the Assembly and the Church would view with uneasiness any structure of Union which failed to take into account and safeguard in the United Church the historic convictions and position of this Church with respect to sound doctrine, just and effective discipline, the plenary inspiration and inerrancy of the Scriptures, the vicarious atonement, the spiritual mission of the Church and its obligation to abstain from interference in matters purely of civil or political concern, its position as to its negro constituency in the South, and other matters of like interest and importance."

In accordance with this action of the Assembly, the Moderator announced in due course of time that the several Synods had nominated and he had appointed as members of the Ad-Interim Committee the following persons:

Synods.	Principals.	Alternates.
Alabama	Thornton Whaling, D. D...	R. H. McCaslin, D. D.
Appalachia	John A. Buchanan (R. E.)	R. F. Campbell, D. D.
Arkansas	John Van Lear, D. D....	C. H. H. Branch, D. D.
Florida	E. D. Brownlee.....
Georgia	Homer McMillan, D. D.....
Kentucky	Dunbar H. Ogden, D. D...	A. J. A. Alexander, M. D. (Ruling Elder)
Louisiana	George Summey, D. D....	J. F. McKenzie.
Mississippi	J. B. Hutton, D. D.....
Missouri	W. R. Dobyns, D. D.....	C. R. Nisbet, D. D.
North Carolina	J. M. Wells, D. D.....
Oklahoma	E. Brantly, D. D.....	W. A. Zeigler.
Snedecor Memorial	I. C. H. Champney, D. D.....
South Carolina	H. Tucker Graham, D. D...	W. F. Stevenson (Ruling Elder)
Tennessee	A. B. Curry, D. D.....
Texas	T. A. Wharton, D. D.....	Robert Hill, D. D.
Virginia	A. M. Fraser, D. D.....	Russell Cecil, D. D.
West Virginia	Ernest Thompson, D. D...

The Moderator appointed the Rev. J. M. Wells, D. D., of North Carolina, as convener of the Committee and issued a call for the first meeting to be held in Memphis, Tennessee, on January 21, 1920.

Memphis Meeting.—The first meeting of the Committee was held therefore in Memphis, Tennessee, and was called to order by the official convener, the Rev. J. M. Wells, D. D., the Committee effected a permanent organization by electing A. M. Fraser as Chairman, Dr. J. M. Wells as Vice-Chairman, and Dr. Homer McMillan as Secretary. Judge Buchanan was providentially hindered from attending any sessions of the Committee and Dr. R. F. Campbell, his alternate, took his place. Both Dr. Dobyns and Dr. Nisbet, his alternate, were providentially hindered from attending the Memphis session. All other members were present.

All the papers referred by the Assembly to this Committee were duly presented and considered.

The following paper was adopted:

"That the Chairman of this Committee be instructed to send the following Resolution to the Committees on Closer Relations of all the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches in the United States:

'Acting under instructions of our General Assembly of 1919, our Committee on Closer Relations is ready to confer with you and all other Presbyterian and Reformed Churches in the United States on the matter of Closer Relations.'

The Committee took formal cognizance of the five methods of Closer Relations mentioned in the report of the Select Committee of the last Assembly. The following resolution was adopted:

"That the five courses of action mentioned by the Select Committee of the Assembly (page 47, Assembly Minutes) be taken up and considered seriatim; and that after free and sympathetic discussion of each course, if the Committee be fully ready, a vote shall be taken on that course, but if there is a feeling that the Committee is not ready to vote, a Committee may be appointed to complete and perfect that plan for our further consideration."

After protracted and thorough discussion of the several forms of closer relations the following resolution was adopted:

"That Dr. Campbell be requested to draft the Plan of Federal Union, Dr. Ogden the Plan of *Regional Assemblies, and Dr. Wells the Federal Regional Assembly Plan; to be presented at the next meeting of the Committee to be held one day preceding the General Conference, and that these drafts be sent to the members of the Committee as soon as completed."

On motion the phrasing of the article concerning property in the Regional Assemblies plan was referred to Judge J. A. Buchanan, a member of the Committee.

The Chairman was instructed to fix the date of the joint conference, after consultation with the chairmen of the other Committees, and the Committee expressed its preference for Washington, D. C., as the place. After the adjournment of the Committee the Chairman addressed the following invitation to each of the eleven other Presbyterian and Reformed Churches in the United States through their several Committees on Closer Relations or their Stated Clerks:

"The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, in session in New Orleans, Louisiana, May 15th to 22nd, 1919, took order for the appointment of 'an ad-interim committee which, in conjunction with similar committees from one or more of our sister Churches of like faith and order, shall consider the whole question of closer relations.'

At a meeting of this Committee, held in Memphis, Tennessee, January 21st, 1920, I had the honor to be elected Chairman, and in the following resolution I was instructed to invite Committees of other Presbyterian and Reformed Bodies to meet with our Committee in a conference on closer relations:

"That the Chairman of this Committee be instructed to send the following Resolution to the Committees on Closer Relations of all the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches in the United States:

'Acting under instructions of our General Assembly of 1919, our Committee on Closer Relations is ready to confer with you and all other Presbyterian and Reformed Churches in the United States on the matter of Closer Relations.'

*The word "Regional" is hereafter substituted for "Provincial."

I was further instructed to fix the time and place of the conference after consultation with the Chairmen of the Committees of other Churches.

The Committee requested me to secure the conference at as early a date as practicable, and designated Washington City as its choice of a place for the holding of the Conference. In fixing the time and place, I wish to be guided by the preference of a majority, or at least a plurality of the Committees concerned. Would February 18th or 25th, or March 3rd or 10th, be most agreeable to your Committee? What would be your choice of a place?

Our Assembly recognized five different methods of closer relations which would be proper subjects for the consideration of the proposed conference of Committees, viz.:

1. "Complete Organic Union."
2. "Organic Union according to the so-called 'Synodical Plan' (with an Assembly composed of Commissioners elected by Synods rather than by Presbyteries)."
3. "Organic Union on the basis of Provincial Assemblies—with one Supreme National Assembly as the cap-stone of the System."
4. "A Federal Body, having only advisory powers—inspirational in its influences, serving as a kind of clearing house for the sentiments of fraternity and comradeship that dwell in the Presbyterian heart."
5. "A Federal Union with clearly defined powers and responsibilities and which, at the same time, conserves the autonomy of the constituent Churches in doctrine and discipline as well as in all other matters of local interest, including the tenure of Church property and other material assets."

On behalf of the Committee of my Church, I hereby invite the Committee on Closer Relations of your Church to join us in the conference described, at the time and place to be fixed by a consultation. In extending this invitation, I beg leave to assure you that it is the earnest wish of our Committee to meet with yours and to discuss with you the whole subject of closer relations, with such frankness as to ascertain if there be not some satisfactory way by which the several Presbyterian and Reformed Churches in the United States may be brought into cordial and effective co-operation in the great task which we have in common.

On behalf of the Committee,

A. M. Fraser, Chairman."

Replies were received from all of these sources, except the Cumberland Presbyterian Church (colored). Of those replying three had no committees through which they could enter such a conference but expressed an interest in it; four declined to join the conference, and three accepted the invitation. The three accepting were the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, The United Presbyterian Church, and the Reformed Church in the United States. A joint conference was called to meet in Atlantic City on March 4th.

Washington Meeting.—Our own Committee met in separate session in Washington, March 3rd, with all members present but three. Touching the subject of "Complete Organic Union" (No. 1 in the list of the Assembly) the following action was taken:

"Under the power given it by the General Assembly, the Committee is willing to consider this form of union with any other Presbyterian Body desiring it."

Those appointed at the Memphis meeting to draft papers embodying the several plans of Closer Relations presented the papers they had prepared as follows: Dr. Campbell presented a Plan of Federal Union, Dr. Ogden a Plan of Union through Regional Assemblies and Dr. Summey read the paper on the Federal Regional Assembly Plan prepared by Dr. Wells, who was providentially detained from the meeting. Dr. Ogden also offered a suggested Plan of Union through Regional Assemblies or General Synods. The following resolution was adopted:

"That the Committee in meeting the Committees of the U. S. A. and other Churches express its willingness to discuss and carefully consider any plan of Closer Relations which said Committees may present; but expresses its preference for some form of Federal Union, and hereby appoints Dr. Campbell to present such plan."

Dr. Dobyns recorded his vote in opposition to this.

The following resolution was also adopted:

"That this Committee is prepared to consider earnestly and fully any form of Closer Relations that will safeguard these points, viz.:

1. The autonomy of the Churches.
2. The system of doctrine contained in the Westminster Confession of Faith and the Catechisms.
3. The protection of all existing property rights.
4. The complete separation of Church and State.
5. Separate Synods and Presbyteries for the colored people."

Dr. Dobyns and Dr. Ogden recorded their votes against this resolution.

The Committee expressed its willingness to hear any proposition on Plan 4 of the Assembly's list, "A Federal Body Having only Advisory Powers."

Atlantic City Meeting.—The Joint Conference of Committees on Closer Relations was held in Atlantic City, beginning March 4th. There were present ten members of the Committee of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, four from the Commission of the Reformed Church in the United States, one from the Committee of the United Presbyterian Church and fourteen from our own Committee. The Conference was organized by the election of the Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D., as Honorary Chairman, the Rev. A. M. Fraser as Chairman, and the Rev. Homer McMillan, D.D., and the Rev. R. W. Miller, D.D., as Secretaries.

A representative of each of the four Churches taking part in the Conference explained the attitude of his Church toward Closer Relations. The Conference then decided to take up and discuss separately each of the five plans of Closer Relations specified by the Assembly of our Church. The five plans, together with the papers on the several subjects prepared in our Committee, were considered in succession, and with the utmost diligence, patience and thoroughness. On reassembling after separate sessions the Committee of the Presbyterian Church U. S. A., presented the following paper:

"The Committee on Co-operation and Union of the U. S. A. Presbyterian Assembly after giving due consideration to the different methods of closer relations as suggested by this afternoon's conference would report as follows:

"1. According to the instructions of the General Assembly our Church prefers complete organic union and stands ready to give favorable consideration to any proposition which looks in that direction.

"2. As to the plan which contemplates a Federal Body or Union we believe that it would not commend itself to a majority of our Church.

"3. In the light of this afternoon's discussion it seems to us that we can come to an agreement on some plan of modified organic union. We are therefore prepared to consider 'Organic Union' according to the so-called 'Synodical Plan' (No. 2, Circular Letter) suggested by members of the U. S. Committee and we propose that this plan be now presented for more detailed discussion."

The Committee of the Reformed Church in the United States reported in favor of a Plan of Union following lines of the plan proposed in 1911 between the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America and the Reformed Church in the United States. Upon request by the Conference, Dr. Ogden presented a Plan of Union through Regional Assemblies or General Synods. The three other Committees in this Conference declared their preference for the Synodical Plan of Organic Union and the Committee of our Church announced its readiness to discuss the Synodical Plan or any other that might be proposed. The Synodical Plan was then considered item by item. The Regional Assembly Plan was also considered. On reassembling after separate sessions, the following resolutions were introduced, the one by Dr. Marquis, of the Committee of the Church U. S. A., and the other by the Committee U. S.:

First.—"That a Sub-Committee representing all bodies participating be appointed to prepare a plan of union on the Synodical or Regional Assembly idea, and report to this Conference on or near March 16 or when the Sub-Committee is ready to report."

Second.—"That this Committee say to the Joint Conference that it does not look with favor upon the Synodical Plan but it would suggest that we refer to a Joint Sub-Committee to be appointed the Plan for a Federal Union presented by the Committee of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S., and also the proposed Regional Assembly Plan."

Both of these resolutions were referred to a Joint Sub-Committee composed of three representatives from each of the Churches participating in this Conference, each Committee to select its own representatives. The following persons composed the Sub-Committee:

Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.—Drs. J. Ross Stevenson, H. G. Mendenhall and C. R. Erdman.

Reformed Church in the U. S.—Drs. G. W. Richards and R. W. Miller.

United Presbyterian Church.—Dr. W. I. Wishart.

Presbyterian Church in the United States.—Drs. R. F. Campbell, D. H. Ogden and A. M. Fraser.

The Reformed Church in America was unanimously invited to participate in the Conference and to appoint members on the Joint Sub-Committee, and Dr. Homer McMillan was appointed to convey this invitation in person to the Committee of that Church. That Committee, however, was not able to accept the invitation because the terms of its appointment did not permit it to engage in negotiations having Organic Union in view, but limited its authority to the discussion of Federation or Co-operation.

Philadelphia Meeting.—The Joint Sub-Committee held two meetings in Philadelphia March 17th and 18th with all the members present except Dr. W. I. Wishart, of the United Presbyterian Church, whose place was taken by Dr. D. F. McGill. These conferences were of the freest nature and every one present took some part in them. Our three representatives in the Joint Sub-Committee could not promise that our Church was ready to adopt "Organic Union according to the Synodical Plan." It was stated by those representing the other three Churches taking part in the conference that none of those Churches were prepared to adopt either "Organic Union according to the Plan of Regional Assemblies" or the "Plan of Federal Union" prepared by our Committee. The Sub-Committee therefore found it unnecessary to prepare plans embodying any one of these three forms of Closer Relations, the only aspects of the subject with which it had been formally authorized to deal. The Sub-Committee, however, did take up another aspect of the subject and with the entire approval, subsequently given, of the several Committees appointing them. It unanimously agreed to recommend to the Joint Conference, and to the several Committees and Commissions composing it, the adoption of the Plan of Federal Union prepared by the Council of Reformed Churches, amended by the addition of certain paragraphs taken from the "Plan of Federal Union" prepared by this Committee. That "Plan of Federal Union" as later revised and amended will appear in full in this report before it closes.

Louisville Meeting.—A Joint Conference was held in Louisville, Ky., April 7th, to consider the report of the Sub-Committee, and as preliminary to this, our own Committee held several meetings in that city on the same day. At the Joint Conference all the Committees reported that the agreement reached by the Joint Sub-Committee in Philadelphia had been approved. The Plan reported by the Joint Sub-Committee was then referred to the several Committees for more detailed consideration in separate sessions. Our own Committee, at separate sessions, examined the Plan proposed by the Sub-Committee with the greatest minuteness and care and submitted to the Joint Conference a number of additional amendments. In a meeting of the Joint Conference the following paper was presented to the Committee of the Presbyterian Church U. S., by the Committee of the Presbyterian Church U. S. A.:

"If it is possible for your Committee to adopt the proposed Plan of Federal Union of the Council of Reformed Churches, we are willing to recommend its adoption to our whole Committee which meets during our Assembly in Philadelphia."

To this the Committee of the Presbyterian Church U. S., adopted the following reply:

"That we approve the Plan of Federal Union proposed by the Council of Reformed Churches, and amended by ourselves, and recommend it to the General Assembly for adoption."

The following is the Plan of Federal Union proposed by the Council of Reformed Churches and amended by ourselves. We hereby recommend that the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States take whatever steps it may deem constitutional and proper for the adoption of the same and for putting it into effect.

PLAN OF UNION

(A plan proposed by the Joint Conference on Closer Relations as a substitute for the plan contained in the Report of the Committee previously submitted.)

The Presbyterian and Reformed Churches in the United States of America, desiring to evince and develop their spiritual unity, and to promote closer relations and more effective administrative co-operation among these Churches, hereby adopt a Preamble and a Basis of Union.

Preamble.—The Presbyterian and Reformed Churches in the United States of America represent the same type of Evangelical Protestant Christianity, commonly known as Reformed or Calvinistic. The Churches of the Reformation in Europe, to which they are historically related, originated in different lands and passed through different experiences, which differences by reason of nationality and languages appear in the forms of the original Standards of the several Churches. We, therefore, with clear understanding of the nature of such differences, hereby declare our conviction that the Westminster Confession of Faith and Catechisms, the Belgic Confession, the Heidelberg Catechism and the Canons of the Synod of Dort are in essential agreement, and are different expressions of one and the same system of doctrine. This doctrinal agreement appears in the recognition, in all the symbols, of the fundamental doctrines of evangelical Christianity as held by the Reformed or Calvinistic Churches, and also in the use made of the Apostles' Creed, the Ten Commandments, the Lord's Prayer, and the Catechisms of the several Churches, for the instruction of the youth of their congregations.

Basis of Union.—I. The Doctrinal Basis of the Assembly shall be the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments acknowledged as the inspired Word of God and the only infallible rule of faith and practice, with the common system of doctrine as set forth in the existing Standards of the constituent Churches.

2. The Principles of the Forms of Government and the Constitutions including the terms of doctrinal subscription of the several Churches uniting, are recognized as a part of the Basis of Union.

3. The Directories of Worship of the several Churches shall be a part of the basis of union to the extent that congregations shall have the same freedom of worship both as to forms and usages, under the United Assembly, as they had before the Union.

Articles of Agreement.—1. The "United Assembly" to be constituted shall have the title, "The United Assembly of the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches in the United States of America." It shall represent in one body all the Churches united therein and shall constitute the bond of union, peace and correspondence among all the congregations and courts of the constituent Churches. It shall be the declarative, executive, administrative and judicial agency of the United Churches, and shall possess the ecclesiastical powers hereinafter delegated to it.

2. The United Assembly shall consist of eight representatives from each of the constituent Churches, for each one hundred thousand communicants or fraction thereof up to three hundred thousand; and when a Church has more than three hundred thousand communicants, then eight representatives for each additional two hundred thousand communicants or major fraction thereof. These representatives shall be ministers and ruling elders in equal numbers and shall be chosen with their alternates under the direction of their respective Churches, in such manner as their Churches shall respectively determine.

3. Every Church entering into this Union retains its distinct individuality, its own creed, government and worship, as well as every power, jurisdiction and right, which is not by these Articles expressly and exclusively delegated to the body hereby constituted.

4. Subject to the more detailed enumeration of its powers, to be set forth in a formal constitution to be adopted by the legal action of the constituent Churches, the powers to be delegated to the United Assembly shall be in substance as follows:

(a) To receive into the United Body any other ecclesiastical body conforming to the doctrine and order of the constituent Churches of this Union. The question of the closer union of any two or more of the constituent Churches shall be a matter outside the province of the United Assembly, and entirely within the jurisdiction of the Churches proposing such union.

(b) In general, to recommend to the constituent Churches measures for the promotion of charity, benevolence, truth and holiness.

(c) To correspond with other Churches.

(d) To institute and superintend the agencies necessary to its general work of evangelization: Foreign Missions, Publication, Ministerial Relief, Schools and Colleges, Home Missions, Church Erection, Colored Work, Evangelism, Stewardship, and such other causes as may be expressly delegated to it, subject to the provisions of the constitution to be adopted.

(e) The principle of local control in Home Missions at present existing in most or all of the constituent Churches shall continue; and the direct administration shall be exercised as at present in each constituent Church through its General Assembly, General Synod and other lower courts; except where any constituent Church shall commit the administration of its Home Mission work, or any part thereof, to the United Assembly.

5. The United Assembly shall have the power, by executive commission or otherwise as it may from time to time determine, to exercise judicial functions in settling all questions of comity arising between constituent Churches, and to enforce any and all agreements entered into by or between any two or more of said constituent Churches. The findings of the United Assembly in any case shall be final, and shall be enforced through the courts of the constituent Churches.

The United Assembly shall advise, encourage and foster the complete consolidation by constituent Churches of their work within the bounds of the same Presbytery, Synod or other considerable stretch of territory occupied in common, whenever in the judgment of the United Assembly such consolidation would contribute to greater harmony, efficiency and economy in the work as a whole.

When such consolidation is not feasible, the United Assembly shall propose to the constituent Churches thus occupying territory in common, definite plans of co-operation in said territory.

6. The United Assembly shall exercise such power as to doctrine as may be necessary in the discharge of the administrative and judicial functions conferred upon it in these Articles of Agreement, but it shall not have the power to impose symbols of faith or forms of worship on any of the constituent Churches.

7. The United Assembly shall exercise such judicial powers as may be required for the work committed to it by these Articles of Agreement, but cases of judicial process involving heresy or immorality arising in any of the constituent Churches shall terminate as at present in said Churches.

8. The United Assembly shall have power to deal with any other matters of interest common to any two or more of the constituent Churches, which may be referred to it by the supreme judicatories of the Churches concerned for its action, with such authority in the premises and under such conditions as may be agreed upon by the Churches which make the reference.

9. The General Assemblies or General Synods of the constituent Churches shall send their records for information, and shall report to the United Assembly on all administrative matters, and the United Assembly shall receive and consider said records and reports and shall make such deliverances thereon as are calculated to stimulate the whole Church on matters pertaining to the advancement of the Kingdom of Christ.

10. The officers of the United Assembly shall be a Moderator, Vice-Moderator, Stated Clerk, Treasurer, and such other officers as may be necessary. The United Assembly may also appoint an Executive Committee with such authority as the Assembly may confer, to act in the intervals between the meetings of the Assembly.

11. All boards or other administrative agencies of the United Assembly shall be composed of representatives of the constituent Churches, each Church being represented thereon by at least one member. When the United Assembly shall decide that the number should be more than one for each Church, then the increase shall be in proportion to the volume of work as represented by the annual investment of each Church. All members shall be nominated by the Churches directly interested or by their Boards or Agencies as the Churches may determine. Each Church shall nominate one or more persons for each vacancy and the term of office shall be four years, the members being divided into two classes, one of which in the first election shall be elected for two years only.

12. The United Assembly shall hold and administer all properties given to said United Assembly or any of its chartered, incorporated or other agencies. All of the property rights of the constituent Churches shall remain as at present vested and shall not be changed except by the proper and constitutional procedure of the said respective constituent Churches. And it shall be agreed upon by the constituent Churches entering into said Union that the General Assembly or General Synod, or body corresponding thereto, is the supreme court as respects property rights of the respective constituent Churches.

13. The United Assembly shall meet in regular session at least biennially, and on its own adjournment, at such times and places as may be determined. In the conduct of its meetings it shall respect the conscientious views of its constituent members.

14. The expenses of the United Assembly shall be met by a fund to be provided by a pro rata apportionment on the basis of the representation of each Church in the Union. The expenses of the representatives shall be paid by their respective Churches. All the expenses involved in the settlement of any question between the Churches shall be borne equally by the Churches concerned.

15. When any two representatives, at a meeting of either the United Assembly or its Agencies, request a unit vote by Churches upon a pending motion, the vote shall be so taken, each Church being entitled to one vote.

16. The United Assembly shall have power to make such standing rules as shall be deemed necessary for the conduct of its business.

17. Any Church holding the Reformed Faith and Presbyterian Polity may be received into this Union by a majority of the representatives of the Churches, voting by the unit rule, and upon its adoption of the Plan of Union, these Articles of Agreement included.

18. Any Church in this Union may withdraw therefrom on notice sufficiently given, and on its observance of the same constitutional steps as were followed in its adoption of these Articles.

19. Any amendment to these Articles proposed to the United Assembly shall before its adoption be approved by the Assembly, and receive the consent of the constituent Churches acting in accordance with their respective Constitutions. When the United Assembly shall have been notified of such consent it shall declare the amendment to be a part of the Articles of Agreement.

20. The details of the constitution shall be taken up and reported upon by the Committee to be appointed by the supreme judicatories of the respective Churches which shall approve of this outline of a tentative plan. The constitution shall be adopted by each Church in accordance with its own constitution.

In case our Assemblies and General Synods adopt these recommendations, we recommend that their action be conveyed to the approaching meeting of the Council of Presbyterian and Reformed Churches with the request that it appoint a committee for conference on this subject with the committees appointed by the constituent Churches to draft a constitution.

Plan of Union Through Regional Assemblies.—In the first separate session of our Committee in Louisville it was learned that some of our members believed that "Organic Union through Regional Assemblies" was still possible. Therefore, the following paper was adopted:

"That a Special Sub-Committee, consisting of Drs. Dobyns, Ogden, Thompson, Graham and Brownlee, be appointed to ask representatives of the Churches represented in the Joint Conference whether they are willing to recommend a union of the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches on the Regional or Provincial Assembly plan, and if so to present to us as fully and clearly as possible a Plan of Union prepared on the basis of Regional or Provincial Assemblies."

This Special Sub-Committee was also authorized to discuss the "Synodical Plan" if they so desired.

The Committee of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., made the following reply to these representations of the Special Sub-Committee:

"We propose for discussion such changes in our form of governments as will provide for Regional Assemblies or General Synods covering the territory now occupied by several Synods and possess such powers as are now exercised by the Synod in the Presbyterian Church U. S. A.

"This Plan could retain the present Synod or substitute for several Synods the proposed General Synod, under which would be grouped immediately the several Classes or Presbyteries of that territory.

"Over the General Synods or Regional Assemblies, the General Assembly shall have supreme jurisdiction, legislative, judicial and executive, in all matters of faith and order."

To this paper our Committee made the following answer:

"That we regard it as organic union by consolidation, and therefore would not be acceptable to our Church; but that we still stand ready to confer with them on the subject of union through Regional Assemblies."

The Committee of the Presbyterian Church U. S. A. prepared the following memorandum as to distribution of powers among the several courts:

"Presbyteries or Classes.—Powers as at present.

"Synods.—Powers as at present, and also denominational Synods as they are.

"General Synods.—Powers, complete control and review of Presbyteries and Synods under them, with privilege of appeal to General Assembly, on questions of faith and order, when asked for by at least one-third of the General Synod, in which case final adjudication by majority vote of the General Assembly.

"General Assembly.—Administration of all Church-wide agencies and veto power by two-thirds vote of any proposed change in polity or doctrine."

In return our Committee sent to the Committee of the Presbyterian Church U. S. A., the "Plan of Union" which had been prepared by Dr. Wells as a tentative statement of the powers this Committee is willing to grant to the Supreme Assembly.

The Committee of the Church U. S. A., sent our Committee the following paper:

"We do not find in this proposition any elements preferable to the proposed amendments to the Plan of Federal Union of the Council of the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches."

In response to the first paper in this correspondence with the Committee of the Church U. S. A., the following paper was adopted:

"Our Committee has heard the communication from your Committee through Dr. Stevenson. We feel that the communication does not indicate that we are near enough to find a basis for agreement.

"Our Committee has already adopted at a previous meeting the following resolution, which shows the basis on which we can negotiate further. We submit it to you to see whether, in view of this, you are ready to consider the discussion further."

"That this Committee is prepared to consider earnestly and fully any form of Closer Relations that will safeguard these points, viz:

1. The autonomy of the Churches.
2. The system of doctrine contained in the Westminster Confession of Faith and the Catechisms.
3. The protection of all existing property rights.
4. The complete separation of Church and State.
5. Separate Synods and Presbyteries for the Colored People."

Dr. Dobyns asked permission to record his vote against this paper as not being a "proper answer to the paper of Dr. Stevenson, which was submitted as a basis of discussion."

The following communication came back from the Committee of the Church U. S. A.:

"Our Committee desires to have you define clearly what you mean by 'The autonomy of the Churches'."

Our Committee returned the following answer:

"In response to your inquiry, we beg to state that we employ the word 'autonomy' in the sense that Presbyteries, Synods and General Synods (or Regional Assemblies) reserve to themselves all powers now enjoyed by them, except in so far as those powers are expressly delegated to the proposed Supreme Assembly, just as was done by the thirteen original States when they united in the formation of the American Republic."

The Committee of the Church U. S. A. returned the following paper:

"Regarding the points to be safeguarded in the consideration of Closer Relations our Committee believes there will be no difficulty in reaching an agreement on Nos. 2, 3, 4 and 5. As to No. 1, concerning which you have sent in a fuller statement, the possibility of agreement hangs on the powers to be granted to the Supreme Assembly. What are the maximum powers which you would be willing to grant the Supreme Assembly?"

The following reply was sent by our Committee:

"The powers mentioned in the paper 'Proposed Plan of Union' sent your Committee this afternoon are the powers our Committee regards as the maximum we are willing to grant in any 'Plan of Union.'"

Drs. Whaling, Campbell, Ogden, Thompson, Hutton, Brownlee and Fraser were made a Sub-Committee to remain over after adjournment to continue ne-negotiations with the Committee of the Church U. S. A. to see if any agreement can be reached as to powers to be granted the Supreme Assembly.

It was left to the discretion of the Sub-Committee to incorporate in this report whether we are making progress toward a "Plan of Regional Assemblies," and if so, ask for a continuation of the negotiations.

Second Meeting in Washington.—The Sub-Committee appointed at Louisville met in Washington, D. C., April 21st, and decided to recommend to the Joint Conference the further strengthening of the "Plan of Federal Union," already adopted by the Joint Conference, by adding certain amendments taken from the paper on Regional Assemblies offered by our Committee. The Joint Conference will assemble in Richmond, Va., May 12th to consider these suggestions. That will be too late to incorporate the results in this report, which the Assembly directed the Committee to place in the hands of the Stated Clerk by May 1st. The Committee may, therefore, ask leave to present a supplementary report when the Assembly meets.

It is to be regretted that the final conclusions of the Committee are so delayed. But the Assembly will doubtless bear in mind that the Committee could not be completely made up until after the last Synodical meetings, which were held November 18th. The dates for meetings had to be so fixed as to secure the largest possible attendance by members of large Committees representing four Churches. The business has been carried forward as expeditiously as the gravity of the subject and all attending circumstances would allow.

We submit herewith the Minutes of the several meetings of our Committee and of the Joint Conference and also copies of the papers prepared at the request of the Committee by Drs. Campbell, Ogden and Wells. The Chairman will also forward copies of this report to the Stated Clerks of those bodies which did not participate in the Joint Conference by reason of the fact that they had no Committees on Closer Relations.

It is but just to the Assembly and also to the members of this Committee that this report should inform the Assembly of the diligence and spirit manifested by the Committee in the discharge of the responsible duties imposed upon it. At none of the three meetings of the Committee was there a smaller attendance than fourteen out of the seventeen members. In every case of absence a satisfactory reason was rendered which was fully sustained by the Committee. Hundreds of miles were travelled and many days consumed in order to reach each meeting. The members on leaving home, as a rule, made arrangements to stay as long as the business required. Notwithstanding the wide differences of views and the strong feelings with which those views were held, the discussions were conducted with the utmost courtesy and good feeling. The spirit of worship and of a desire for divine leading was pronounced. The sessions were uniformly opened and closed with prayer. At the first meeting of all, following the suggestion of the Convener, all the members in succession led in prayer. It was at all times the avowed purpose of the Committee, as well as its actual practice, to give every member every opportunity to express any views he might wish to express and at any length he might choose, whether in the meetings of our Committee or in those of the Joint Conference. It was our object to have every phase of the subject of Closer Relations given the fullest and fairest expression. So that no stone was left unturned to ascertain what is the best policy for the Church to adopt. The result is this report, the main conclusions of which are presented by unanimous action.

Report on Relations "With the American Bible Society

The Assembly's Committee would respectfully report as follows: This Committee was appointed in response to inquiries addressed to the Assembly by the Committee on the Bible Cause, in the following words: "We request that the Assembly define the duties of the Permanent Committee on the Bible Cause, and at the same time define the relation of the Committee to the American Bible Society and to the General Assembly." It is further stated that "there ought to be a large field for usefulness if its duties and powers are clearly defined and if there was a modest amount of money at the disposal of the Committee for an expense account." Hence the Committee recommended in its annual report that "the Assembly consider the advisability of erecting the permanent Committee into an Executive Committee of the Assembly."

In considering the inquiries submitted, it is important to consider the occasion of the original appointment of the Assembly's Permanent Committee. It had its origin in the Assembly of 1903 at Lexington, Va., in response to a memorial signed by the Chairmen of the Permanent Committees on the Bible Cause in five of our Synods, and to overtures from nine of our Presbyteries. The design of this memorial and these overtures is stated in these words: "To secure for the Assembly more complete, accurate and up-to-date information concerning the condition and progress of this great department of our Evangelistic work which the Assembly endorses and urges all our churches systematically and liberally to support."

The memorial further declares that "the great work of circulating God's Word among the people underlies our whole enterprise of evangelization, is of vast and rapidly increasing importance in both our home and foreign fields and should be adequately brought before the supreme Court of the Church at its annual sessions."

Hence it appears that the office of the Permanent Committee in its origin was to be a source and medium of information whereby the Assembly and Church at large might secure "adequate and complete" knowledge concerning the circulation, and consequently the reading, study and teaching of the Holy Scriptures.

To this end the Ad-Interim Committee, after mature consideration, recommends that the Assembly confer upon its Permanent Committee certain executive powers and authority whereby its importance and usefulness may be greatly enlarged, the prosperity of the Church advanced and the knowledge of God's only and most adequate message of life to the Church and to perishing humanity may be extended.

With such authority conferred and such a field of opportunity opened, the Committee might address itself, in addition to the service hitherto rendered, to emphasizing and promoting throughout the Church such attractive enterprises as the following: The widespread organization of adult Bible classes; the establishment of Bible schools, conducted by local pastors and teachers, in our cities and other centers of population; the promotion of Bible study as a permanent department in every one of the educational institutions of our Church; the scholarly defense in our publications of the inerrancy and final authority of the sacred writings and the admission of the Bible to every institution of the state, whether educational, penal and reformatory, or merely philanthropic, which institution is, in whole or in part, supported by the Christian citizenship of our land.

The Ad-Interim Committee earnestly submits that at this day and hour when, under many religious guises, unbelief is making a supreme assault on the integrity of God's Word; when the enemy is boring from within; when it is freely declared that a vast majority of the universities of our land are hotbeds of rationalistic skepticism; when leading authorities in the Church declare that three-fourths of the books issuing from the religious press either ignore or openly deny the great central doctrine of our "precious faith"—the Deity of our Lord, and when current periodical literature, with notable exceptions, is pervaded by sentiments and teachings in conflict with evangelical truth—at such a time as this, when the crucial issue is drawn between the Bible and its multiform enemies, the call of the Church through its courts and pulpits and class rooms is to declare and defend with utmost emphasis the infallible authority of the inspired Word, and to confirm our people in their cherished faith "once for all delivered to the saints."

In view of the above considerations and others that might be specified, the Ad-Interim Committee recommends that the inquiries of the Assembly's Permanent Committee be answered as follows:

1. The duties of the Assembly's Committee in addition to duties hitherto performed are executive within its own department, as are the duties of other Executive Committees within their several departments.

2. The relation of the Committee to the Assembly is that of a representative of the Church, through the Assembly, in promoting the great cause of Bible circulation, study and teaching in the home land and abroad, within the sphere of the Church's influence—the Committee to report its activities annually to the Assembly.

3. The relation of the Committee to the American Bible Society is that of the executive representative of the Presbyterian Church in the United States.

It is further recommended that on the adoption of this report, a modest sum, not exceeding $500 per annum, be appropriated to meet clerical and other expenses incident to effective work of the Committee. In addition it is suggested that the slogan of the Committee, voicing the sentiment of the whole Church, shall be—"Back to the Bible."

XIV. Report of the Council of the Reformed Churches in America Holding the Presbyterian System

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S.:

DEAR BRETHREN :—The Council of the Reformed Churches in America holding the Presbyterian System respectfully reports to its constituent Churches for the year ending March 31, 1920.

The constituent Churches in the Council are the same as heretofore reported, and the names appear later in this report. The following items are presented for consideration and action.

I. Meetings.—The regular biennial meeting of the Council was held on March 16 and 17, 1920, in the Witherspoon Building, Philadelphia, Pa.

II. Officers.—The officers of the Council for the biennial term of service ending March, 1922, are as follows: President, Prof. George L. Omwake, Ph.D.; Vice-President, Rev. J. S. Lyons, D.D.; Stated Clerk, Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D.; Permanent Clerk, Rev. Rufus W. Miller, D.D.; Treasurer, Rev. David F. Magill, D.D.

III. Executive Committee.—The Executive Committee of the Council which transacts the business in the intervals between the regular meetings is composed of the officers above named, along with the Chairmen of the standing committees for the next year, Rev. George Alexander, D.D., Foreign Missions; Rev. J. S. Lyons, D.D., Home Missions; Rev. J. Gray Bolton, D.D., Work Among Colored People; Rev. James E. Clarke, D.D., Christian Education and Literature; Rev. Frederick C. Seitz, Ministerial Relief; Rev. J. Addison Jones, D.D., Correspondence; and Silas F. Hallock, M.D., Finance.

IV. Members Present.—There were present at the meeting of the Council representatives from all the constituent Churches, with the exception of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Synod and the Cumberland Presbyterian Church (Colored). The members of Council present numbered 25, and the Boards were represented in every case, except from the Churches whose members were all absent as above stated.

V. Courtesies.—Admirable provisions for the business sessions of the Council and the meetings of its Committees were made by the Presbyterian Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work. For these courtesies appropriate acknowledgment was made.

VI. Necrology.—Since the last meeting of the Council the following members departed this life: the Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, D.D., of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.; the Rev. John F. Cannon, D.D., of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S.; and Prof. Frederick R. Hutton, of the Reformed Church in America.

VII. Conferences.—The Conferences of the Council with the representatives of the Boards and Agencies were held on the evening of Tuesday, March 16th, and the morning of Wednesday, March 17th. These Conferences were frank, fraternal and fruitful of fellowship and harmony.

VIII. Home Missions.—There are two significant facts which should fill the hearts of Christians in America with profound concern. First, that the most important task for the Kingdom of God in the world today is the thorough evangelization of America, as the agency specially fitted by Providence to give to all the nations the inspiring ideal of human welfare through the Christian religion. Secondly, that God who has wrought so wonderfully in the life and growth of this nation, by which we have the resources needful for a world service, and by which the heart of every nation has been opened to us as its best friend, has in the past few years given us the call to render this service.

In view of the foregoing facts the following recommendations are submitted:

1. That the supreme, foremost and all important task of the Church of Christ in America is to make this a genuinely Christian nation as speedily as possible. To accomplish this great end the ideal of home missions must be enlarged beyond that of supplying gospel privileges to sparsely settled communities. It must mean the entire Church investing and devoting its resources to make this nation an adequate and willing agent of Providence for bestowing a supreme blessing upon all the people of the earth.

2. In order that this enlargement, enrichment and increased efficiency may be attained, it is essential that all of the executive agencies of Home Mission work in the constituent Churches shall heartily practice the principles set forth in previous actions of the Council, all of which have been approved and adopted by their supreme ecclesiastical bodies.

3. That the Stated Clerk be requested and authorized to publish in pamphlet form the various declarations of principles of effective co-operative home mission work, and that they be furnished to all executive home mission agencies as well as to the religious press.

IX. Christian Education.—Reports from the constituent Churches indicate that the number of students in our Christian colleges is greater than ever before, that the enrollment in seminaries has increased greatly, that the lower college classes include a gratifying number of students preparing for the Christian vocations, and that life enlistment campaigns are resulting in a notable increase of the number of young people who have dedicated their lives to the ministry or missionary service. There is, however, a disturbing decrease in the number of Sunday School pupils which indicates that our Churches are not thoroughly alive to the fundamental importance of Christian education as the basis of all activities for the extension of the gospel at home and abroad.

It is suggested that the constituent Churches of the Council increase the measure of their co-operation in the following particulars:

1. In providing Sunday School literature and supplies, to which end we recommend that representatives of the various Boards of Publication and Sunday School work be asked to hold another conference, Rev. Rufus W. Miller, D.D., to act as convener of the conference, report to be made to the next meeting of the Council;

2. In securing enlistments for the Christian vocations. In some of the churches there are held conferences of selected high-school boys, for the purpose of laying before them the claims of the ministry and missionary service as a life work, and in at least one instance such a conference is being planned by the representatives of two of our constituent bodies. Why should not such co-operation be the rule in cities where two or more of our churches are represented? We recommend that Rev. W. H. Crothers, of the General Board of Education, Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., be requested to call a conference of representatives of other similar boards to consider the possibility of co-operation in this field;

3. In maintaining student pastors at State Universities. Some of our churches give much attention to this important phase of the work of Christian education, while others have not entered the field; but in most of the state institutions two or more of our Presbyterian churches are represented by large bodies of students. While it would be impracticable and unwise for each of our churches to have a student pastor at each university, there are many places where we might co-operate in such work to the great good of our Presbyterian young people. We recommend that Rev. Elias W. Thompson of the Board of Education of the Reformed Church in America be requested to call a conference of secretaries for the purpose of devising a plan of co-operation in this field;

4. We recommend that the Council call the attention of its constituent Churches to the great importance of increasing greatly and promptly the endowments of our Christian colleges, in order that competent Christian teachers may be retained and that students may not be turned away because of excessive tuition charges.

X. Plan of Federal Union.—The "Plan of Federal Union," prepared and approved by the Council at its biennial meeting in Philadelphia, March 19-20, 1918, was duly submitted to each of the seven Churches which are members of the Council. Of these Churches, four by formal vote approved the Plan, viz., the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., the United Presbyterian Church, the Reformed Church in the U. S., and the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored. The Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., and the Reformed Church in the U. S., also passed the Enabling Act, called for by Article 5, and made provision for the enlarged representation of their judicatories in the General Council called for by Article 2.

The Reformed Church in America approved the Plan with the exception of Articles 2, 5 and 11. Their recommendations were that the change set forth in Article 2 be deferred, that Article 5 be referred back to the Council with the suggestion that it be recast in such a way as to reserve to the Boards of the constituent Churches the initiative, in the organization of the proposed Boards or Administrative Agencies, and that Article 11 be disapproved. The Presbyterian Church in the U. S. referred the Plan to its Committee on Federation and Union. The committee after considering the Plan, carefully formulated a Plan of Federal Union of their own, and their General Assembly directed that this Plan be presented to the Council of Reformed Churches in America as the response of their Church, requesting that the Council consider the Plan as a substitute for the one it has proposed. The Associate Reformed Presbyterian Synod took no action.

XI. Complaint Under Article Six.—A complaint contained in a communication from the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., was duly filed and considered. This complaint had to do with an alleged violation of Article 6, of the Plan of Federal Union in the location of the Central Presbyterian Church, South, of Kansas City, Mo.

There are only two comity agreements between the two General Assemblies involved. The first is limited to towns of less than 5,000 inhabitants and refers to the planting of new churches. The second refers to work among foreigners of the same nationality in towns of less than 100,000 inhabitants. Since the population of Kansas City is approximately 250,000 and the church in question is not a mission to a foreign population but an organization seeking to transfer its worship to a new place, the Council decided that there had been no violation of any law of comity constituted as such by action of the two Assemblies, and therefore the question was beyond its jurisdiction.

XII. Closer Co-operation of Adjacent Churches.—Rejoicing in the many evidences of closer co-operation among churches of the Presbyterian type and in the sincere belief that relations will continue to become more intimate and that local churches should make their plans in the light of this gratifying tendency, the Council of Reformed Churches in America Holding the Presbyterian System respectfully recommends to the highest judicatories of its constituent Churches that they approve and send to their Presbyteries or Classes for consideration the following recommendation:

That all Presbyteries or Classes take suitable action calling the attention of ministers, sessions and consistories to the marked tendency toward much closer co-operation among churches of the Presbyterian type and that they recommend to their congregations, especially those located in cities, that, in all cases where a change of site is contemplated, conference be had with representatives of any adjacent church of the Presbyterian family with a view of arranging, if possible, for such a combination and redistribution of forces as will provide accessible churches and make for greater efficiency, instead of seeming competition, on the part of Presbyterian organizations.

XIII. Representative of Agencies.—The Council asks the consent of the supreme judicatories to the following Resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the supreme judicatories authorize their Executive Agencies to appoint representatives to be present at future meetings of the Council.

Resolved, 2. That each of the supreme judicatories appoint standing committees to report upon the minutes and recommendations of the Council.

XIV. Elections.—The supreme judicatories are also respectfully requested to elect at their next meetings the members to represent them in the Council for the next two years or for such other periods as to the judicatories may seem proper. The total membership of the Council is as follows:

Reformed Church in America.....	8
Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.....	32
United Presbyterian Church.....	8
Presbyterian Church in the U. S.....	12
Reformed Church in the U. S.....	12
Associate Reformed Presbyterian Synod.....	4
Cumberland Presbyterian Church (Colored).....	4

Total 80

XV. Expenses.—The supreme judicatories are requested to pay apportionments for the current expenses of the Council in the following annual amounts:

Reformed Church in America.....	$ 50.00
Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.....	200.00
United Presbyterian Church.....	50.00
Presbyterian Church in the U. S.....	75.00
Reformed Church in the U. S.....	75.00
Associate Reformed Presbyterian Synod.....	25.00
Cumberland Presbyterian Church (Colored).....	25.00

Total$500.00

XVI. Finances.—The Treasurer of the Council, the Rev. David F. McGill, D.D., reports that the receipts during the year amounted to $700. The disbursements for the year were $278.65; the balance from the preceding year was $1,696.08, and the balance in the treasury March 16, 1920, was $2,117.43. It is to be borne in mind that all the officers of the Council serve without salary. The balance in the treasury will prove a decided help in putting the Plan of Federal Union into operation. The address of the Treasurer is 317 Home Avenue, Avalon, Pa.

XVII. Delegates.—Delegates to the supreme judicatories of the constituent Churches were appointed as follows:

Reformed Church in America.—Rev. J. Preston Searle, D.D.
 Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.—Rev. George Alexander, D.D.
 Presbyterian Church in the U. S.—Rev. D. C. Lilly, D.D.
 Reformed Church in the U. S.—Rev. Frederick C. Seitz, D.D.
 United Presbyterian Church.—Rev. James A. Cosby, D.D.
 Associate Reformed Presbyterian Synod.—Rev. R. M. Stevenson, D.D.
 Cumberland Presbyterian Church (Colored).—Rev. J. M. W. DeShong.

The Minutes of the Council are herewith submitted to you for your consideration, the above compendium of the work of the Council being for general distribution through inclusion in the Minutes of the respective supreme judicatories.

With sincere respect, yours fraternally,

WM. H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

XV. Report of the Executive Commission of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches Throughout the World Holding the Presbyterian System, Western Section, for the Year Ending March 31, 1920

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S.:

DEAR BRETHREN:—The Western (American) Section of the Executive Commission of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System, respectfully presents its Annual Report for the year 1919-1920, under the following heads:

I. Meeting.—The Western Section during the year 1919-1920 held one meeting, the place being Pittsburg, Pa., and the time March 23 and 24, 1920. The Rev. R. C. Reed, D. D., Chairman, presided, and the Section was most comfortably and generously entertained by the First Presbyterian and the Sixth United Presbyterian Churches, and the Presbyterian Social Union of Pittsburg. The edifice in which the Section assembled was the Lecture Room of the First Presbyterian Church.

II. Officers.—The officers for the present year are: Chairman, Rev. J. Ritchie Smith, D. D.; Vice-Chairman, Rev. John MacNaugher, D. D., and J. W. Appel, Esq.; Recording Secretary, Rev. J. C. Scouller, D. D. The Rev. Wm. H. Roberts, D. D., is the Secretary of the Western Section by virtue of his position as American Secretary of the General Council and the Treasurer of the Council, Mr. Philip E. Howard is Treasurer of the Section.

III. Necrology.—The members of the Section who departed this life during the past year were three in number. They were the Rev. John Somerville, D. D., of the Presbyterian Church in Canada; the Rev. Robert H. Fleming, D. D., and the Rev. J. Lynn Bachman, D. D., both of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. These all were worthy co-laborers in every good work.

IV. Ad Interim General Secretary.—Upon the death of Rev. Dr. Robert Dykes Shaw, General Secretary of the Alliance, the American Secretary was authorized to correspond with the Eastern Section in the matter of a Secretary pro tem to act until the meeting of the Eleventh Council, the nominee to be named by the Eastern Section and confirmed by the Western Section. As a result of this action the Rev. J. R. Fleming was appointed Ad Interim General Secretary, by action of both the Eastern and Western Sections, and is now located in the office at 122 George Street, Edinburgh, Scotland.

V. Work on the European Continent.—To understand the situation in Europe where the various churches of the Presbyterian and Reformed Faith are facing so many great and tremendous problems, it is necessary to take a survey of the different countries under three heads.

I. THE CHURCHES OF THE NEUTRAL COUNTRIES

Holland.—The Reformed Church of Holland has been playing an important part recently in acting as an intermediary between the nations which have been at war with each other, in bringing to the notice of the world the sad condition of the Hungarian Churches, and those of other countries of Eastern Europe, and in preparing the way for peace between the nations and unity among the churches.

Switzerland.—Two movements have become prominent. One is the separation of Swiss Foreign Missions from German Foreign Missions, which have been largely outlawed in some countries during the war. The other movement is an effort to bring the Swiss Churches into closer touch with the Churches of other lands, particularly with our Alliance and its constituent Churches.

Spain.—Last May there met in Madrid to celebrate the movement toward religious liberty the largest interdenominational Protestant gathering ever held in Spain. Resolutions were passed asking the government for religious liberty.

2. THE CHURCHES OF WESTERN EUROPE.

France and Belgium.—The Reformed Churches of France and Belgium have lost about eighty church buildings, either wholly or partially destroyed, the total property loss including mission halls, parsonages, orphanages, and asylums amounting to several millions of dollars. Twenty-five of their ministers and twenty-five of their students for the ministry, and between 30,000 and 50,000 of their members, have been killed or died in the war. Despite this tremendous loss their faith is still strong and they are looking forward hopefully to the dawn of a new day. The call comes to our Churches to continue their efforts to raise funds for these Churches. As to the outlook for evangelical religion in France it is somewhat difficult to state. The people have lost to some extent their sympathy with the present Pope because of his pro-Germanism, and this means a larger opportunity and greater responsibility for the Protestants to work among the great unchurched and unbelieving class, the number of which some people place as high as 25,000,000. Protestantism has been strengthened by the return of the provinces of Alsace and Lorraine which contained about 300,000 Protestants of whom 50,000 were of the Reformed Faith.

Italy.—Italy has come out of the war greatly awakened up. This will mean the stirring of the dry bones of Catholicism which always produces gains for Protestantism. During the war the Waldensians distributed thousands of New Testaments to the soldiers, many of the Catholic soldiers asking for them. Eight or nine of the Waldensian pastors were appointed chaplains, a recognition of Protestantism that has never occurred before.

3. THE CHURCHES OF CENTRAL AND EASTERN EUROPE

Germany.—From Germany little information has come to hand. At the beginning of the German Republic an effort was made to separate the state and the church, but the action was prevented. Disestablishment, however, is bound to come.

Hungary.—Here the situation is most threatening. There are two main problems to be solved. The first has to do with the Reformed Church of Hungary, which has 2,603,000 adherents. The church organization was entirely broken to pieces last summer by the Bolsheviki under Bela Kun. Ministers were thrown out of their pulpits and parsonages into the streets where many of them almost starved. The invested funds of the Reformed universities were confiscated. The second problem has to do with Transylvania which is now under Roumania, and contains about a million Reformed adherents. The aid which the pastors had received before the war has now been entirely cut off by Roumania, who does not grant religious liberty, and whose established Church is the Greek Orthodox Church. As a result some of the pastors are starving and all are greatly suffering. Many buildings have been taken away from the Church, and there have been cases of prosecution by the Roumanians. The two thousand Reformed Churches are threatened with destruction. The state Church alone is recognized. The British Churches sent a deputation to Paris to the peace table asking that religious liberty be granted in Roumania and Servia, but nothing was done. Similar pleas have been made to our own State Department by the Federation of Churches, and the Western Section, but nothing can be done because of the present confused state of affairs at Washington concerning the Peace Treaty and the League of Nations.

Poland.—Similar conditions also prevail only in a lesser degree in the Reformed Churches of Poland, Lithunia, and the Baltic provinces. All need aid.

Bohemia (now Czecho Slovakia).—Here the war has brought great changes. Last December all the Bohemian Brethren (Reformed, Lutheran, etc.) came together in one church numbering 175,000 adherents. Another great change was the disestablishment of the Catholic Church by the new Republic.

To add to this a remarkable movement has occurred among the Catholics themselves. A petition signed by 1,700 of the 3,200 priests of Bohemia was sent to the Pope last year asking (a) that the celibacy of the priests be no longer obligatory (55 of the priests having already married). (b) That the Bohemian language shall be used in religious services instead of the Latin. (c) That the civil power as well as the bishop shall have a voice in the election of the clergy. This means that even among the Catholics, the old Hussite spirit of 500 years ago is reviving.

As a result of the situation in Europe the following recommendations were adopted:

1. That the Western Section authorizes the Secretary to place in his report to the General Assemblies and the Synods of our Churches the request that each General Assembly visited by Rev. Charles d'Aubigne make an appropriation of $50 for his traveling and hotel expenses in America to the General Assemblies.

2. That this Western Section joins the action of the Eastern Section in its request to the Governments of the United States and Canada to use their good offices with Roumania and Jugo-Slavia so that the oppression of the Protestants in Transylvania and Banat may cease and that they grant religious liberty.

3. That this Section appoint a deputation to visit Hungary and the other countries of Europe to inquire into their needs and to encourage those brethren by our prayers and sympathy.

4. That this Section appoint these deputies as commissioners to any of the Synods of the Churches of our faith in Europe; to the Huss Celebration and to the General Assemblies of the British Churches.

5. That this Section approve of the action of the Eastern Section in regard to the holding of a Sub-Council of Conference on the Continent this summer at Geneva, and appoint this delegation as its Commissioners to that conference.

6. That in the report of our Section to the General Assemblies and General Synods of our constituent bodies, we again recommend them to take action for the continuance of the systematic raising of funds for the suffering Churches of Europe—for the Churches of Central Europe, as well as France and Belgium, in cooperation with the Commission of the Federal Council. We recommend that the last Sunday in October (Reformation Day) be set apart as a day of prayer and offering for the Churches on the Continent, and that special sermons on this subject be preached. This action, however, is not to affect churches that have some other day as Reformation Day, or that now raise their money for that purpose at some other time of the year.

VI. Foreign Missions.—In making a general survey of Foreign Missions, one is more attracted by the indirect influences bearing upon foreign missions than by the actual conditions in the field. The temperance victory, the newly awakened conception of philanthropy, and of life, the spirit of democracy, of nationalism, and the forward movement of the churches have all had an important influence on the evangelization of the world.

The Orient has been passing through a course of preparation for greater things. China is following at even a more rapid pace, the evolution of Japan. Today 1,400 Chinese students are attending colleges and technical schools in the United States. Railroads are being built in all directions. Hundreds of journals are published in the principal cities, and a phonetic system of writing has been adopted that will prove revolutionary in the rapid extension of education. The opium traffic, the most heartless and destructive enemy of China, has at last been destroyed.

The Allies.—During the war the East and West met in a new sense, for 1,250,000 Indians and 160,000 Chinese came into personal contact with western civilization. They experienced Western hospital ministrations and the benevolent ministries of Chaplaincies, Red Cross, Y. M. C. A. and Salvation Army organizations, and learned in a new sense what is meant by the strong bearing the burdens of the weak. They are now returning to their homes carrying with them new conceptions of western civilization.

The Mission Field.—The intensified spirit of nationalism has indicated that the Foreign Mission Boards, before slow in recognizing native ability, must lay upon the natives the responsibility of shaping Church life in their own country and among their own people. The new Constitutional Reform Bill in India accords to the native a greatly enlarged share in the administration of the country, and this fact will expedite similar action on the part of Missions. Illiteracy is one of the gravest problems in connection with this subject. Eighty-five per cent of the Indian Christian community is unable to read. In China, out of a membership of 315,000, about 188,000 are illiterate. But the tide is rising everywhere. Not only are there large accessions to the membership but the spirit of liberality has grown. The public attitude toward Christianity has changed, and there is a willingness to be taught growing out of a weakened confidence in their own religion of the past. The end is sure—a New Heaven and a New Earth wherein dwelleth righteousness.

VII. Home Missions.—The splendid way in which the church met the titanic task thrust upon her so suddenly by the great world war has created a wide-spread conviction that the hope of the world is in the religion of our Lord Jesus Christ. This lays upon the Church a task far more serious than that which came to her with all the tragedies of war.

The wideness of vision, the practical wisdom and the courage and faith of those who are planning and directing the Home Mission activities of our churches inspires a confidence that is calculated to arouse the largest response of our people in prayers and offerings and personal efforts to make America not only the Torch of the World but the leader of the Nations in their loyalty to the Prince of Peace. The chief difficulties are a lack of men and money, but efforts are being made by those in charge to remove these difficulties. In addition to the millions of dollars called for in the New Era Movement and in the Progressive Movement and in the other movements of our churches are well calculated to impress our people with the feeling that their offerings should bear some proportion to the importance of this work.

There has been a very marked speeding up in practical cooperation among our churches. In Cuba, Porto Rico, Santa Domingo, Alaska and Canada, plans are being perfected for the prosecution of Protestant Mission Work along lines of interdenominational co-operation. The Inter-Church World Movement will also achieve important results along this line.

The following table indicates the Home Mission conditions during the past year among the Churches of the Western Section:

	Mission- aries em- ployed	Churches and Mis- sions aided	Receipts

VIII. Church History.—There has been an unfortunate delay in the preparation and publication of the English translation of the works of Zwingli, the first founder of our family of Churches. It is hoped that during the coming year progress may be made in publishing this important work.

This being the 300th anniversary of the Landing of the Pilgrims in America recalling afresh the foundation principals that have made possible our religious and political liberties, it is urged that our churches devise a fitting program of celebration in all communities, to be carried out in December.

Next year it is hoped that there can be presented a complete statistical digest of the splendidly creditable war record of our Presbyterian and Reformed Churches in Canada and the United States of America.

IX. Evangelistic Work.—There is a great variety of opinion with reference to Evangelism to be found among the churches. The thought of the bodies in this Alliance may be expressed in the following statement:

(1) That all true evangelism depends upon the direct operation of the Holy Spirit upon the minds and hearts of preachers and people, and that we must look to God in prayer for any true and lasting revival of religion.

(2) That it is not only true that the Scriptures contained in the Old and New Testaments constitute the only infallible rule of faith and action, but that they contain the only evangelistic message for the world.

(3) That the only evangelism with which the Churches holding the Presbyterian and Reformed faith can be satisfied, is the evangelism that magnifies the teaching of the word of God as the only basis of appeal to men and women to yield their hearts to God, and to confess their faith in Jesus Christ.

(4) That the evangelistic work of the Churches in the Alliance must spring from the heart of the Church itself; be carried on under the direction of her proper courts and agencies, and that the evangelistic leaders of the Churches should devote themselves to the development of the evangelistic resources of the various Presbyteries and Classes, and the direction of their work under the definite instructions of the General Assembly or Synod.

(5) That our Churches recognize the office of evangelist as a Scriptural office and believe that the men who offer themselves to our Churches as evangelistic preachers, should submit to the discipline and direction of the denominational bodies of which they are members, and should be properly vouched for by the constituted ecclesiastical agencies.

(6) That we hold it to be a cardinal principal in the life and work of our churches, that pastors are instructed to make full proof of their ministry, and that one of the ways by which they are to afford this proof is by "doing the work of an evangelist."

X. American and European Residents in Foreign Seaports.—The number of American and British residents in foreign seaports was greatly diminished during the war. The delay in the re-opening of foreign trade since the war still prevents the return of many of the absentees with the result that the local strength of many Union Churches established before the war has been diminished and their progress toward self-support and adequate equipment arrested. An indispensable requisite for carrying on this work successfully is that there should be adequate and attractive buildings both for church services and for community service work. Recognizing this the Interchurch World Movement has placed in its budget $1,060,000 for buildings and equipment, at Mexico City, Tampico, Rio de Janeiro, the Canal Zone, Tokyo, Peking, Shanghai and Havana. It is hoped that the constituency of the Western Section will lend their encouragement and assistance to the success of this important work.

XI. Finances.—The receipts from the apportionment of the Churches during the year, ending March 16, 1920, amounted to $3,480. To this was added interest to the amount of $105.42, and special monies collected for rebuilding churches in Europe amounting to $6,703.31, making a total of $10,288.73. The disbursements were as follows: Alliance expenses, general office (Edinburgh), $1,857.87; expenses annual meeting, Chambersburg, Pa., $834.60; reconstruction of churches in Europe, $5,175; miscellaneous expenses, $371.22; total, $8,238.69.

It is respectfully requested that the apportionment from your Church be forwarded not later than October 1, 1920, to the American Treasurer, Mr. Philip E. Howard, 1031 Walnut St., Philadelphia, Pa. The financial provisions of the Alliance include the salary and expenses of the General Secretary and the current expenses of the Western Section. The American Secretary continues to serve without pay.

XII. The Quarterly Register.—This publication of the Alliance continues to supply the various churches with interesting and valuable information. Especially does it furnish the churches of the Western Section with needed details of the present situation in the churches of the Eastern Section. The Rev. J. R. Fleming, Ad Interim General Secretary of the Alliance, is the present editor, and persons desiring to subscribe should write to him at 122 George St., Edinburgh, Scotland.

XIII. The Eleventh Council.—After considerable correspondence with the Eastern Section it was decided that the Eleventh Council should be held in September, 1921, the place to be Pittsburg, Pa. The chairman of the Committee to have charge of the local arrangements, is the Rev. John McNaugher, D. D. The Supreme Judicatories are respectfully requested to report the names of their delegates to the Eleventh Council at an early date to the Rev. Wm. H. Roberts, D. D., American Secretary, 512 Witherspoon Building, Philadelphia, Pa.

XIV. Minutes.—The Minutes of the last meeting are transmitted to each of the Supreme Judicatories, with the request that they be used in connection with this concise report wherever necessary for detailed information.

XV. Apportionments for Expenses and Representatives in the Eleventh Council.—The Eleventh Council of the Alliance will consist of 350 members, 150 from the Eastern and 200 from the Western Section. The distribution of members to the constituent churches, and the annual apportionment of the churches for the expenses of the Alliance are given below. The rate of apportionment is $20 per representative per annum

Presbyterian Church in Canada.....	21	$ 420.00

XVI. Fraternal Delegates.—The Western Section has appointed the following delegates from the Alliance to the Supreme Judicatories:

Presbyterian Church in Canada.—Rev. Clarence MacKinnon, D. D.

Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.—Rev. Walter R. Ferris, D. D.

Presbyterian Church in the U. S.—Rev. R. C. Reed, D. D.

United Presbyterian Church.—Rev. John MacNaugher, D. D.

Reformed Church in America.—Rev. J. Preston Searle, D. D.

Reformed Church in the U. S.—Rev. James I. Good, D. D.

Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church.—Rev. S. G. Shaw, Ph. D.

General Synod, Reformed Presbyterian Church.—Rev. Thomas Whyte, D. D.

Associate Reformed Presbyterian Synod.—Rev. F. Y. Pressly, D. D.

XVII. Next Meeting.—The Western Section will meet in March, 1921, in Washington, D. C., the date to be fixed by the American Secretary.

XVIII. The Future.—The future of the churches comprising the Western Section of the Alliance as well as churches in general demands that Christians everywhere should recognize that the chief factor in reconstruction and progress is God. Everywhere let our churches give themselves not only to earnest work for the advancement of Christ's kingdom on earth, but also in united and persistent prayer for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon the whole world. God is both our Refuge and Strength.

J. RITCHIE SMITH, Chairman,
WM. H. ROBERTS, Secretary.

STATED CLERKS OF PRESBYTERIESAre Requested

In making their Annual Reports to the Assembly to use blanks provided by the Secretary of Publication; always procuring new ones.

1. To make their reports in fair, distinct writing, especially the columns of names and figures in the Statistical Tables. Add all the columns and report no fractions in the money columns—using machine if practicable.

2. To make them as accurate and as full as possible. When Churches do not report to Presbyteries, let the numbers of their communicants, elders and deacons in their last reports be inserted.

3. To append to the statistics of Presbyteries a brief account of the changes which have occurred during the year, such as the number of licensures, ordinations, installations, dissolution of pastorates, organization and dissolution of Churches, and the names of ministers deceased. Place a star after name of Church if manse if furnished. Discard the use of "W. C." after names of ministers without charges.

4. To transmit their Statistical and other Reports to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly as soon as they are prepared. If Statistical Reports are not received before the Assembly meets, it will occasion embarrassing delay in the publication of the Minutes.

Blank forms for Sessional or Presbyterian Reports are not furnished by the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, but by the Executive Committee of Publication, at cost price, by order of the Assemblies of 1867 and 1878; and Stated Clerks are earnestly urged to supply themselves with the latest blanks for all Reports. Get new blanks each year, and thereby avoid confusion.

The Assembly instructs Stated Clerks to send up no overture, except when it is written upon a separate sheet of its own.

Notify the Stated Clerk of General Assembly when a change is made in the clerkship of your Presbytery.

TO THE STATED CLERKS OF SYNODS

It is the duty of these officers promptly to notify the approaching General Assembly through its Stated Clerk (1) of the formation or dissolution of Presbyteries within the bounds of their respective Synods, and (2) of the times and places of the next ensuing meetings of these bodies. It is not required that Synodical Narratives or statistical reports prepared by Synod be sent to the Assembly. They are simply for Synodical record. (3) Notify the Stated Clerk of the Assembly when change is made in the clerkship of Synod. Attend to these three things immediately on the adjournment of Synod, that the Assembly's Clerk may begin that early the preparation of his schedule and blanks for the next Assembly. To do this he needs a complete roll of Presbyteries.

PRAYER FOR THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

WHEREAS, The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States fully recognizes the efficacy of the prayers of God's people, and the necessity of divine guidance in its own deliberations; therefore—

Resolved, First, That the General Assembly recommend to all the Churches under its care to offer special prayer during the devotions of the Sabbath preceding the meeting of the General Assembly in each year, that God would of His great mercy so give the General Assembly the wisdom that cometh from above, and so direct all its plans, discussions and decisions as to promote His own glory and to advance the kingdom of Jesus on earth.

Resolved, Second, That the above preamble and resolution be printed annually in the Appendix to the Minutes of the Assembly.

FORMS OF BEQUEST

"I give, devise, and bequeath to the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States———(here insert the estate devised and bequeathed) for the use and benefit of said Church."

"I give and bequeath to the Trustees of the Presbyterian Committee of Publication of the Presbyterian Church in the United States (incorporated under the laws of the State of Virginia) (here name the amount of the bequest), to be used for the publication work of said Church."

"I give and bequeath to the Executive Committee of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States (incorporated under the laws of the State of Tennessee) (here name the amount of the bequest), to be used for the Foreign Mission work of said Church."

"I devise and bequeath to the Executive Committee of Christian Education and Ministerial Relief of the Presbyterian Church in the United States the sum of $———dollars for the cause of Ministerial Relief."

"I devise and bequeath to the Executive Committee of Christian Education and Ministerial Relief of the Presbyterian Church in the United States the sum of $———to aid candidates of said Church in preparation for the gospel ministry."

"I hereby give and bequeath to the Executive Committee of Home Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States (incorporated under the laws of the State of Georgia) (here name the bequest), to be used for the Home Mission work of said Church."
